The total vote of the State is 523,667—being 31,208 more than the vote of 1860, which, until this year, was the largest poll ever given. Gov. Curtin runs 7,287 more votes than he did in 1860, when he was elected by 32,050,

FRANKLIN COUNTY—OFFICIAL.

GOVERNOR.		CLERK OF COURTS.

REGISTER AND RECORDER.		Amberson's maj	160
Strickler, U	3,929
M'Kesson, D	3,691
Strickler's maj	238

It will be seen that the highest vote cast is for Register and Recorder—the total being 7,620. The lowest is for Prothonotary—the total being 7,581. The voting has been singularly solid; very little scratching or cross-firing having been practiced on either side. Gov. Curtin has evidently been cut about ten votes, because of the persistent efforts made publicly and privately to create the belief that he was responsible for the failure to receive compensation for military damages; but Woodward has been cut considerably more, and for no other reason than that he was distrusted on the great question of sustaining the government. Woodward is the fourth lowest on the Democratic ticket. The vote of the county is the largest ever cast, notwithstanding there are many soldiers in the service who would be legal voters if at home. The vote compares with the vote of the last ten years as follows:

	Rep.	Dem.	Total.	Maj.
1854	3,579	2,799	6,378	779
1855	2,860	2,411	5,271	449
1856	3,416	3,300	6,716	116
1857	3,058	3,187	6,245	129
1858	3,385	3,063	6,448	322
1859	3,692	3,267	6,959	425
1860	4,053	3,379	7,432	674
1861	3,569	2,877	6,446	692
1862	3,157	3,140	6,297	17
1863	3,876	3,710	7,586	166

It will be seen that the vote this year—taking the vote for Governor, which is 34 less than the vote for Register and Recorder—is 154 larger than that of 1860, when a President was chosen. The Democratic vote is 331 larger than ever before, while the Union vote is 177 smaller than the number cast against the Democracy in 1860. That the Democratic vote was increased to the extent of about 150 by Republicans who were defrauded into the embrace of Copperheads by the most positive promises of early peace and payment of damages in the event of Woodward's election, there can be no doubt, but the result shows that while they have been faithless to themselves and to their government, there were more than enough of faithful men to save both the county and State. They will not soon again be thus misled by the hypocracy of reckless politicians, and now that Union supremacy is finally established in Franklin county, they will with many others join to swell the invincible Union ranks.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

We have not a correct list of the members elect to the next Legislature; but the political complexion is positively ascertained and will be as follows:

	Senate.	House.	Total.
Union	17	52	69
Democratic	16	48	64
Union majority	1	4	5

The following is the official vote for Senator in the Bedford district. Considering the extraordinary efforts made to elect the Democratic candidate, the triumph of Mr. Householder is signal indeed:

	Householder, U.	Baer, D.

BRIEF WAR ITEMS.

Gen. Webb speaks in the higest terms of the conduct of the conscripts in the late fight at Bristow Station.

The Richmond Examiner says there are 190,000 free negroes in the Confederacy, and urges that they ought to be drafted for teamsters, drivers, &c.

The drafted men of New York and substitutes who have been forwarded to the rendezvous at Riker's Island, and thence to the seat of war, number, at the present time, about six thousand.

Gen. Burnside telegraphs that he has been uniformly successful in East Tennessee and Southwest Virginia. He says that there are no more loyal people in the world than those of East Tennessee.

Of the corps d' Afrique, organized under the auspices of Gen. Banks, fifteen thousand colored soldiers have already been mustered into the service, and recruits are coming in rapidly. The maximum strength of the corps is 25,000.

A dispatch from Louisville (not official) says that Gen. Grant has left for Nashville, to assume command of the armies of the Cumberland and Ohio. Gen. Thomas takes command of Gen. Rosecrans' army, who reports at Cincinnati.

Letters from Murfreesboro' on the 10th inst., state that Gen. Hooker was near that town. The rebel statement that he was in command of the force of mounted infantry invading Virginia from the Southwest, was, therefore, a mistake.

Complete official returns from the infantry engaged in the battles of Chickamauga have been received, showing a total loss of 955 officers and 14,891 men. The losses of the cavalry will swell the grand total to about 16,000. Of 4,685 missing, 2,500 were wounded. Thirty-six pieces of artillery were lost and a few wagons.

Maj. Gen. Heintzleman has been relieved from the command of the Department of Washington, and is superseded by Gen. Augur. This change has been anticipated for some time, with a view of bringing Gen. H.'s services into the field, where he has always displayed no inconsiderable abilities as a commander. His particular destination is not known.

Recently a fight occured on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, near Collierville, Tennessee. Gen. Sherman was on the train with 300 of the 13th regulars, when the locomotive was disabled by a cannon shot. Sherman formed his men, with 600 Indiana troops; behind a stockade, and fought the rebels for five hours, finally routing them. They numbered three thousand men, under Chalmers.

Gen. Gilmore has achieved one triumph. He has at last succeeded in making his operations and plans so effectually that neither the rebels nor the correspondents of the northern press can gather the least clue to them. All that is known is that he is very busy in various directions; that Morris Island is being rendered impregnible by immense works and very heavy guns; that he is pushing forward his works toward James Island, and that he has strengthened Forts Gregg and Wagner, and mounted many enormus guns there.

GOV. CURTIN AT HOME.

Gov. Curtin and family made a hasty visit last week to Bellefonte, his old home, and he was received with the greatest enthusiasm. Although his coming was unknown, a meeting was at once called in the Court House, and it was soon filled to overflowing by ladies and gentlemen, without distinction of party, to do honor to their townsman who had been so signally honored by the people of Pennsylvania. In answer to an address made by Mr. M'Alister, Gov. Curtin thus beautifully referred to his own position in the late contest:

"Three years ago he aspired to become Governor in order to satisfy a manly ambition. He felt, three years ago, that there was to be honor won in reaching the eminence of Chief Magistrate of a powerful Commonwealth. The honor had been won and worn. It brought anxious days and sleepless nights. It imposed laborious duties, and demanded unceasing vigilance. Hence, so far as the honor of wielding Executive power is concerned, he was fully satisfied; and had his fellow citizens decreed otherwise, he would have sought the repose and comforts of his old home, without a single regret for lost power, and with every satisfaction for regained privacy and tranquil pleasure. But the people had decided that he should be a candidate, and therefore he had entered the contest with a zeal which would be satisfied with nothing but success. He was anxious to triumph because he knew that success would enable him to be of service to the National Government. He labored for victory because he fervently believed that the success of the principle which he represented, involved the certain success of the efforts of the Federal Government to crush rebellion."

TELL THEM THE TRUTH.

The Tribune thus closes a sensible article on the verdict of the People in the late elections:

We appeal, then, to the friends of the South among us to let the truth be known among those who still cling to the desperate fortunes of the Rebellion. The South has persevered in this struggle, buoyed up by the vain hope of Northern revolution or European intervention, until her soil is a graveyard and two-thirds of her families in mourning. She has hoped to tire out or wear out the resolution of the North. That hope is a delusion. We are bled; we are taxed; we have mortgaged our property to the extent of a full tenth of its value; we want Peace, but not a Sham Peace—not a Peace that leaves us three thousand miles of zig-zag hostile boundary on the South—a boundary which enables a foreign power to cut us completely in two by a march of three or four days across our border. With Canada in the hands of Great Britain, is there a sane man on earth who imagines that we could allow Wheeling to pass into the possession of another power, which would probably be Great Britain's ally in the next great war made upon us? If the South has a single friend among us who enjoys her confidence, he will now warn her that Disunion will never be submitted to by the loyal States, and urge her to turn her thoughts to speedy Peace on the basis of Reunion.

It is reported that the Russian fleet will visit Washington after leaving Annapolis.
