THE REPOSITORY ASSOCIATION is now engaged in erecting a large building, which is rendered necessary for its large business operations and which will be creditable alike to the Association and to Chambersburg.

Bills have been rendered to all in arrears—many of them small it is true; but however unimportant the amounts may seem to each individual, in the aggregate they swell up to thousands of dollars.

Our expenditures are more than doubled in every department, and in some they are trebled since the war, and protracted credits cannot be allowed.

cast against him; but a brief contest will eject him and give the Union men the Senator they have clearly chosen.

The following is the official vote of the district, including the official vote for Senator:
