

Apprehensions in Richmond from Sheridan's Raid. THE ALARM BELLS RUNG.

Every Available Person Hurried to the Defense. SIGNS OF THE ABANDONMENT OF THE CITY.

Baltimore, March 14, 1865.—A returned Union prisoner, who reached Annapolis to-day direct from Richmond, communicates some interesting intelligence in relation to the state of affairs at Richmond, and Sheridan's movements.

On Saturday night last Richmond was thrown into a state of excitement by the announcement that Sheridan was near to the city.

During Sunday afternoon, Pickett's division passed Castle Thunder on their way to meet Sheridan's army which was reported to be on the march.

At present there is a soldier at the Chestnut Hill Military Hospital, Philadelphia, who has not slept for a single moment for over fourteen years and six months.
