

Franklin Repository

Wednesday, August 30, 1865.

UNION STATE TICKET

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, GEN. JOHN F. HANCOCK, of Montgomery...

UNION COUNTY TICKET

FOR ASSEMBLY, COL. F. S. STURMBAUGH, Chambersburg...

UNION COUNTY COMMITTEE

A meeting of the Union County Committee of Franklin County was held at the office of the Clerk...

The following named gentlemen compose the Committee: T. JEFFERS, N. L. NIX, Chairman...

SEED WHEAT

We have received many letters promoting various inquiries as to the proper way to sow and where it can be obtained...

We have diligently endeavored to procure the Boughton wheat from the South-Maryland, Virginia or Kentucky...

All our efforts to procure the seed from Baltimore or the Eastern Maryland farmers have failed...

The wheat crop of Bedford county was very good this year, and some of our farmers are supplying themselves from that quarter...

We shall sow but sparingly this fall, and use the Lancaster variety entirely. We shall experiment a little in bone-dust, ashes, &c...

The nomination of Hon. Wm. B. Mann for the fourth term of the District Attorneyship of Philadelphia, is a compliment entirely without precedent...

DEMOCRATIC nominations, now-a-days, are laughable communications upon the party which, only a year ago, solemnly resolved in National Convention assembled, that "the war is a failure..."

As the fall elections will soon be coming on, it should be borne in mind that by virtue of the proclamation of the President, of March 10, issued in conformity to a law of Congress, dated March 3d, 1863...

We last week received the first number of the Upper Dauphin Register, published at Lykens, Pa., by S. R. Coles and G. Washington Penn. The Register supports the Administration and advocates the principles of the Union party...

We are glad to record the appointment of J. Barclay Harding, Esq., publisher of the Evening Telegraph, as Collector of the 1st district of Philadelphia, in place of the late Jasper Harding, Esq., dec'd. The Telegraph is a sound Union journal, and is conducted with great energy and ability.

The Philadelphia may. We found a good sample of Bouquet at the house of Paschal Morris, who is grown in Chesapeake Bay, and is also a very fine quality...

VANDAL M'CAUSLAND.

The grand jury of Franklin county return a true bill on the 16th inst., against J. A. M'Cauley—late a general in rebel army, and the officer in command when Chambersburg was sacked and burned for arson and high-way robbery...

HON. GEO. CONNELL has been unanimously nominated for the third Senatorial term in the 4th district of Philadelphia. He seems to suit his constituents exactly, as they go for him a little stronger each time...

Hon. Jacob E. Ridgeway is also re-nominated for Senator in the 3d district. As a nomination is considered an election, it is naturally warmly contested, and several delegates withdrew before the nomination was made...

We congratulate Judge Jere S. Black. He promises to survive the curse of the Buchanan administration in his party. Two years ago he was made a Congressional conferee, and this year he rose to the dignity of a delegate to the State Convention...

THE political campaign in New York State has opened, as usual, with a set-to between Weed and Greeley to the tune of half a score of newspaper columns. In this State Cameron and Kelly meloized the elements for the approaching conflict by an illustration of the respective qualities of the homme d'etat and the homme mediere, with a little tinge of the homo homini lupus!

HON. MORTON M'MICHAEL, chief editor of the North American, has been nominated as the Union candidate for Mayor of Philadelphia. He has been for many years one of the most brilliant and effective champions of the Whig and Union parties, and he will add the position of Chief Magistrate of the second city of the Nation.

HON. ELISHA W. DAVIS, formerly Representative from Venango county, and Speaker of the House in 1862, was unanimously nominated as the Union candidate for Assembly in the 10th district of Philadelphia last week. It is a rare compliment considering that he has not resided in the city over eighteen months.

THE Union State Central Committee will meet at 1105 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, on Saturday next. Every member should attend.

DEMOCRATIC nominations, now-a-days, are laughable communications upon the party which, only a year ago, solemnly resolved in National Convention assembled, that "the war is a failure..."

As the fall elections will soon be coming on, it should be borne in mind that by virtue of the proclamation of the President, of March 10, issued in conformity to a law of Congress, dated March 3d, 1863, all persons duly enrolled who departed from the jurisdiction of the districts in which they were enrolled, or went beyond the limits of the United States to avoid the draft, are prohibited from exercising the elective franchise...

We last week received the first number of the Upper Dauphin Register, published at Lykens, Pa., by S. R. Coles and G. Washington Penn. The Register supports the Administration and advocates the principles of the Union party...

We are glad to record the appointment of J. Barclay Harding, Esq., publisher of the Evening Telegraph, as Collector of the 1st district of Philadelphia, in place of the late Jasper Harding, Esq., dec'd. The Telegraph is a sound Union journal, and is conducted with great energy and ability.

accomplished in all the qualities which most adorn the finished advocate and profound jurist; generous to a fault in the display of the nobler qualities which appeal to the heart, and ever faithful to justice and to the cause of his country, it is proper that Philadelphia should delight to honor him, and prefer to entrust the administration of public justice in his hands. Of his triumphant election no doubt is entertained by any intelligent politician. We believe that Mr. I. Newton Brown has been nominated to figure as second best in the race.

PHILADELPHIA

The Nominating Conventions of the Union party for the City of Philadelphia, held on the 28th and 29th inst., were very successful. The Nominating Conventions of the Union party for the City of Philadelphia, held on the 28th and 29th inst., were very successful.

The City Convention nominated Morton M'Michael for Mayor, F. Carroll Brewster for City Solicitor, William B. Mann for District Attorney, Joseph R. Lyndall for City Controller, Henry Bunn for City Treasurer, Frederick Wolbert for Prothonotary of the Court of Common Pleas, and John Given for City Commissioner, all of whom, excepting Mr. M'Michael, are the present incumbents.

The white house is still besieged by the sons and daughters of the "Sunny South." Among them was ex-Governor Brown anxious for a pardon for past sins, and also Mrs. R. M. T. Hunter who requests that her husband be released with the privilege of leaving the country forever.

The trial of Werze the Andersonville feld was very lengthy and the details already brought to light are most sickening to think of. The trial yesterday was attended by what is called the "fair sex of Washington." The details narrated by one witness was of such a character as to be excluded from the papers—yet stranger to say, these Washington ladies sat and listened to the disgusting narratives as if they were enjoying a feast, and no doubt they were—but what a taste they have! The demoralization of the women of Washington will soon equal that of any city in the world, if they keep on.

THE Union Legislative nominations as far as made are as follows: District 1. George Geaghan. 2. Wm. H. Riddiman. 3. John McEwen. 4. Wm. W. Watt. 5. Jos. T. Thomas. 6. James Freeborn. 7. James Sullivan. 8. James R. Lewis. 9. Frederick Dittman. 10. Elisha W. Davis. 11. Franklin D. Stierner. 12. Alexander Adair. 13. Wm. Schellenberger. 14. Francis Hood. 15. Geo. DeHaven. 16. David A. Wallace. 17. Edward G. Lee. 18. No nomination yet.

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

that remarkable head of his excellency, the Mayor, and to serve their purpose resolved to "get up a motto" but by not leaving a school tax—then there would be no school fund—consequently none could be distributed to the colored schools and they must depend. To keep the white schools going they increased other taxes, and by some convivance manage out of it to provide funds for that purpose. The voters have been chucking over this "sharp trick," and his excellency, the Mayor, was equally well pleased at his "cuteness." Lately the thing has been ventilated, and the Mayor finds himself in hot water. He is trying to have the thing hushed up, but is only getting deeper into the mire by making a denial of it through his friends. There is now due the colored schools $20,000—their share of the amount required to run all the schools of the district.

When Congress meets this thing will be well ventilated, and justice will be done the colored people living in this city. There is no doubt that this act of the Mayor will be the means of Congress at once passing an act giving to the negro the right of suffrage in this district, and then we shall see a big Somerset made by the Mayor and other office-holders of this city of rebels, who instead of passing the negroes by in scorn as they now do, will be soliciting their votes, mingling with them, and no doubt addressing them as "My friends and fellow-citizens." This surely will be an approach of one step toward the millennium, when "the lion and the lamb shall lie down together."

The white house is still besieged by the sons and daughters of the "Sunny South." Among them was ex-Governor Brown anxious for a pardon for past sins, and also Mrs. R. M. T. Hunter who requests that her husband be released with the privilege of leaving the country forever. The revocation of a pardon, obtained by a claim agent for the fee of $500, has caused a great commotion among this class of scoundrels, of whom we write about in our last paper. If the claim agents could be banished from Washington for a year or so to come, hundreds of thousands of dollars would be saved the treasury, as a great force of clerks and secret agents in required under high salaries, to detect the frauds and swindles attempted on the government by rascally claim agents. We take the occasion to again warn the good honest meaning people of Pennsylvania who have claims against the government, against the practice of employing Washington agents, when they have plenty of good men at home whom they know that will and can attend to their claims just as well as if living here.

The trial of Werze the Andersonville feld was very lengthy and the details already brought to light are most sickening to think of. The trial yesterday was attended by what is called the "fair sex of Washington." The details narrated by one witness was of such a character as to be excluded from the papers—yet stranger to say, these Washington ladies sat and listened to the disgusting narratives as if they were enjoying a feast, and no doubt they were—but what a taste they have! The demoralization of the women of Washington will soon equal that of any city in the world, if they keep on.

THE Union Legislative nominations as far as made are as follows: District 1. George Geaghan. 2. Wm. H. Riddiman. 3. John McEwen. 4. Wm. W. Watt. 5. Jos. T. Thomas. 6. James Freeborn. 7. James Sullivan. 8. James R. Lewis. 9. Frederick Dittman. 10. Elisha W. Davis. 11. Franklin D. Stierner. 12. Alexander Adair. 13. Wm. Schellenberger. 14. Francis Hood. 15. Geo. DeHaven. 16. David A. Wallace. 17. Edward G. Lee. 18. No nomination yet.

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

that remarkable head of his excellency, the Mayor, and to serve their purpose resolved to "get up a motto" but by not leaving a school tax—then there would be no school fund—consequently none could be distributed to the colored schools and they must depend. To keep the white schools going they increased other taxes, and by some convivance manage out of it to provide funds for that purpose. The voters have been chucking over this "sharp trick," and his excellency, the Mayor, was equally well pleased at his "cuteness." Lately the thing has been ventilated, and the Mayor finds himself in hot water. He is trying to have the thing hushed up, but is only getting deeper into the mire by making a denial of it through his friends. There is now due the colored schools $20,000—their share of the amount required to run all the schools of the district.

When Congress meets this thing will be well ventilated, and justice will be done the colored people living in this city. There is no doubt that this act of the Mayor will be the means of Congress at once passing an act giving to the negro the right of suffrage in this district, and then we shall see a big Somerset made by the Mayor and other office-holders of this city of rebels, who instead of passing the negroes by in scorn as they now do, will be soliciting their votes, mingling with them, and no doubt addressing them as "My friends and fellow-citizens." This surely will be an approach of one step toward the millennium, when "the lion and the lamb shall lie down together."

The white house is still besieged by the sons and daughters of the "Sunny South." Among them was ex-Governor Brown anxious for a pardon for past sins, and also Mrs. R. M. T. Hunter who requests that her husband be released with the privilege of leaving the country forever. The revocation of a pardon, obtained by a claim agent for the fee of $500, has caused a great commotion among this class of scoundrels, of whom we write about in our last paper. If the claim agents could be banished from Washington for a year or so to come, hundreds of thousands of dollars would be saved the treasury, as a great force of clerks and secret agents in required under high salaries, to detect the frauds and swindles attempted on the government by rascally claim agents. We take the occasion to again warn the good honest meaning people of Pennsylvania who have claims against the government, against the practice of employing Washington agents, when they have plenty of good men at home whom they know that will and can attend to their claims just as well as if living here.

The trial of Werze the Andersonville feld was very lengthy and the details already brought to light are most sickening to think of. The trial yesterday was attended by what is called the "fair sex of Washington." The details narrated by one witness was of such a character as to be excluded from the papers—yet stranger to say, these Washington ladies sat and listened to the disgusting narratives as if they were enjoying a feast, and no doubt they were—but what a taste they have! The demoralization of the women of Washington will soon equal that of any city in the world, if they keep on.

THE Union Legislative nominations as far as made are as follows: District 1. George Geaghan. 2. Wm. H. Riddiman. 3. John McEwen. 4. Wm. W. Watt. 5. Jos. T. Thomas. 6. James Freeborn. 7. James Sullivan. 8. James R. Lewis. 9. Frederick Dittman. 10. Elisha W. Davis. 11. Franklin D. Stierner. 12. Alexander Adair. 13. Wm. Schellenberger. 14. Francis Hood. 15. Geo. DeHaven. 16. David A. Wallace. 17. Edward G. Lee. 18. No nomination yet.

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

Having been in the field, again in proving the war a failure, he will crown his failures by failing to capture the Governorship by 50,000 or thereabouts. Morgan evidently likes failures, and as A. Ward, Jr. would say, for persons who like such men, Morgan is just the man for them to like. Kissing and voting go pretty much by fancy, and Morgan has a constitutional right to be beaten for Governor, so his friends can go in freely. Vallandigham ratified the nomination, following Morgan in a speech before the Convention. Truly a pair of noble brothers!

—The Mississippi Convention has passed an amendment to the constitution abolishing slavery, and requiring the Legislature to provide for the protection and security of the personal property of the freedmen. An ordinance declaring null and void the act of secession was also passed. At an informal meeting of the delegates a memorial to President Johnson, for the pardon of Jeff. Davis and Gov. Claiborne, was signed.

—The result of the election in Kentucky for members of Congress, is officially announced as follows: 1st—L. S. Trimble, Democrat. 2d—B. C. Ritter, Democrat. 3d—Henry C. Glider, Democrat. 4th—Aaron Harding, Democrat. 5th—Loren H. Roseau, Administrationist. 6th—Green Clay Smith, Administrationist. 7th—George S. Shanklin, Democrat. 8th—Wm. H. Randall, Administrationist. 9th—Samuel McKee, Administrationist.

It is now regarded as certain that the Congressional elections in Tennessee on the 3d of August resulted as follows: 1st District—N. G. Taylor, Union. 2d District—Horace Maynard, Union. 3rd District—W. B. Stokes, Union. 4th District—Edmond Cooper, Union. 5th District—W. B. Campbell, Conservative. 6th District—D. B. Thomas, Conservative. 7th District—James R. Hawkins, Union. 8th District—Dr. Letfwick, Union.

It was thought, at one time, that Col. Stokes had been beaten by Mr. Asa Faulkner, but later returns make it quite certain that Stokes has been elected.

PERSONAL. Secretary Stanton is stopping at West Point for a few days, for the benefit of his health. Queen Vic. is stockholder in a London Company which has "struck it" in Pennsylvania. Maj. Gen. Crook was placed in the bonds of matrimony at Oakland, Va., on Tuesday week. George H. Yeaman, ex-Congressman from Kentucky, has been appointed Minister to Denmark.

Robert Ould, late rebel commissioner of Exchange of Prisoners, has resumed the practice of law in Richmond. The President has pardoned Benjamin Fitzpatrick, formerly United States Senator from Alabama, it is said through the influence of Mrs. S. A. Douglas. Gov. Oglesby of Illinois is unable to attend to his official duties at present—the rebel bullet which he received at the battle of Shiloh still remaining in his body. Gov. Andrew, it is said, has accepted an invitation to fill the office of President of Antioch College, Ohio, after the expiration of his present term of office in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Maria Thornton, who has just died in Washington at the advanced age of 100 years, was the widow of Dr. Thornton, the original architect of the Capitol, and the first Commissioner of Patents. Morris Ketchum, son of the senior member of the firm of Ketchum & Son, heavy brokers in New York, has forged gold certificates to the amount of some three millions and absconded, leaving his father to settle the accounts. The sympathy of the Washington Secessionists for Mrs. Jeff Davis is decidedly substantial in its character. The amount subscribed in her behalf totals up to the handsome sum of $6,510. The lowest contribution to the fund was $10, and the highest $300.

The body of Col. Ulrich Dahlgren, which was so mysteriously buried near Richmond at the time of Kilpatrick's famous raid on that city, has been recovered, identified, sent north and re-interred in Washington. Col. Dahlgren's watch, stolen at the time, was also recovered. Mrs. Senator Kate Chase Sprague's following the example of more common people. She has a baby—a boy about five weeks old. Mrs. Sprague's mother-in-law presented her with $200,000 for having a boy, and settled $100,000 on the