CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 5th. In Senate Mr. Clay is in the minority ; Rives, Archer, Preston and Choate have come out against his bill, and all but Archer in favor of the Fiscal Agent recommended by the Secretary of the Tressury. The Democrats will go against both, and thus defeat the whole banking scheme of speculators, stock-jobbers and political gamblers. By the way, Thaddeus Stevens is here, and is going on Monday next, to address the Sabbath Schools,-Surely who may not preach when Thaddeus holds forth. Clay, Rives and Archer had some warm words, and Mr. Choate and the great Dictator had a little pantomine together. Clay endeavored by all the means in his power to browbeat Choate, but 'he did not do it, and was called to order by his own friend Mr. Preston.

The Senate is in a heap. There seems to be three, if not four distinct parties forming there, viz: Tyler's party, Clay's party, Webster's party, and the Democratic party. Mr. Woodbury, as I wrote before, has shown up Ewing's errors. Mr. Evans of Maine, a most voracious Whig, who'd swallow the Devil, horns and all, if it were necessary to save his party, denied that Mr. Woodbury was correct, but since then Mr. Ewing has himself sent in a report acknowledging that he made an error of $600,000, having charged the expenditures of $600,000, but neglected to credit the Treasury with that sum ; which makes a difference of $1,200,-000, in the statement. I believe the Clay party are disheartened and defeated, and the Extra Session will leave no stone to tell how mighty they once were .- Keystone.

The Political Judge.

The Harrisburg Telegraph is trying to answer the question-"why don't Judge Banks resign ?" He copies an article from the Easton Whig, in which the following occurs:

"It is the wish of the greater part of the in habitants of the district over which the Judge presides, that he should retain his office. That they desire no change-and would rather have justice meted out with an impartial hand, than have a violent, ranting politician to preside over their tribunals, which would most likely be the case were the appointment placed at the disposal of the Executive." Now compare this with Judge Banks' notorious Fourth of July letter, in which he denominates the Democrats, among other hard names, as "Forgers and Tories"-terms that are never used, without caution, even by "a violent, ranting politician !"

After the Election !

The Philadelphia North American, a leading federal paper, thus frankly kicks out that miserable humbug, Jno. W. Baer.

- " Baer, the Buck-Eye Blacksmith,' has been removed from the Indian Agency to which he was recently appointed. He was found unfit for the station, and very properly was displaced by the Government, 'Buck-Eye' is rather a fierce fellow, and the Louisville Journal thinks depriving him of his food will make him growl. No animal is more testy than a 'Baer with a sore head.' "

This is after the election. Before the election, when Baer was at least as bad a fellow as he is now, SwIFT, the Mayor of Philadelphia, and other big whigs, drove him in an elegant carriage, and dined and supped him at expensive entertainments. Then Baer stopped at the best Hotel in Philadelphia, and

THE CAUSE OF DISEASE.

Nearly all classes of disease, are caused by some obstruction in the system, which prevent the regular and wholesome operation of the animal functions. This state of the system, is disease, which is manifested in a variety of forms, more or less malignant in their character. To restore the system to a state of health, then, it is only necessary to remove the cause of disease, and the end is accomplished. The cause is obstruction somewhere. This can be removed by purgation, which is the only means that should be resorted to, because, suggested by reason, and by nature. Dr. Harlich's Strengthening and German Aperient Pills, are allowed by the office of County Treasurer. Should he be ethe thousands who have used them, to be the best lected, he promises faithfully to discharge the duties purgative medicine in existence. Because, they not only remove all obstructions, and purge the system of its impurities, but, because, and which is extremely important, strengthen and give proper tone to the stomach, and produce a healthy action of all the parts. Besides, they are so mild and gentle in their operation, as to render them at all times a perfectly safe and desirable remedy. The afflicted would do well, then, to purchase a box or two of this invaluable medicine, and give it a fair trial, instead of destroying their systems with oft-repeated doses of calomel, and other drugs, so injurious to human life and happiness The above medecine for sale at the Drug store of HENRY YOXTHEIMER.

IMPORTANT

TO THE Undersigned take pleasure in submitting to the public the following Recommendations of Pratt's Cast Iron Smut Mill and Grain Huller to all dealers in Grain and manufactors of Flour, believing it to be superior to any thing of the kind ever offered to the public. All orders addressed to Col. J. M'Fadden, Lewisburg, Union county Penn-sylvania. EBENEEZER SQUIRE,

CERTIFICATES:

JACKSON M.FADDIN.

Montz's Mill, Centre Co., March 30, 1841. J. M'FADRIN-SIR: I cheerfully testify to the roodness and darability of Pratt's Cast Iron Smut Mill and Grain Huller, as being a far superior article for the cleaning of smut and all other impurities that I have ever seen, and I have been engaged in the manufacture of Flour for a great many years, and have always tried to have the best apparatus for manufacturing that could be got, and do say that the above machine is the best apparatus I believe now in use. JOHN MOATZ.

Bloomsburg, Dec. 26, 1840. Cor. J. M.FADDIN-SIR: In reply to your favor, received a few days since, I have only to say, that the fact of my having introduced into each of the four mills that I am concerned in, one of Prait's Cast

Iron Smut Mills, is the best evidence I can give you of their utility, Yours truly, WM. M'KELVY. Milton, March 17, 1841. J. M'FADDIN-SIR: I do hereby certify without any hesitation, that Pratt's Smut Mill and Grain of smut and all other imperfections, that I have ever seen, and I believe I have seen all the kinds that are now used in Pennsylvania, and I must say that there is nothing of the kind ever been invented that will come in competition with it. GEO, ECKERT.

Cor. J. M'FADDIN-Sin: During the past 24 years I have been constantly engaged in manufacturing flour, and during the last 12 years have been the owner of a grist and flouring mill, and among all the contrivances to remove impurities from grain I am decidedly of the opinion that Pratt's iron machine is superior to any with which I am acquainted, having used one in my mill about eighteen FREDERICK HAAS. months, Yorkshire Mille, Dec., 1840. I want in my flouring mill as good an apparatus to prepare grain for flouring, as the best, and I want no better than Pratt's Cast Iron Smut Mill. It will remove smut entirely-no mistake. M. CLEASON.

Sunbury, December 22, 1840. Cor. J. M.FADDIN-SIR: I have in my mill one of Pratt's cast and wrought iron spiral Smut Mills and Grain Huller, and am confident that in regard to simplicity of construction, and durability of material, it is superior to any 1 am acquainted with. HENRY MASSER.

" The unkindest cut of all."

When Mr. Adams was opposing the reconsideration of the vote, that excluded the 21st rule from the house, he attempted to give Mr. Wise a thrashing for his opposition to abolitionism : comparing him to the tri-colered flag-black, red and white, which represented, Slavery, Duelling, and Nullification; Wise winced under the castigation, and said his feelings were friendly to Mr. Adams-"Yes," said the old man "The same feelings you entertained for Cilley !" This must have been a hard cut for Wise and recalled to his recollection his instruction to Graves, "Graves aim lower or you will not hit him." Obedient to the instruction. Graves aimed lower and poor Cilley fell.
