

our most hearty approval, and that we regard such an immense moral power as anti-republican, and hostile to our institutions.

Resolved, That we are perfectly satisfied with the ticket formed by the late county convention; that we have entire confidence in the ability, integrity, and democratic principles of David B. Montgomery, and the candidates nominated by the convention, and that we will give them our undivided support.

Resolved, That the delegates acted fairly and honorably in the formation of the ticket, and that the attempt to divide the Democratic party of this county, during the present important gubernatorial contest, deserves the severest reprehension. That the only object of such an attempt will be to elect a whig, and an opponent of Gov. Porter; and whether prompted by private animosity, individual disappointment, or a real desire by these means to elect Gen. Frick, the whig candidate, such conduct is equally treacherous to the Democratic party, and hostile to its future ascendancy in the county.

Resolved, That we highly approve of the course pursued by the Hon. John Snyder, during the last session of Congress.

Resolved, That the following named persons be a Committee of Vigilance for Augusta township, to promote the election of David R. Porter, and to secure the success of the Democratic party, viz:

Peter Malich, Gideon Leisenring, John Yordy, Esq., Dr. John Raker, George Savidge, John Zimmerman, Samuel Lantz, Gustavus Ross, Samuel Dewart, Abraham M. Shipman, John Morgan, John Haugawout, Peter Yocum, John Elbright, Samuel Reitz, John D. Conrad, Ephraim Lytle, Charles Eckman, Samuel Reeser, John Wynn, Jr., John Woolverton, Samuel Reiland, Matthias Dreher, Thomas Snyder and Dennis Woolverton.

Democratic Meeting.

At a large and respectable meeting of the Democratic citizens of Chilisquaque township, according to public notice, convened at the house of William Shannon, on Saturday the 11th inst., on motion WM. SHANNON was called to the chair, JACOB RUODAS and LUDWIG PLEGER, Vice Presidents, John B. Heller and Frederick Fox Secretaries.

The meeting being organized and the object being stated by the chair, on motion of John B. Heller, a committee was appointed, consisting of twelve persons, to prepare a preamble and resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

J. B. Heller, Job Kramer, E. Bury, John Pfleger, J. Kline, Tunis Gearhart, Reuben Mabeo, Wm. Kramer, John Snyder, Charles Fox, John Kramer, and John Pfleger, jr. were appointed that committee, who retired for a short time, and returned with the following preamble and resolutions, which were reported and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democrats of Chilisquaque township deem it expedient to meet in public meeting, on the 9th of August, according to a call of the Standing Committee; though many of us being farmers, do regret being called from home at this time to attend to the duties of the Democratic party, but seeing the course pursued by the Milton Ledger, aided by a few canal officers and their satellites, in trying to distract the Democratic party, we feel it our duty to inform those officers that they are the servants of the public instead of being the masters and directors of the people. And therefore we

Resolved, That the editor of the Milton Ledger, or few canal officers and disappointed applicants for office in the forks, should be permitted to foot the path hereafter, that they are taking so much aim to prepare for others.

Resolved, That we recognize no other head to our democratic ticket, save that which is headed with two Davids, the choice of the people.

Resolved, That we will use all honorable and fair means to secure the re-election of D. R. Porter, for whom we believe the Democracy has a Jeffersonian loyalty.

Resolved, That we will support D. B. Montgomery, and we will elect him, if honorable means will effect it, and that we will not resort to the low, mean, contemptible trick of procuring letters from secure persons, who are little known in the county, for the purpose of injuring their volunteer candidate, as they have done to injure the regularly nominated candidate, and afterwards claim to be members of the old and well tried party.

Resolved, That we feel ourselves more animated the cause of Democracy at this time, in consequence of the efforts made by some pretended democrats, to secure the election of their don't care who.

Resolved, That we approve of the course pursued by our worthy representative in Congress, Capt. John Snyder. His unceasing opposition to the ink Bill, and squandering of the people's money the extravagant administration of the all principal party, has met our entire approbation.

Resolved, That we hail President Tyler's second to us as being another evidence of his intention to serve the constitution.

Resolved, That the proceedings be signed by the officers, and published in all the democratic papers this county, and in the Danville Intelligencer.

Anthracite Iron.

The Harrisburg Intelligencer publishes a letter in Messrs. Moore and Stuart, iron workers of uville, in which they state that they have used Anthracite Iron exclusively for months together and have found it equal to any charcoal iron they used, and decidedly better for some purposes.

"As regards the Anthracite Iron for Forge purposes, we have called on Messrs. J. P. & J. Groves, proprietors of the Columbia Furnace at Danville, who inform us that they sent some of their pig metal to Messrs. Orrick, Grubbs & Parker, Philadelphia, and that firm informed them that it was liked for puddling purposes.

The success of the Anthracite Iron business is fully established beyond all doubt, and the superiority of its quality is no longer to be tested—it is fully proven."

Twenty-Seventh Congress.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9, 1841.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The amendment of the Senate to strike out the appropriation for the Charge Affairs at Naples was still under consideration. The amendment was very briefly debated by several members, when the business in the Committee was interrupted by a personal rencontre between Mr. WISE and Mr. STANLEY.

BREACH OF PRIVILEGE.

Whilst Mr. FILLMORE was in the midst of a sentence, the Reporter (who had noticed Mr. Wise cross over to the seat of Mr. Stanley, and had observed those two gentlemen in conversation apparently of a very excited character) saw Mr. Wise raise his hand violently and aim a blow at the face of Mr. Stanley, who as instantaneously met or returned it. A violent fight followed, and, in less time than it can be described in this report, a scene, mingled uproar and fight, such as the Reporter in many years experience has never witnessed on the floor of the House, ensued. Messrs. Wise and Stanley were lost to the sight of the Reporter in the general rush, whilst Mr. Arnold, of Tennessee, and Mr. Butler, of Kentucky, were noticed in a violent personal struggle, striking at and grappling with each other. Mr. Dixon H. Lewis and Mr. Gilmer, and others, were seen in the midst, endeavoring to quell the disturbance, which had now reached a point at which it seemed impossible to arrest its progress. The members had rushed from all parts of the Hall, some rushing over and others standing upon the tables, literally piling themselves one on the other, and several canes were seen by the Reporter raised up as if in the act of striking. The Speaker during this time had resumed the Chair in form, but no one paid the least regard to his voice, and he called in vain on the officers, none of whom were observed by the Reporter, with the exception of the door keeper, who was endeavoring to close the doors and windows against the crowd from without, who attempted to rush within the hall.

The general melee (of which the Reporter was taking notes) continued two and a half to three minutes. It then subsided, as it appeared, though by what direct process the Reporter could not understand; but he heard the voice of Mr. WISE, who had returned to his seat, addressing the Chair.

[The Reporter thinks it proper to remark, that the entire statement under the head of "Breach of privilege," is given by himself, according to his own notes and that no part of it has been submitted to revision.]

Something like order having restored—Mr. WISE, said he had risen for the purpose of apologizing to the House in the most humble manner, and of asking its pardon, as he most sincerely did. He had in its presence, under the excitement of the moment, violated its order—an excitement which he could not repress. The House had witnessed what had passed between the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. Stanley) and himself, in the course of the debate, and had heard the language used by the gentleman towards him. He (Mr. W.) had passed to that gentleman's seat in order to remonstrate with him in a friendly and private way. The gentleman from North Carolina was excited, and he (Mr. W.) becoming so, they were soon engaged in very hot words. Our friendly relations, continued Mr. W., were interrupted. I will not state to the House circumstantially all that took place; but he repeated to me what he had said, and I gave him warning that he had not met me in the spirit in which I—

Mr. W. at the close of the sentence which was thus lost to the Reporter, was interrupted by Mr. ANDREWS, of Kentucky, who said that he objected to the gentleman going into the facts, which he hoped would be ascertained by a committee of persons wholly uninterested.

Mr. WISE, I have but a few words to say. [Cries of "go on go on."] In the warmth of my excitement I used harsh language, and the gentleman returned to me a word which I could not brook, either here or elsewhere. Never, whatever may be the consequences, will I brook that word. I struck him. I have offended against the House; I humbly ask its pardon, and I submit myself to any penalty which it may please to impose.

Mr. STANLEY then took the floor, and said he had not risen to ask pardon of the House. If he had offended against it—if he had been guilty of any violation of its rules, he would submit to any penalty the House might impose—even to be expelled, or to be forced to resign. But, (continued Mr. S.)—I believe I have done what any other man on this floor would have done under similar circumstances.

The honorable gentleman from Virginia, (Mr. WISE,) whose insolence I will not say is notorious, came round to my seat, not, as he says, to remonstrate—no, not to remonstrate—but to scold, to lecture, to browbeat me, as he does every body who presumes to differ with such a high-born Virginian as he is, I could not tolerate it. I told him what I understood him to have said, and what I had said in reply. He then said, "I want to warn you." To which I replied, "No, I will not take your warning." He then said, "Come out of the Hall with me." And started towards the door, I replied "No sir; you have heard what I said; you can take your own course; I have nothing more to say." He then said, "You deserve my contempt;" and I said, "Sir, you are a liar."

Mr. WISE. That is not the fact. Mr. STANLEY. That is the state of facts, I assert it before my constituents, before this House, and before the world.

The gentleman then raised his hand and struck me; and if the members of the House had not interfered, I would have given him the severe punishment which he deserves for his insolence.

Mr. INGERSOLL rose and offered the following resolution:—

Resolved, That a special committee be appointed to inquire into the circumstances of the rencontre on the floor of this House between Mr. Wise and Mr. Stanley, members of this House, and to report thereon to the House.

Mr. ANDREWS, of Kentucky, said that at the last Congress a committee had been appointed on a similar subject when a similar occurrence had taken place. How that investigation ended every body knew. He was opposed to the appointment of a committee. He considered the former occurrence disgraceful to the House, as he considered this. He thought that the two members engaged deserved to be expelled, and he believed they should be expelled now, upon the spot, and without further delay.

[Cries in many parts of the House, "Agreed—agreed."]

There was no other way in which the House could vindicate its character and its dignity. The committee appointed in a similar case at the last Congress had done nothing—had recommended nothing—and the dignity which it offered was unrebuked. He was for no committee—it would be a mere white-washing affair—a mere humbug, such as we heretofore had.

Mr. HOPKINS (after a remark which the Reporter could not hear;) moved the previous question.

Mr. ANDREWS moved to lay the resolution of Mr. Ingersoll on the table, with a view, he said, if that motion prevailed, to offer the following resolution:—

Resolved, That the Hon. Henry A. Wise, a member of this House, having this day, by his own confessions on the floor of the House, while in session in Committee of the whole on the state of the Union, committed an assault on the Hon. Edward Stanley, be therefore expelled the House.

Mr. ANDREWS moved to lay the resolution on the table, for the reasons above stated by him.

Which motion was rejected.

The question then recurred on the motion of Mr. Hopkins for the previous question.

And there was no second.

And the main question (being on the resolution) was ordered, and being taken.

The resolution, by yeas 124, nays not counted, was adopted.

And the committee was ordered to consist of seven members.

Mr. LEWIS WILLIAMS said, if there was no other motion, he would move that the House adjourn, but he withdrew the motion.

MORE POSITIVE PROOF

Of the efficacy of Dr. Harlick's Compound Strengthening and German Aperient Pills.

ALLEGHENY, Jan. 8, 1840.

To Dr. Harlick's Agent—Sir: I wish to state for the benefit of those who may be afflicted, that Dr. HARLICK'S PILLS have entirely cured me of Dyspepsia, of which I have been afflicted for many years. I used both kinds of the Aperient and Strengthening, and I am constrained to say, that they are a valuable discovery, and act upon the system mildly, but very effectually. I found the Tonic pills to quicken the circulation and cause a determination to the surface, and to strengthen the weak stomach and increase its powers. The Aperient pills are the best cathartic I ever used. I am confident all Dyspepsia would do well to make immediate trial and be relieved. Any one can call at my house and be satisfied of the above at pleasure.

PROSPECTUS

For publishing a weekly paper in the town of Lewisburg, Union County, Pa. entitled the "LEWISBURG INDEPENDENT PRESS."

BEING convinced that a paper published in this place, suited to the exigencies, and adapted to the interests of the community; embracing the various topics that generally elicit public regard, would meet their approbation and support; it is therefore proposed, (confiding in their liberality as intelligent citizens,) to publish a periodical in the Borough of Lewisburg, Union Co., Pennsylvania.

It will be the object, as well as design of the publishers, to make the "Press" not only the vehicle for the dissemination of useful knowledge, but also the instrument to protect and defend the rights of all classes from the grasp of the usurper.

The Iron and Coal regions of which Pennsylvania can so freely boast, and on which her future prosperity primarily depends, shall receive strict attention.

The earliest Foreign and Domestic News, Agricultural information, &c. &c., with all other matter that shall be deemed of importance to its readers, shall be inserted.

In politics, we shall be the unflinching advocates and supporters of Democratic Whig Principles.

Having procured the aid of several talented Gentlemen, we feel assured that the "Press" will commend itself to the notice and patronage of the public.

TERMS.—The "LEWISBURG INDEPENDENT PRESS" will be issued every Thursday morning, on an imperial sheet, new type, &c., at $2 per annum, payable half yearly in advance.
