HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, February 17, 1842.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT.

Mr. BOONE offered the following: Resolved, That the committee of Ways and Means bring in a bill to authorize the granting of marriage licenses, for which a certain sum shall be paid for the use of the Commonwealth; and that the price of the license be varied according to the profession and standing of the person applying for the same.

Mr. BONSALE said he was surprised to see a gentleman from the city, who was a single man, introducing a bill of this kind, as he would certainly bring down the ire of all single ladies in the Commonwealth.

Mr. BOONE was prepared to hear opposition from the bachelors of the House, but did not anticipate any from those who were placed in such a situation as to be beyond the operation of the law. Mr. B. said he had offered the resolution in all good faith, with a view to furnish revenue to the Commonwealth. He believed that enough would be realized from these licenses to pay the expenses of the Legislature; and in proof of this he referred to the success attending the measure in the late state of Delaware, where about $10,000 were annually realized, which would be much greater, but for the shipping across to the Pennsylvania side at New Castle and other places, to evade the law.

Mr. BARRETT moved to amend, by striking out the original resolution, and inserting a substitute providing that the Committee of Ways and Means be instructed to inquire into the expediency of laying a tax of $5 per head on all bachelors within the Commonwealth, over 30 years of age.

Mr. CRABB thought the amendment was preferable to the original motion, for he thought it more in accordance with political economy, to encourage than to prohibit matrimony. In his opinion it would be just as consistent to tax married folks in proportion to the number of their children.

Mr. BOONE: If it would interfere with the arrangements of the gentleman from the city, I will withdraw the resolution.

Mr. STEVENS was in favor of the amendment, because he thought it was perfectly right to tax luxuries; but it seemed to him to be in bad taste to tax the necessities of life. It would be better to lay a tax on the divorces granted. And if you tax those who are about entering into the matrimonial state, you should make it retrospective, so as to include all married men. But Mr. S. said he was puzzled to see how the gentleman from the city intended to graduate the price of his license. The "circumstances" of the person applying for it, he supposed might be got at by the Assessors; but what did the gentlemen mean by the "standing" of the person applying for the same? He could not understand how that was to be got at. He wanted some explanation.

After some further discussion of a mock serious character by Messrs. Leet, Deford, Kame and Griffiths, the amendment offered by Mr. BARRETT was disagreed to, yeas 36, nays 59.

The resolution was then negatived. Yeas 17, nays 67.

FACTS FOR THE CURIOS.

NOTES FROM MR. TALLEMADE'S ADDRESS.—The revenue derived in Europe, on American Tobacco, is upwards of $30,000,000—the cost of which here, is $7,000,000. England alone charges upwards of $17,000,000, on 18,000 hogheads of our Tobacco.

The duty on Rice is 15c sterling, being more than one hundred per cent, on the cost.

Flour is, in ordinary times, subjected to a prohibitory duty.

Salted Pork pays a duty of $6 per hhd, about its present price in this country.

Lumber is subjected to a prohibitory duty.

Every article of American manufacture is met by prohibitory duties.

Coal also is prohibited, the duty being upwards of $7 per ton.

Even cotton pays 2c 11d per cwt, and as soon as she has succeeded in getting her India plantation to produce the requisite supply, American cotton will be met with a prohibitory duty. Five years, it is confidently predicted will bring about this (to them) desirable end. India will drive the Cotton and Rice planter from the English market, as she did the producer of Indigo.

The cost of production in India is nothing, as compared with even that of slave labor. Manila Sugar is now selling in Boston, after paying duty, at 51 cents per pound.

The Exchequer of the United States. The chief officers to be the Secretary of the Treasury and the Treasurer of the United States, for the time being, and one Commissioner, to be appointed by the President of the United States, with the consent of the Senate.

The Commissioner is to be allowed a salary of $3000 per annum. The Secretary of the Treasury is placed over the whole. The officers are not to be removed, save for incompetency, physical inability, or violation of their duties. There is also to be a Clerk, Register, and Superintendent, appointed in the same way, with salaries. Principal agencies are to be established at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Charleston, and New Orleans, and other boards where the same may be deemed expedient.

All public moneys are to be paid into this Exchequer.

It is to attend to the business of paying pensions. Private deposits, in gold and silver, to the amount of $50,000,000, may be made, for which certificates will be issued.

The mint and its branches are authorized to give certificates for bullion.

Foreign and domestic bills of exchange may be bought for the use of the Government, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury.

The Exchequer is, in substance, a $20,000,000 institution; and not much different from the plan recommended by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The report of the minority committee was then read for the information of the House by the Clerk of the House. It was prepared by Mr. Davis, of Ky, and advocated a National Bank, after presenting in detail objections to the proposed Board of Exchequer.

The following copy of a new petition to the legislature, was handed us this morning. It is couched in delicate but sincere language and is not mere badinage. Men are sincere in this matter, and the deep indignation tone which pervades it will not make itself heard as well as felt at Harrisburgh. We understand that a copy of this petition is suspended in Hutchinson's Hotel in Chestnut street. It is nine feet long and already contains eleven thousand signatures.—Philad. Gazette.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Pennsylvania.

The undersigned citizens, voters and tax payers in the State of Pennsylvania, believing that the continuance of the present session of the State Legislature will not only be a great expense to the Commonwealth, without any adequate return to their constituency, but may be fraught with much injury to themselves and their fellow-citizens generally.—They therefore most earnestly and respectfully pray, that your honorable bodies will immediately, and without any further delay, adjourn.—Judging from the past, they are constrained in great humility to state, that in their opinion no salutary good can flow from any further legislation, and that any continued action on your part will rather tend to make things worse than remedy any of the many evils which now so severely and most injuriously oppress them. They feel a deep and just indignation against those who are engaged in this most unbecoming and unbecomingly prayer—they however trust that sentiments so universal throughout the State are too well known to your honorable bodies; to presume otherwise would be to disparage that wisdom and acumen which so peculiarly belongs to the enlightened legislators of this great Commonwealth, and which your petitioners so fully accord them.

We were yesterday shown the certificate of marriage between James G. Boyd, the former Cashier of the Towanda Bank, who committed suicide on Thursday morning, and Miss Williams, with whom he was living at the time the horrid act was committed. By it, it would appear that on the 28th of February, 1841, Boyd, under the name of Henry Seymour, married Miss Emily Williams, the ceremony being performed at Trenton, (N. J.) by the Rev. John Gilchrist, D. D.—E. S. Gaz.

The Globe informs the public that the threat of Mr. Dawson of La. to Mr. Arnold, that "if he did not behave better he would cut his throat from ear to ear," was merely to preserve order and decorum, and grew out of a regard for the dignity of the House!—Alexandria Gazette.

[Extract from a London Paper.]

"We're not ourselves, When nature, being oppressed, commands the mind To suffer with the body."

This is a truism conceived by the master mind of Shakespeare, which neither sophistry nor argument can refute. To all those who are suffering from bilious attacks, indigestion and flatulency, we would, with great sincerity recommend, as a never failing remedy, Brantlett's Pills. The testimonials we have had submitted to us in favor of this admirable medicine, fully justify our speaking of these Pills in terms of the highest praise.—London Free Press.

A WORLD OF DELIGHT.

IMPORTANT TO THE READING PUBLIC. THE New Quarto Volume of the "NEW WORLD"—acknowledged on all hands to be the handsomest, cheapest, and most popular and entertaining periodical in the world—commencing January 1st, 1842, will contain stories and romances with its publication in England the Grand New Military Novel, by the author of "Charles O'Malley," entitled

"OUR MESS," Commencing with the story of "Jack Hinton, the Life Guardsman." No commendation of this new work will be necessary to those who have read the delightful Novel of "Charles O'Malley."

Also, a new Novel by Miss C. M. Sedgwick, already commenced, which does great credit to that distinguished Auth.ress.

Many Original Tales of great interest, among which we may mention, as already in hand, "Mary Tudor, a Tale of the Pastors," by Edmund Fitzgerald, author of the "Far West," "The Duchess of Ferrara," "Beatrice," a work of deep and thrilling interest; "Mel Parsons," a Tale of the great Fire in New York in December, 1835, bounding in positively wrought passages; "The Blacksmith of Antwerp," by a popular original contributor. Also, a series of short Fugitive stories, by the best artists in England and America, will embellish the coming volume.

All these Novels, and a multitude of others, for ONLY THREE DOLLARS, cut at once, printed free of postage. In the next book for sale, we could cite ten times that amount.
