Gossip with our friends.—If any of our city acquaintances desire quietness, laziness, a general sense of nothing to do and unwillingness to attend even to that, let them come to C—g. Should another raid be made, and the militia once more called out, farewell to peace and quiet. Now or never. There is only one class of persons busy in C—g, they are the Fair sex—we mean, of course, the ladies engaged in the Fair. They are as busy as the "busy bee," they "improve each shining hour," and gas light too, they "gather from every (male) flower," "opening" his pocket book and extracting "honey" (money) any where. Verily the Christian Commission has active agents. The Fair must be a success. Once more we are requested to appeal to our country friends for aid. The ladies say they will take anything saleable, no matter how small the quantity. Many a little makes much. "Little drops of water make the mighty ocean." Nothing will come amiss. This is the last appeal. Help the brave men who are fighting our battles. Even old Mrs. Grundy, who is usually so particular and so prudish, succumbs in the present instance. She says "she don't like Fairs, she don't admire young ladies making showwomen of themselves except for money, she don't like Old Folks' Concerts, she don't like tableaux or any-kind of theatricals; she don't like nonsensicalities of any kind, but that the present object is so deserving that she won't say one word till the war is over. So now we have a clear course; let us make time. Of course the old lady reserves the right to think what she pleases, but she likes least of all to be thought disloyal. Blessings on her dear false teeth, her snarl is worse than her bite.

Extensive preparations have been made for the Old Folks' Concert, to come off next week, and all who attended the concert of the same character gotten up some years since, cannot fail to appreciate the present one. The same parties are associated with it, and the same master spirit at the head. Mr. Ayers' name assures perfection in every detail. To the curious we would say with regard to "tableaux," that they are all right—artists, and chemists, and carpenters, and upholsterers, and costumers have been busy; and a formal announcement will be made in good time.

Pittsburg.—To make a remark that has been insinuated once or twice by contemporary writers, and "P—g is cloudy, smoky, dirty, busy and noisy." When twenty miles away we saw the dense cloud that overhung the city, and as we entered the cloud we felt, and smelt, and tasted the same. Boats are now running on the rivers, giving a bustle to the banks that exceeds anything of the kind we ever saw in the east. Every one seems absorbed in the Fair which is now opened. Truly the citizens of P—g are ahead in good works savoring of loyalty. We beg leave to state to the Smithsonian Institute the fact that we saw the sun shining in Pittsburg at 12 M., June 3d, 1864. It must have been the sun, for we know of nothing but the sun that could have presented the appearance in the Heavens of a large, round, red globe of fire, like an overheated coal stove. Heat seemed also to proceed from it, and streaks of yellowish light, very much like dark streaks of yellow clay athwart the face of a healthy trout school boy. Actuated by scientific-enquiry we carefully examined the moon last night, and concluded that the Pittsburghers can't get up anything like so good a moon as they have at Wallack's theatre. Socially this city is glorious. The communion of dirt brings all upon an equality, coal heaver and proprietor alike. The markets here are perfectly luscious, the riburab stalks being of the size of small fence rails, and the strawberries—we won't say how large, for we'd never be believed. Coal, coal oil and iron are manifest to all the senses whichever way one turns, and the noise of cars, carts, drays and wagons is perfectly bewildering. Let no one seeking rest come within the limits of Pittsburg, but for one that wishes to see the developed industry of this great country, this is the place.

10 P. M., Friday.—Altoona.—Paid fifty cents for the privilege of having a grab at little to eat. As usual luck was against us. This was at the huge two-story hotel with a four-story dwelling at each end. 3 A. M., Saturday.—Harrisburg.—Found the city quite quiet, as the Legislature is not in session. 7 A. M., Philadelphia, dirty, hungry and sleepy, in spite of one of those miniature Libby's, a sleeping car.

Town reports.—Beef is very scarce, lean, tough and dear; lettuce, radishes and onions abundant; dogs are mysteriously disappearing; John Smith is certainly in earnest, for he has had Maria Jane Snooks out riding twice in the last two weeks; Simpkins has had his side whiskers shaved off, because a lady told him he looked like a rat terrier; now he resembles a bull dog; Jane Brown sews her hoops larger than ever, in spite of fashion; Mrs. Grundy says: well, never mind this time what Mrs. Grundy says; Jenks has lost his cane that was presented him for services done his country in a patriotic speech last Fourth of July; he offers a reward of 75 cts. for its return; Mrs. Phaint has been ill for a long time, but has been taking Scourer's INVIORATOR for ten days, and thinks she is better; Mrs. Mode has a new mantle that must have cost at least SEVENTY-FIVE dollars; Johnny Girth has not the small pox, as was reported by the Doctor; his grandmother says it is the measles; the boy that sweeps out the apothecary's shop says that there is a great difference between freckles and spotted fever; Dobbs was caught in a shower while on a picnic at Parnell's Knob, and says gloomily, as he looks at his pants bagged so at the knees, that "By George, picnics cost more than they come to;" Mrs. M'Manous' beans are growing finely; the weather has been very unfavorable for new spring bonnets and our army in Virginia—to be continued.

THE DRAFT COMPLETED.—The Draft for the deficiency in the quotas of this Congressional District under the respective calls of the President for 300,000, 200,000 and 200,000 men closed with Bedford county on Saturday, Somerset having been drawn on Thursday, and Adams and Fulton on Friday. We gave in our last issue a list of the drawing for this county. That draft, as reported, was for the deficiency, and an addition of fifty per cent. The order, however, for the percentage has been revoked, and the amount indicated has been deducted in the proportionate number of the last names drawn for each sub-district, leaving only the actual deficiency, and the names of those drawn in excess of the actual deficiency of the townships are returned to the wheel. It should therefore be understood that only those drafted until the deficiency was filled have been notified to attend. In the subsequent drafts for the counties of the District, the drawing was for the deficiency alone. We give the correct aggregate of each county.

Somerset..... 409 | Fulton..... 173
Adams..... 245 | Bedford..... 600

Throughout the entire Draft a very large number of persons coming under the second class were drawn, and also very many who are now in service. One Editor, and a remarkably large proportion of Physicians, Clergymen and Postmasters obtained prizes, and also two or three Enrolling officers. The attendance to witness the drawing was quite sparse, very little interest being felt in the matter.

The Board of Enrollment will sit in Chambersburg during the present week to hear claims for exemption, receive commutation money and substitutes. From Monday the 13th to Friday the 17th they will be in Gettysburg; from Monday the 20th to Wednesday the 23d in M'Connellsburg; from Friday the 24th of June to Friday the 8th of July in Bedford and from Monday the 11th of July to Monday the 18th of July in Somerset. Persons drafted should not fail to meet the Board promptly on the dates indicated in their notices. Those refusing or neglecting to do so must remember that under the law they are regarded as deserters, and very unpleasant consequences may follow.

By the amended law the payment of Three Hundred Dollars only exempts for the drafts under each separate call. In other words a man who is drafted in the drawings made to fill up the quotas under existing calls and pays three hundred dollars is only exempt until the first draft under a new call for men, when a like sum will be required, if he is again drafted. The son who is the support of aged or infirm parents is no longer exempt, nor is the distinction in favor of sons at home by reason of a certain number of the same family being in the army longer regarded. In fact the only causes for exemption are furnishing an acceptable substitute, permanent physical disability and the payment of three hundred dollars.

NEW UNION POLE.—UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT.—About the last act of vandalism and meanness perpetrated in this section during the rebel invasion last year, was the cutting down of the splendid Union pole in our Diamond. The credit of the performance belongs to Imboden's Guerrillas, who seemed to be the rear guard of the rebel horde. Recently a number of our citizens resolved that the old pole should be replaced by one of finer finish and greater length. The timber was accordingly purchased and a pole about 133 feet long was prepared under the direction of Capt. W. H. Sullenberger, to whom the Committee awarded the work. The time fixed for raising the pole was 5 P. M. on Monday last. At that hour the Diamond was crowded with citizens, who had assembled to witness the raising, and again greet the old flag from the place where it floated proudly from the first week of the war up to the time when our soil was polluted by the legions of Rebellion and Treason. All were jubilant, and the Diamond resounded with shouts of joy and patriotism, and to these manifestations was added the music of our Band, who, using for the first time their splendid new silver instruments, seemed to catch the spirit of the crowd and to play better than ever before. Every thing being in readiness, the pole was nearly placed in position, when the derrick used to raise it broke, and down it came with a crash, breaking the three upper splices into fragments. The wildest excitement ensued, but fortunately no one was injured. New splices will at once be provided, and if the work can be completed in time, the raising will take place with we hope full success, on Saturday next.

A GREAT DOG.—Capt. Rodes, of the Franklin Hall Restaurant, in this place, has a dog who if not a very attractive dog in appearance, yet has a history somewhat remarkable. When Capt. Brand's (subsequently Captain Rodes's) Company was organized at Camp Sifer, in November, 1861, one of the members named Mayhew was presented with a young dog, which he named "Ike," in compliment to one of his comrades. "Ike" was with Mayhew from that period in all the severe and long marches of the company through Virginia. In the battles of Cedar Mountain, Rappahannock Station and Second Bull Run he was in the midst of the company, fearlessly standing by his master. In the last named engagement he was taken prisoner, and the whole company mourned the fate of poor "Ike." Singularly enough, when months after, the company was marching through Warrenton, "Ike" was recognized on the door step of a fine residence, and was at once captured, giving at the same time unmitigated evidences of joy at rejoining his protectors. Mayhew had been killed at South Mountain, and "Ike" became the property of the company, and from the circumstance of his master's death, a greater pet than ever. The last fight "Ike" was in was at Fredericksburg, where he stood by the company with his usual undaunted courage and fidelity. He now wears a collar bearing the names of the various engagements he was in, and will find in Captain Rodes a generous protector as long as he lives. Who says "Ike" is not a great dog.

BUTCHERS ON A RAMPAGE.—The butchers of Chambersburg agreed on the 20th ult., to raise the price of meat to 20 cts. per pound for single beef-steaks; 16 cts. for roast and steak and 14 cts. for boiling and steak. Mutton is put up to 15 cts. for hind-quarter, and 10 cts. for fore-quarter; and veal goes up to 10 and 12 cts. The result of this must be to reduce the consumption of meat fully one-third or perhaps one-half in this community, and so far it will be advantageous to the health of the people generally. We consume vastly too much meat, and people will be amazed after a few weeks of denial under the enormous prices, at their improved condition under very moderate meat diet. We do not by any means advocate the vegetarian doctrine—on the contrary we regard good beef as invaluable to all classes; but, as a people we have grown into its most immoderate use, and thus made it a cause instead of a blessing. The way to reduce the price of meat now is to consume as little as possible, and the people should make common cause to bring about a reduction. The present rates are absolutely prohibitory to a very large portion of the people.

ANOTHER HERO DEAD.—The remains of Mr. Noel Hall passed through this place for interment in Hagerstown, in charge of Mr. Jacob P. Noel, on Thursday last.

This young hero was a son of Mr. Wm. Hall, of Hagerstown, and a grandson of our venerable fellow citizen, John Noel, Esq. He was a member of Co. K, 12th Penna. Reserves, having joined the company which was called the "McClure-Rides," and commanded by Captain John S. Eyster, on the day of its organization in this place, April 21st, 1861. Mr. Hall was in every prominent engagement from the battle of Drainesville down to the eight days' fight in the Wilderness, when he received his mortal wounds, and was always conspicuous for his gallantry and noble bearing. He escaped injury in every conflict save one, the Second Bull Run, receiving in that action a very severe wound. In the second days' fight in the Wilderness he was shot in the knee and both arms, which produced his death on Tuesday evening of last week. He was on the verge of manhood and justly esteemed for his correct habits and generous nature. Peace to the ashes of the noble young soldier.

THE following Committees have been selected to take charge of the respective departments leading each committee:

Finance Tables.—Messrs. Marian Seiders, Sade Reynolds, Marie M'Callah, Kate Miller, Mary Biech, Mrs. Wm. Stenger, Mrs. V. M' Coy, Mrs. Emma Carls.
Taps and Boats.—Mrs. J. K. Shroyok, Mrs. J. Foster.
Ice Cream.—Mrs. D. K. Wunderlich, Miss Maggie Stevenson.
Cakes.—Mrs. Wm. G. Mitchell, Mrs. B. T. Fellows.
Candy.—Mrs. S. G. Lane, Mrs. Geo. Platt, Miss Sarah Wright, Miss Bert.
Restaurants.—Mrs. O. N. Lull, Mrs. T. J. Earley, L. S. Clark.
Coffee.—Mrs. S. Huber, Mrs. J. D. Grier.
Stewards.—Mrs. Wm. H. McDowell, Mrs. J. S. Nixon.
Floral.—Misses M. and L. Chambers, Capt. Swearingin.
Singer.—Miss Julia Wampler, Mrs. M. J. Stoner, Leonard.—Mr. and Mrs. Kinney, Mrs. C. M. Duncan.

Donations will be received by the above Committee, and persons donating will please confer with the Committee to which their donations properly belong.

DISTRESSING INTELLIGENCE.—Mrs. Colonel Boyd received a telegram from her husband, Col. W. H. Boyd, commanding 21st Pa. Cavalry, dated at Yorktown, announcing that he had been wounded. In what engagement this occurred we are at present unable to say, as we have no intelligence of the whereabouts of the Regiment for some time past. Mrs. Boyd proceeded to Washington on Monday.

We have also intelligence of the death of Captain John H. Harmony, of the same Regiment. It is stated that he was killed on Tuesday of last week. His wife received a telegram conveying this statement, yesterday.

A telegram from Col. Boyd yesterday, states that he is doing well, and that about forty of the 21st were killed and wounded.

NEW COUNTERFEIT GREENBACKS.—A new counterfeit $20 greenback has made its appearance, which is not the one described in the detectors, but is equally good and well calculated to deceive. The green is of lighter shade and the engraving is coarser than the genuine. In center of the bill the foot of the female figure is not seen, while in the genuine it is quite visible. In the printing just below the figure, in the word "the," there is no cross line in the letter H, while it is plain in the difference in the color of the seal. No doubt many of these notes will be offered, and it will be well for persons to mark the difference between the genuine and counterfeit closely to protect themselves from being victims.

TROUBLE ABOUT THE DRAFT.—The Waynesboro Record says:—"Before the result of the draft was made known on Monday last, a good deal of uneasiness was noticeable among some of the enrolled candidates for 'military honors' and their friends, and could the prayers of many have been realized all troubles and 'rextation of spirit' with father Abraham would be over. Some of the fairer sex were for hanging or shooting the old gentleman instanter; but a copious diffusion of crocodile tears had the effect to relieve them and they since, fortunately for the President, have relapsed into a calmer state of mind, and promise to be reconciled for this time.

THE FOURTH.—We hear of no arrangement making in this place for the celebration of our National Anniversary. Since the last Fourth the day has increased its claims upon the grateful remembrance of the people. It was on the Fourth of July last that Vicksburg was surrendered, and the rebels fell back defeated from Gettysburg. To us the glory of that day was as blessed as it was brilliant. It forced the heel of the victorious and defiant enemy from our necks, and while it saved the Republic it spared immediately our property and our persons.

We hope some steps may be taken to honor the occasion.

THE remains of Capt. I. S. Waterbury, of the 55th Penna. Regiment, were interred at Harrisburg with distinguished honors, on Thursday last. He died from sunstroke, on the field of battle, in Gen. Butler's army, a short time ago. In the Mexican war he served with great gallantry, and commenced his service in the present rebellion as Adjutant of Colonel Stumbaugh's Regiment, in the first three months' campaign. In his death he claimed a good citizen, a genial companion, and a patriot whose services command the highest appreciation of his countrymen.

ARRIVAL.—Lieut. Col. Dixon, of the 6th Penna. Reserves, but for some time Commandant of the 10th Regiment of the same Corps, arrived here on Monday, on his way to his home in St. Thomas. The Reserves, as will be seen in telegrams elsewhere in this issue, have arrived in Harrisburg, and will be shortly mustered out of service. We shall have something to say about those attached to the Corps 'from this section in our next paper.

GRAND LODGE OF PENNSYLVANIA.—At the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of I. O. of O. F. of Pennsylvania, held at Philadelphia last week, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

M. H. G. Master—Wm. H. Trinick, of No. 52, Philadelphia.
R. W. D. G. Master—John M. Crossland, of No. 53, Pottsville.
R. W. G. Warden—George Flings, of No. 10, Germantown.
R. W. G. Secretary—Wm. Curtis, of No. 28, Philadelphia.
R. W. G. Treasurer—M. Richards Muckle, of No. 46, Philadelphia.
R. W. G. Representative—R. A. Lamberton, of No. 107, Harrisburg.

AN EDITOR IN LUCK.—Henry G. Smith, Esq., Editor of the Vulton Democrat, drew a prize at the Provost Marshal's Office, in this place, on Friday last. He was among the drafted from the Borough of M'Connellsburg. Prizes of this character seem to be dispensed now a-days without distinction of persons or parties.

PROMOTION.—Our friend Lieut. John S. Nimmons, of Fannettsburg, and a veteran of three years' service, has been appointed Quarter Master of the 11th Penna. Cavalry. A faithful, modest soldier is Lieut. Nimmons. He fully deserves the honor of which he has been made the recipient.

MR. JOHN BUXTON, of the 7th Maryland Regiment, Infantry, was among the killed in the eight days' fight in the Wilderness. He was from Hagerstown. For many years he resided in this place, and for a long time was a Baggage Master on the Cumberland Valley Railroad.

EXAMINE YOUR GRAPE VINES.—On the end of the new wood you will find a leaf or two spun together in a nest, and in this nest you will find a caterpillar, which should be entirely destroyed and the nest taken off if you wish to have a crop of grapes.

OFF TO THE FAIR.—A number of our citizens have gone to Philadelphia to attend the Great Central Fair. Excursion tickets good for four days are issued by the Pennsylvania and Reading Railroad Companies from Harrisburg.

ONE hundred and fifty-six dollars have been forwarded to the Sanitary Commission in Philadelphia, the proceeds of a musical entertainment given in Shippensburg, on Saturday evening of last week.

THE STATE AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—It has been determined to hold the Annual fair of the State Agricultural Society at Easton the latter part of September.

HON. ALEXANDER KING, of Bedford county, has been appointed Judge of this Judicial District, in place of Judge Nill, deceased.

EVERY SOLDIER SHOULD HAVE THEM.—FROM B. H. HUNTERMAN, Seaward 72 Regt. P. V. "Your medicinal preparation (Brown's Bronchial Troche) is certainly valuable to soldiers in the field, and I feel satisfied, if generally adopted at the hospitals, many sleepless nights of the weary soldier would be alleviated. Our regiment are now testing their qualities, and I believe are all satisfied with their good effects in alleviating these distressing affections of the throat arising from cold and exposure. They are now daily prescribed in our hospital and at the surgeon's morning call." Sold everywhere at 25 cts. per box.

TO WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—All Soldiers who have been discharged by reason of WOUNDS RECEIVED IN ANY BATTLE, and who have not received the ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS BOUNTY, can receive the same now and at any time by applying either in person or by letter, at the Military and Naval Agency, No. 427, W. MARKET STREET, PHILADELPHIA. JOSEPH B. DEVITT, A. C. O.

PRIZE MONEY.—A full list of ALL PRIZES PAYABLE TO DATE can be seen at the office. These and all other claims against the Government promptly collected. may 18—60

AN UNWELCOME STRANGER.—Mr. Ich commonly known as the Ich, has made its appearance in town and in various places throughout the country. It may be a source of relief to persons so afflicted to know that they can get a cure for this troublesome disease at Miller's Drug Store. Let all so afflicted send immediately to their Drug Store and get a box of Terrell's Ich Ointment. Price 25 cents. It is a speedy cure.

SPANGLER has just returned from the East with a fresh stock of Drugs and Medicines. He has also made additions to his stock of Pomades, Perfumery, Hair Brushes, &c., which he would invite the public to call and examine, feeling that his goods and prices are all suit all.

ISAAC HUTTON & SON have removed their Boot and Shoe Store to their new room, on the East side of Main street, between Huber & Tolbert's Hardware Store and the Indian Queen Hotel, where they will be pleased to see all who may favor them with a call. Their prices are such as will suit the times.

IF YOU wish to impart vigor and clearness to the voice, relieve hoarseness &c., go at once to A. J. Miller's Drug Store and get a box of Bannard's Troche, the only effectual remedy in the market. mar 2

COUNTRY people look to your interest. Take your Lard, Bacon, Dried Fruit and marketing to Geivicks, where you will receive the highest price in cash, and see the largest stock of Fish in town at low figures.
