UNION NATIONAL TICKET: FOR PRESIDENT, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, OF ILLINOIS. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ANDREW JOHNSON, OF TENNESSEE.

UNION ELECTORAL TICKET. SENATORIAL: THOMAS CUNNINGHAM, REPRESENTATIVE: ELLAS W. HALE.

"RALLY ONCE AGAIN"

The great States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana have declared in thunder tones against a humiliating peace with murderous traitors, and in favor of the prosecution of the war, until its crowning victory is achieved by the submission of rebels to the majesty of the laws.

Let organization therefore be the work of every loyal man and the Keystone State will not blush when Indiana, with a disfranchised soldiery, rolls up thirty thousand for the Union cause.

Such is the verdict of October! It points with menacing certainty to the utter discomfiture of the Chicago tricksters in November, and declares that neither by traitors in arms nor by their less manly aids in the North shall the great cause of an imperiled Nation be lost.

Loyal Men! rally once again for your own and your Country's cause, and let your triumph already well assured, be so decisive that treachery of every shade must cease to breed disorder, and strife, and death in the most beneficent government of the world.

ORGANIZE FOR VICTORY!

While Ohio and Indiana give overwhelming majorities for the Union cause without the aid of the army, Pennsylvania was well nigh lost in this momentous struggle by over confidence and the absence of organization.

is tested by the Congressional vote, and the prestige of victory rested on organization and a full vote. So wisely reasoned our foes, and so they acted.

Let us learn from our foes. Our cause is not lost—not even failed, for Ohio and Indiana have rescued it, and our brave army has shielded us from dishonor.

Let organization therefore be the work of every loyal man and the Keystone State will not blush when Indiana, with a disfranchised soldiery, rolls up thirty thousand for the Union cause.

the utter despair of its masters in the land of crime, insists from day to day that our armistice repeating but "failure" and that treason is triumphant in every hand.

It may for a time deceive some of its readers as to the utter defeat of the aids and abettors of traitors at the polls.

The elections of the 11th inst. have resulted in the utter overthrow of the Peace Democracy, and leaves them without hope for a loyal State in November.

The official vote of Pennsylvania is not all received, but taking the official as far as reported and moderate estimates in the other counties there seems to be no reasonable doubt that the State is Union on the home vote, and the army will give from 10,000 to 15,000 Union majority to be added.
