Gossip With Our Friends.—Last week we spent two days in Pittsburg...

Did you ever ride from Pittsburg to Little Washington, twenty-six miles, in an old fashioned Troy coach...

Let names delight to be and but; It is their nature to your little heads they were not made...

We rode outside with the driver on our way over, and had a good view of the rich, rolling country...

We visited the works in Pittsburg where they make the big cannon for Uncle Samuel, and were astonished and confounded...

In New York we found everybody busy, making all the money they could. We heard no talk of the war...

How to Communicate with Union Prisoners in Richmond.—Letters should be written on a half sheet of note or letter paper...

Persons sending boxes will do well to observe carefully the following directions.—Mark the Co., Reg't, and Vols.

By Flag of Truce.—Richmond, Va. Care of Brig. Gen. S. A. Meredith, U. S. Commissioner for Exchange, Fortress Monroe, Virginia.

Capt. Denny has, we learn unofficially, made report to Gen. Couch of his operations under the order requiring him to adjudicate military claims.

He estimates the amount unadjusted at about $20,000, for which partial or complete proof has been presented.

NATIONAL SECURITIES.—Attention is invited to the advertisement of Jay Cooke, Esq., offering the Five-twenty bonds for sale.

Another Batch of Reb Prisoners.—Capt. Schelling of the Invalid Corps, started yesterday morning with another batch of Reb prisoners for Fort Delaware.

The 77th, Col. Stumbaugh's old regiment, is now with Gen. Hooker. It lost severely in the battle of Chickamauga.

Dividend.—The Hagerstown and Sharpsburg Turnpike Company have declared a dividend of 18 per cent.

Appeals.—Taxpayers should notice the advertisement of the Commissioners giving the days of appeals in the several districts.

At Home Again.—Our friend Capt. A. J. Snyder, Co. H, 16th Penna. Cavalry, is now at home on leave of absence.

On Furlough and Re-enlisted.—The following named soldiers, of Co. D, 11th Penna. Cavalry, from this place and vicinity, are now at home on thirty days furlough.

Hon. John Brough.—Among the most conspicuous of the many distinguished visitors in attendance at the Gettysburg dedication ceremonies, was the Hon. Jno. Brough.

Thomas H. McDowell, one of our citizen prisoners now in Salisbury, N. C., wrote his father on the 12th ult., saying: "We have been getting along very well so far, and I hope it may continue during our imprisonment."

The rebel Gen. Jenkins has been promoted to a Major Generalship, "on account of his daring operations in Pennsylvania," and now commands Hood's old division in Bragg's army.

Good Pens.—We can confidently recommend the gold pens advertised by A. Morton in to-day's paper.

Wanted.—A Steam Engine of about twenty horse power. Also a Saw Mill Carriage and gear.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. FORWARD MOVEMENT COMMENCED. CROSSING THE RAPIDAN RIVER. Very Brisk Skirmishing in Progress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27, 1863. Meade's army moved yesterday morning, in three columns, towards the Rapidan. One column crossed at Culpeper Mine Ford.

The Army of the Potomac moved at an early hour yesterday morning, towards the Rapidan, and General Meade and his staff followed at seven o'clock.

The right wing, supported by the Sixth Corps, was ordered to cross at Jacob's Ford, below Raccoon Ford.

The Rebel cavalry is nominally 6000 strong but, is much less. Early's Corps is fortified from a point near Mountain Run, south of the Rapidan.

A portion of our troops reached the other side of the Rapidan yesterday, and the remainder to day, together with the headquarters, which moved at 9 o'clock this morning.

Accounts of Meade's forward movement, up to Saturday morning have come to Washington by special messenger.
