yields his devotion to a common country in the hour of personal danger, is faithless to order and government, and faithless to himself, his home and his children.

The remedy is simple, plain and within the power of all. Our armies must be reformed! If Sheridan had but 25,000 more men Earley would be driven back to the capital of crime at once and the border would be speedily and forever freed from thieving and destructive incursions.

Hitherto there has been nothing done, either by State or local organizations, to give shape and power to the Union party for the coming election.

It must be borne in mind that we have a sleepless, powerful, organized and unscrupulous foe. The very distractions we have suffered by rebel raids and probable invasion have been turned to the best possible political account by our fireless foes.

The Union men have a most sacred and responsible duty to perform to themselves and to their country. They must withstand the insidious, subtle treachery of the disloyal; the complaints of the disheartened; the weakness of the timid, and the hundred prejudices created by busy treason in its appeals to every selfish purpose.

Disloyalty cannot succeed, for the people are loyal—earnestly, sincerely loyal. No party limits prescribe fidelity to the government; and if the issue can be fairly presented to the American people, no peril can come to our threatened institutions by their suffrages.

The time is at hand when Union men must commence the work of organization in the most thorough manner. Every election district should be divided and sub-divided in the hands of competent committees, and every ward supplied to make the Union men a compact and invincible party.

GEN. WM. H. KOONTZ, of Somerset, was nominated on Monday last by the Union Conference, as the Union candidate for Congress in this district.

him to any other candidate, as he is a native of that country; has practiced his profession extensively there for many years, and is justly beloved by the people.

We are well assured that no one will more cordially concur in the preliminary action of the counties of the district, whereby Gen. Koontz was made the candidate, than Col. Jordan; and he will earnestly co-operate with the loyal men to rescue the district from the shameful misrepresentation our people have suffered by the faithless votes of Gen. Coffroth.

Gen. Koontz is a young man, but has the ability and energy to make a most vigorous campaign, while his blameless character commands the respect of friend and foe. He will, we are assured, canvass every county of the district as thoroughly as the brief time left will allow, and unless the people of the border shall turn upon themselves with suicidal hands, his triumphant election is inevitable.

The district voted as follows for Congress in 1862, and for Governor in 1863:

Our Harrisburg correspondent is by no means complimentary to the legislature, and it must be confessed that his strictures are no less just than severe. He shows that while they appropriated to Chambersburg what would be equivalent to about $33 per head to our desolated and homeless people, they appropriated to themselves about $275 each more than the law allows them as their pay.

An old subscriber, whose subscription account was far from being in arrears, has sent us the following kind letter, which we commend to our subscribers generally.

ABOUT THE REBEL RAID.—Careful inquiry into the details of the burning of Chambersburg, establishes the fact that in nearly every house systematic robbery was practiced by the rebels.

There is a great and urgent need of slippers in all our hospitals. For want of them many cases of sickness and convalescent soldiers are obliged to go barefooted.

Senator Wilson publishes a note, denying all the reports to the effect that he is mixed up with any proposition for an armistice with the rebels.

COL. BOSMPH has been relieved as Assistant Provost Marshal General at Harrisburg, by Capt. Dodge.

We invite attention to the announcement of T. B. Peterson & Bro. in our advertising column.

We learn that Gen. Hunter dismissed a large number of his officers recently, subject to the approval of the President.

We are indebted to the publishers of the Harrisburg Telegraph, Carlisle American and Hagerstown Herald, for their kind proffer of assistance in re-issuing our paper.

LOCAL ITEMS.

GOSSIP WITH OUR FRIENDS.—Dear Friends: It may be that you are in no humor for pleasantry. If so, we can cordially agree, for we could not smile, tried we ever so hard.

As the bare, worn hands and hoarse voices, faint to the place from whence at first they came, so will our hearts turn to the homes of our childhood and the graves of our kindred.

There was a time when we believed in the boasted chivalry of the South, when we were proud of their brave deeds, even when we struggled with them for we looked upon them as misguided Americans; but this last wholesale act of vandalism has extinguished every spark of respect for them as men.

The number of rebels who were in and about Chambersburg has been variously estimated, and persistently belittled by unfriendly journals abroad.

The ruins of the Chambersburg Academy have already been sketched for us by Mr. Knight. We need no picture to remind us of its honored walls, but we hope to hand it down to posterity as a monument of Southern barbarity.

It is a great comfort to us that our legislature has been so considerate as to exempt the most of us from service, under the late militia law, which reads: 'except idiots, lunatics, drunks, vagabonds, paupers and criminals'—but whom can they mean by 'IDIOTS AND CRIMINALS'?

Our own citizens as to the number of rebels actually in Chambersburg when it was burned. Most of our people fix the number at from 350 to 600; but we are assured that Mr. Christian Stouffer, who lives on West Market street, on which the main body of McCausland's command entered, counted 831 who entered Chambersburg, that street, and there were not less than 250 who entered by different other streets.

Let it be borne in mind that Chambersburg must be rebuilt. Even should the war last for another year or more, the necessities which created it before will repeat their demand, and they must be met.

RE-BUILDING.—One by one the people are resolving to reconstruct their dwellings and places of business; and each new individual effort to restore our once beautiful town, gives heart and hope to others.

POLITICAL INTELLIGENCE.

The Democrats of Somerset have instructed for Hon. F. M. Kimmel for Judge; Gen. A. H. Coffroth for Congress, and Hiram Field for Assembly, each with power to select his own electors.

The Union men of Centre county have nominated Hon. Wm. G. Armstrong for Congress; Edward Blanchard for Senator, and Maj. R. H. Burdett for Assembly. Cyrus T. Alexander, present member is the Democratic candidate for Assembly.

One of the most curious documents that we have seen lately is "A Proclamation by Isham G. Davis, Governor of Tennessee, printed in the Atlanta (Ga.) Appeal, appointing an election in the Tennessee Congressional District of Tennessee, to be a vacancy caused by the death of Hon. John A. Currin. Polls are to be opened, not only in the district, but wherever there are Tennessee soldiers. Inasmuch as Harrisburg has been an exile from Tennessee for a long time, and its name is not on its roll, it is not, in its own right, a Tennessee territory, and its inclusion in this proclamation may be styled 'the height of the ridiculous.'

The following is the official vote given at the special election on the 2d of August, for the several municipalities in the constitution of the first number. The first amendment is the one conferring the right of suffrage on our gallant soldiers; and it is worthy of note that none but the intensely colored counties cast majorities against our soldiers voting, and that in the Union county cast a decided majority in their favor.

Table with columns: DISTRICTS, For, Against, For, Against. Lists election results for various municipalities like Adams, Armstrong, Bedford, etc.

Table with columns: Major for the 1st amendment, Major for the 2nd amendment, Major for the 3rd amendment. Lists totals for amendments.

REMARKS ON WAR NEWS.

Repulse from Gen. Sherman says that his movements invest Atlanta as all progressing satisfactorily.

Confederate Farragut has achieved another most brilliant result in the capture of Fort Morgan—the steepest rebel fortification about Mobile.

General Kilpatrick's expedition on the Macon Railroad has been successful. About fourteen miles of track had been torn up.

The army of the Potomac has achieved another victory. General Hancock has been ordered to move to the north, and has been ordered to move to the north.

THE STREETS.—The Town Council met recently and ordered that Main Street should be widened eight feet on each side; but as it would operate most harshly upon some lot-owners, they have reconsidered it.

BRICK DONATION.—The following letter from Rev. I. H. Torrence explains itself. Persons having lost their family Bibles through the burning of our town are requested to leave their names with the Rev. Mr. Dwyer.

GOSE TO MONTANA.—Jeremiah Cook, Esq., of this place, has gone to Montana Territory to reside. Mr. Cook is a sound lawyer, an excellent business man and withal one of the cleverest of good fellows.

RECRUITS.—Local bounties are now offered in a number of the districts of the county. Guilford offers $300 Local Bounty, which with the Government Bounty, and pay makes $522 pay for one year. See advertisements.

ON A VISIT.—Capt. David S. Gordon, of the 2d U. S. Cavalry, and Capt. L. B. Kurtz, of Co. G, 17th Penna. Cavalry, were both on a visit to their homes in Waynesboro last week.

PERSONAL. Gen. Stevens now has command of the post of Harrisburg. Mr. Dyer, an old and highly respectable citizen of Perry county, died at Newville on the 29th inst. in the 57th year of his age. He was the father of Mr. A. L. Coyle of Mercersburg. John McCurdy, Esq., has withdrawn from the 2d U. S. Cavalry, and is leaving E. W. Curran, Esq., as sole Editor and proprietor. The Herald is a vigorous and earnest Union paper, and merits a liberal patronage.
