

Wednesday, November 8, 1865.

PROMPT SETTLEMENTS. The publication of the REPOSITORY costs more than double what it did before the war, and we are compelled to enforce prompt settlements.

AN HOUR WITH ANDREW JOHNSON. Editorial Correspondence of the Franklin Repository. WASHINGTON, October 31, 1865.

I was of those in an humble way, who fashioned Andrew Johnson into a Vice President at Baltimore—having publicly supported his nomination before that meeting of the Convention and voted for him in that body.

I found myself here on Friday for the first time since February last, and during the afternoon of the same day, called at the White House to see President Johnson.

There are few men who could make a more favorable impression upon a stranger on first acquaintance, than the President. He differs from Mr. Lincoln in most external characteristics, and in many contrasts favorably.

I believe that the President will wield all his power to effect the admission of the representatives of the rebellious States into Congress during the next session.

On the future of the freedmen the President talks well. He displays more sense than sentiment on the question, and means to solve the problem fairly as demanded by civilization and humanity.

It would be foolish to disguise the fact that the President, both by word and deed, disclaims the position of a partisan Executive, and that he is not insensible to the flattering approval of his administration by the Democratic party.

Not—I leave the future to tell the story. Where in all this record soon to be made up the Nation shall see that "reason is the greatest of crimes and must be punished," is not to my mind apparent.

of us, and "it must come," he added, "with all its manhood—I don't want it to come emancipated of its manhood!"

THE full returns of the vote as received up to the time fixed by law for putting the army vote into this Senatorial district, give Mr. Duncan a majority of 25 over Mr. McConanghy, and the certificate of election was properly awarded to him.

Our advice from the 77th regiment leave no room for doubt that most of its members voted, and we look for a return in a very few days that will reverse Mr. Duncan's majority and fairly elect Mr. McConanghy.

If our information on this point is correct as to the vote cast—and we can see no reason to doubt it—Mr. McConanghy is fairly elected as the full return will demonstrate, and on a contest he will be promptly given Mr. Duncan's place.

Looking over the whole case as it now presents itself, we feel safe in saying that Mr. McConanghy will be our next Senator.

We give on the first page of to-day's paper a correct portrait of Henry Werze, the Andersonville jailer who has recently been tried by a court martial in Washington for brutality to Union prisoners.

How do you like President Johnson's exercise of the pardoning power? The question is for you, Mr. McClure, and you, Mr. Cassa? Where is your 'McClure' and your 'Cassa'?

WE invite attention to the advertisement of a valuable Union newspaper for sale in to-day's paper. It is a rare chance for an enterprising publisher.

DEMOCRATIC GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATION. The prominent candidates are Hon. Hester Clayton, Gen. Geo. W. Allen, and Judge Maynard. Judge Maynard is the favorite of the people.

THE candidates for the Democratic nomination are fewer in number and they will maintain their ground and fight it to the bitter end. One year ago Hon. Hester Clayton would have been nominated without serious difficulty; but he has confessedly lost in the race recently.

Gen. Geo. W. Allen, of Allegheny, will be the second strongest man, as things now look, on first ballot for the Democratic nomination. He is a nephew of Gen. Lewis Cass, once the Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

THE REPOSITORY endorsed the President's pardon of one of the Gazette's rebel leaders, and after that we feel able to swallow almost anything in that line that may come along.

LETTER FROM GEN. SHERMAN. At a Union meeting in New Jersey on Friday last, Gen. Kitchener read the following characteristic letter from Gen. Sherman. It will be seen that he has no affinity with the Democracy.

THE cholera has reached this country at last. The steamer Atalanta, which left Liverpool for New York, was not allowed to enter the port of the latter place on Friday last.

THERE have been organized up to the present time, under the national banking law, sixteen hundred and five banks, of which number only one has failed and three have been voluntarily withdrawn.

WASHINGTON. The Southern Members of Congress—The Veterans Reserve Corps—The Organized Property Stopped—Visit of Distinguished Pennsylvanians—Crime.

A great deal of gossip, argument and speculation is just now going on, not only here but all over the country, in regard to whether Mr. McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives, and whose duty it is to organize the new House, will put upon the roll of the House the names of the members who will claim seats from the late rebel States.

The ninth Regiment Veteran Reserve Corps was paraded on Friday—according to the order of the War Department to ascertain who of the non-commissioned officers and men desired to remain in the service.

There will be no difficulty and no delay in the organization of the next House of Representatives. Mr. Colfax will be elected speaker and Mr. McPherson Clerk.

The government has stopped the sale of Wagons, Ambulances, Harness, boots and every thing pertaining to transportation either by land or water.

THE remains of Colonel Ulrich Dahlgren were finally interred at Laurel Hill, Philadelphia, on Wednesday last.

THE usual amount of homicides, since the shooting, stabbing, and smothering of women and strangling of infants took place the past week. That business is now a sort of pastime here.

PERSONAL. Chief Justice Chase will soon marry Miss Wiggin, of Cincinnati.

John Mitchell has gone to Richmond to organize the Fenians there.

EX-Gen. Jos. E. Johnston has been elected President of the National Express Co. at Richmond.

A status of Major General G. H. Berry has been erected at Rockland, Me., by the Masonic fraternity.

THE remains of Colonel Ulrich Dahlgren were finally interred at Laurel Hill, Philadelphia, on Wednesday last.

THE ex-Rebel General Hood is said to be in a destitute condition. The citizens of San Antonio, Texas, are taking up subscription to purchase a home for him in that State.

HON. FREDERICK W. SEWARD, Assistant Secretary of State, is now performing his official duties in the Department, and has almost entirely recovered from the effects of the assassin's attack.

PENNSYLVANIA OFFICIAL. HARRISBURG, November 7, 1865. EDITOR FRANKLIN REPOSITORY: Dear Sir—I give you a complete list of the officials named at the late election in Pennsylvania for Auditor General received by the Secretary of the Commonwealth and the United States Central Committee.

Table with columns: COUNTY, Aud. Gen. '62, Aud. Gen. '63, Sheriff, and other officials. Lists names and counts for various counties like Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, Berks, Bedford, Berks, Blair, Bradford, Bucks, Cambria, Carbon, Chester, Clearfield, Clinton, Columbia, Crawford, Cumberland, Dauphin, Delaware, Erie, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Greene, Huntingdon, Indiana, Jefferson, Juniata, Lancaster, Lawrence, Lebanon, Lehigh, Luzerne, Lycoming, McKean, Mercer, Mifflin, Monroe, Montgomery, Northampton, Northumberland, Perry, Philadelphia, Pike, Potter, Schuylkill, Somerset, Snyder, Susquehanna, Tioga, Union, Venango, Warren, Washington, Wayne, Westmoreland, Wyoming, York.

THE REBEL STATE DEBT.—The following highly important despatch from the President was received by Gov. Johnson, of Georgia:

THE LATE MURDER AT PITTSBURGH.—The following particulars of the late murder at Pittsburgh are furnished by the special correspondent of the Meadville Daily Republican, under date of the 24th:

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT MEADVILLE.—Loss from $75,000 to $100,000.—A destructive fire occurred at Meadville on Thursday night, resulting in the destruction of property to the amount of between $75,000 and $100,000.

THE CHOLERA.—The State Department is in receipt of important advices from the United States Consul at Manchester, England, in reference to the cholera epidemic prevalent there.

DR. JORDAN, editor of the Indianapolis Gazette, who was one of the most successful physicians in Cincinnati, in 1849, in the treatment of cholera, speaks as follows, in his journal, in reference to that terrible plague:

General John A. Logan and Judson Kilpatrick are doing a great work in New Jersey, and it is now believed that Mr. Ward will be elected Governor over the spurious ex-Brigadier General of Millin—Remyon.

Bartholomew O'Connor has been nominated as an independent candidate for Judge of the Marine Court of New York city. Mr. O'Connor is a Union man, and a ripe lawyer. He is a brother of Charles O'Connor, the distinguished barrister of New York city.

THE CHOLERA.—The State Department is in receipt of important advices from the United States Consul at Manchester, England, in reference to the cholera epidemic prevalent there.

DR. JORDAN, editor of the Indianapolis Gazette, who was one of the most successful physicians in Cincinnati, in 1849, in the treatment of cholera, speaks as follows, in his journal, in reference to that terrible plague:

THE CHOLERA.—The State Department is in receipt of important advices from the United States Consul at Manchester, England, in reference to the cholera epidemic prevalent there.

DR. JORDAN, editor of the Indianapolis Gazette, who was one of the most successful physicians in Cincinnati, in 1849, in the treatment of cholera, speaks as follows, in his journal, in reference to that terrible plague:

THE CHOLERA.—The State Department is in receipt of important advices from the United States Consul at Manchester, England, in reference to the cholera epidemic prevalent there.

DR. JORDAN, editor of the Indianapolis Gazette, who was one of the most successful physicians in Cincinnati, in 1849, in the treatment of cholera, speaks as follows, in his journal, in reference to that terrible plague: