THE CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS.—In last week's issue we give the proclamation of the President, calling for 300,000 additional volunteers to serve for three years, unless sooner discharged by the termination of the war.

future abundance, and the loved ones of those who fight our battles should be strangers to the remorseless pang of poverty.

the ground that they could influence exemptions in any way whatever, has been swindled and could recover his money back in any court of Justice.

WE direct the attention of our friends, who may wish to purchase Furs of any description, and have the privilege of selling a large and splendid stock, to the advertisement of Messrs. Chas. Oxford & Sons, Philadelphia, in another column.
