Gossip With OUR FRIENDS .- Old winter is coming on apace. We have seen his grey hairs upon the grass. He has well shaken the forest trees, leaving them bare and cheerses; small boys run about with their hands in their pockets, and feet, lately bare, incased dollars a ton, and advancing in price; wood is almost too dear to whittle and much less burn; ice cream has gone out of fashion and oysters taken their place: chickens and tur-November, except as the fore-runner of winter. A French novelist begins one of his tales: "It was in the gloomy month of Nobember, when Englishmen commit suicide, etc." Well has genial Tom Hood said:

"No warmth, no cheerfulness, no healthful ease, No comfortable feel in any member-No shade, no shine, no butterflies, no bees, No fruits, no flowers, no leaves, no birds, No-vember!"

and we say; "save us from No-vember!" Last Friday some of our old friends of the 10th New Jersey passed through the town, leaving two companies of their number with us. We have a battery now in town, (not Walk's) and dare Gen. Lee to come on. It is very dull, no concerts, no negro minstrels. no lectures, no panoramas, no exhibitions o any sort. We have not even any alarms o. fire. We look out of our window and see nothing but wagons loaded with wood; and an occasional blue coat, with now and then a stray shoulder strap of the department o' the Suesquehanna .- All quiet along the southern border.

Did you ever pay extra for the privilege of staying awake in a sleeping car, in preference to sleeping comfortably in an ordinary one ! We did once. So anxious were we for our took immediate possession, in hopeful anticipation of speedily forgetting all our troubles fruit, the smallest of the crop measuring nine balmy." A youth of some twenty-two specimens of agricultural, horticultural, poshoulder-straps and a sword, sat opposite to us. Now this young man of twenty-two may have been, to use a commercial phrase, A No. 1 copper-bottomed; but was it right that he should begin to whistle, as I began to snore. That wretched boy whistled fragments of almost every tune I had ever heard, and of hundreds of tunes I had never heard. He whistled in flats and in sharps, in majors and minors, slow and fast, opera and negro minstrels, sacred and profane, moral and lewd. I think he must have whistled "La Traviata" clear through from beginning to end, and then he gave us at least a half hour of "The Battle of the Nile." Faster and more furiously the miserable executioner of rest whistled. I wished for a gag, prayed for persimmons, and hoped for a smash up; -but all in vain. He whistled like-like the wind, and as though he had made a bet that he could beat out the locomotive. In the open air and by the light of day the music (forgive us, Apollo,) would have been intolerable, but at night, in a close car-what pen ; can do justice to the sensation! Under the combined influence of sleeplessness, smothering and whistling, we sunk into a comatose state, from which we were roused only by a cessation of the whistling. In good, sober, earnest, with a heart overflowing with the very cream of human kindness, let us beg. all young men, whether robed (like Ticknor & Fields' books) in blue and gold or not, let us pray them not to whistle in a sleeping car, Whistling will do for the street corner, can be borne in the parlor, may do even in church, but can never, never be in place in

MILITARY CLAIMS .- The order issued by Gen. Couch recently, instructing Capt. Denny to adjudicate certain military claims in Franklin and adjacent counties, has been revoked by the Secretary of War, for the reason that they cannot be paid without Conpressional legislation. That there is no want of disposition on the part of the government to settle and pay these claims we are well assured. Gov. Thomas, now M. C. from the Washington district in Maryland, where there has been more wide-spread desolation than here by military occupation, recently visited Weshington to have an order made for the payment of these claims; but it was ascertained that they could not be paid with- to Miller & Harsher's Drug Store, Franklin Eppository out legislation. The regulations are justly out legislation. The regulations are justly taining to the army, and such accounts must come within prescribed forms, as the laws now are, before they can be settled in the accounting departments. For this reason, Gov. Thomas withdrew his request for an order, and will present a bill to the next Congress providing for the prompt and less. Pretty women have blue and red no requitable adjudication and payment of all in boots; little girls poke their little red the demands of our people, and we doubt not plants, in regard to which we hear the most wonderfull hands under their little aprons ; coal is eight; that the necessary legislation will be had very early in the session.

The uniform efforts of Gen. Couch to do instice to the people of the border since he County, N.Y. has been in command here, merit the warmkeys, pudding and sausage, and fresh pork est appreciation alike of the people and the abound; and last week we saw distinctly six government. Whileever scrupulously faithor eight flakes of snow on our beaver. Don't ful to the government, he has been mindful imagine for a moment that we are partial to, of the just claims of those who have, without inquiry as to compensation or forms, contributed their property to the army in times of peril; and his order was but a just recognition of what was due from the government to the people. That it has been revoked, for want of power to settle the claims when adjusted, implies no censure upon Gen. Couch, nor does it imply an unwillingness of the government to meet their claims when the proper authority is conferred. The adjudication of them, under Gen. Couch's order, was arrested doubtless for the reason that Congress will provide a definite system of settlement which may require the re-adjustment of them We feel assured that it-will not be long delayed.

Capt. Denny, who has had charge of these claims, has won the confidence of the people by his courtesy, integrity and promptness: and all honest claimants will be glad to have him re-assigned to the duty when the necessary provision, shall have been made for set-

The fellow had a revolver, but Mr. D. succeeded in pulling him off his horse, and gave him a severe pummelling, leaving the wouldbe robber to get up as best he could.

FINE APPLES .- Mr. Jacob Eberly, near this place, presented us with six apples last personal comfort that we paid one DOLLAR | week, the average circumference of each was for a double birth (O gemini!), of which we thirteen inches, and the weight of the six five pounds.
