

SECT. 22. No copies or warrant to arrest to issue except as above.

The remaining sections provide for various contingencies, but by no means for all that are likely to occur; and the act will no doubt afford plenty of work for the courts.

Northeastern Boundary.

We are authorized to say that a conventional line of boundary, with its various conditions and equivalents, has been agreed on by the Executive and the British Special Envoy, with the unanimous consent of the Commissioners of Maine and Massachusetts. We congratulate all parties upon this happy and honorable result.

TERMS.—We have reason to know that the Commissioners of the two States of Maine and Massachusetts have signified their assent to a line of boundary between Maine and New Brunswick.

Every body knows that the territory in dispute embraces all the region of the Upper St. John, and the general understanding now is, that this region is to be divided into unequal parts; the largest, and by far the most valuable, to be assigned to Maine, together with considerations connected with the navigation of the St. Johns, (both sides of the lower of which belong to England,) of the greatest importance to the value of the timber growing on its branches. Other important arrangements in different parts of the line, hitherto unsettled, in various places between Maine and the Lake of the Woods, are rumored as likely to take place.

We doubt not the Administration knows what it is about, and in due time we shall see. Let it be remembered, that General Jackson offered to give to MAINE ONE MILLION of acres of public land in 1832, as a loan to induce her to come to an agreement; the land to be sold by the United States, and the whole proceeds to be paid to Maine, without deduction. And other indemnity, of course to be provided for Massachusetts, which State owned one-half the land. An agreement to this effect, in substance, was signed, on the part of the United States, by Edward Livingston, Secretary of State, Louis McLane, Secretary of the Treasury, and Levi Woodbury, Secretary of the Navy, and on the part of Maine by W. P. Preble, Reuel Williams, and Nicholas Emery.—Madisonian.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS. When groaning under fell disease, Who was it first procured us ease, With pills that could not fail to please? 'Twas Brandreth.

Experience's test these Pills have stood, And slander foul from Druggists rude; Still praised by all the wise and good, Is Brandreth.

Who is it health and strength produces, By making pure our blood end juices, And saves us from M. D.'s abuses? Why Brandreth.

His Pills, they make the people well, They ring the Doctors' funeral knell; No Druggist shall my medicine sell, Says Brandreth.
