

We congratulate Honest John, the Investigator, on his brilliant strategy by which he reduced the Democratic majority in Westmoreland to about 1,000.

The consecration of the Soldiers' National Cemetery will take place at Gettysburg on the 19th of November. Hon. Edward Everett will deliver the dedicational oration and it is expected that President Lincoln, the members of the Cabinet, the Governors of the loyal States, and other distinguished dignitaries will be present.

The Pittsburg Gazette washed its face and donned a new suit, on election day—just in time to join in the hurrah for Curtin. It tried its hand some months ago at defiling its own nest, and has had the luxury of lying in it until it must have loathed itself.

The Union men of Franklin county and elsewhere, owe much to the patriotic Democrats who disregarded party ties to support the government. Without their aid Franklin would have been lost, and with every other county South of the Susquehanna, her voice would have been against the life of the Republic.

LIEUT. NILL leads Sharpe 173 and Horton 190 in Franklin county, thus beating both of his competitors more than the party vote. Prof. Gray is almost up to the full Union strength, but as Fulton gives 260 for the Democratic ticket, Messrs. Sharpe and Horton are elected.

The Carlisle Volunteer seems to have been terribly confused the morning after the election. It announces that "Negro fiddled while Rome was burning." A touch of "Nigger on the brain," friend Bratten! Take it coolly!

The Pittsburg Dispatch huzzas over the election of Curtin and the vote of Allegheny, and its editor has not tied up and flogged a deserter for fifty sixty days. Westward the star of civilization seems to wind its way.

We give the majorities reported from both Union and Democratic sources for Governor in all the important counties of the State, by which it will be seen that Gov. CURTIN is re-elected by a majority ranging from 18,000 to 20,000.
