

The Money Market.

Very little change in the money matters of Philadelphia. The out-door rates may be quoted as heretofore at 7 to 9 per cent., for good paper. The brokers have very little to do, inasmuch as the banks discount all short paper of unexceptionable character that is presented to them. Our own impression is that as business becomes more active, money will get comparatively scarce. The abundance at the present time, grows chiefly out of the limited business of the country. Every body has been curtailing and retrenching for months, while the uncertainty and apprehension that existed with regard to the revenue or tariff bill, also had its effect in deterring capitalists from any new enterprises. But the revenue bill having passed, and Congress adjourned, we may speedily look for more activity in trade, and hence for more demand for money. The currency, too, is getting better at various points; the crops of all kinds are coming in; we have no fear of war with Great Britain, and the prospect is improving. The great drawback upon farmers, is low prices. Wheat is selling at various points in Kentucky at 50 cents a bushel, and at the same price at Zanesville, Ohio, and at 45 cents in Cincinnati. But these are specie prices, and when we remember that the crops are immense, perhaps the cause of complaint is not so serious. We repeat that the currency is gradually improving throughout the country, that individuals have long been engaged in curtailing their indebtedness, and that the signs of the times from all points, are more cheering within the last few days. The auction sales which took place last week in Philadelphia, brought better prices, and our merchants on Change and in the principal business thoroughfares, speak with a better feeling, and more confidence. The fall trade will not probably be large, because the effect of the salutary movements to which we have alluded will not have reached the various sections of country from which the southern and western merchants come, in time. Still, it will exhibit considerable improvement, and the very fact that the multitude believe that business will grow better, will produce a cheerful state of things to some extent at least. Even our State Stocks have increased in price somewhat, more because of the better feeling generally, than for any positive reason that we have been able to discover. On the whole, then, we think we may congratulate our readers, and indulge a hope that matters will mend gradually but certainly, from the present time forward.—Bick. Reporter.

Melancholy Accident.

Extract of a letter to the Editor of the Danville Democrat, dated WASHINGTONVILLE, August 30th, 1842. DEAR SIR:—We had another dreadful accident here on Saturday last. CHARLES JOHNSON, son of JAMES JOHNSON, Esq., a young man about 19 years of age, went on a fishing excursion in the Creek near this town, with a seine, in company of several persons. In going into the water he got deeper than his height, and being unable to swim, was drowned in a few minutes. Too much blame cannot be attached to those who were with him. They made no effort to save him, though the water was not over between five or six feet deep, and they were within ten or twelve feet from him, when he sank. Instead of attempting to save him, (which they could have done,) they went to town for aid, and it was near a half hour before the body was recovered. Every effort was made that human ingenuity could devise, but it was of no avail—the vital spark had fled. The deceased was a young man of unexceptionable character, and has left a large circle of friends who mourn his untimely fate. This has been cut down, in the morning of his life, a young and promising youth, who bade fair to realize the highest expectation of his friends.

The sufferings of the poor in Philadelphia and the lower counties is said to be very great, owing to want of employment. A few days ago a case of actual starvation was mentioned in a Philadelphia paper.—The Saturday Evening Post gives the following account: "On Tuesday, a poor man was detected by a butcher upon Market street, in the act of taking a piece of meat from his stand. He pleaded poverty—the starvation of his family, as the only cause of his act. At the moment, a gentleman standing by, and who heard the poor fellow's story, inquired the price of the meat, and being answered as to its value, was about to pay it, when the butcher with characteristic goodness of heart, said, 'No, sir, I make it a present to him,' and the man went away. A circumstance of a similar character occurred last week, but the butcher, instead of stopping the man, quietly followed him to his home, and upon going into the house, was astonished to see the children of the poor fellow greedily devouring the raw meat, with an avidity that could only arise from famine, while the father sat looking on unmindful of his own sufferings. This was too much for the sensitivities of the butcher, who left the house with precipitation, but soon returned, having successfully exerted himself to procure relief for this starving family."

Gold Mines of Georgia.

The Millidgeville Journal of a late date says: "The success which is now attending gold digging in the Cherokee country, is, we learn, very great. Upon an average, it is said, that common hands can earn from one dollar to one dollar and three-quarters per day, clear of expenses. This is better than making cotton—not corn—for we hold that the corn maker, in the long run does better than either the gold digger or the cotton planter. But notwithstanding this, we are pleased that our Gold mines in the Cherokee country, are proving to be a source of profit. These are hard times, and hard money is much wanted. We learn too, that the demand for gold was so great, that many speculators furnished themselves with what they supposed, the 'needful,' to buy up the glittering metal, but they have been to a great extent, sadly disappointed. Their needful was Central Bank money, and the depreciation upon the notes of this Bank has been so great, that the Miners would not touch it, but at a rate of discount so great that the speculators were compelled to abandon their project."

Schuykill Coal Trade.

Amount of Coal shipped from this region the present season, up to Thursday evening:— From Pottsville, 179,191 Tons. " Schuykill Haven, 101,223 " TOTAL, 280,414 " Amount of Coal shipped from Mauch Chunk up to 26th ult., from the commencement of the season, 149,985 Tons. [Pottsville Emporium.

In the Court of Quarter Sessions of Union county, Isaac Gray was sentenced to the Eastern Penitentiary, for passing a counterfeit five dollar note to Dr. J. Wagenseller, for two years solitary confinement at hard labor, and one year for offering a counterfeit five dollar note to John Hall.—Union Star.

STEPHEN GIRARD.—The Philadelphia Evening Journal in the course of some very severe strictures on the life and character of Girard, holds forth in this wise:—"Girard acquired his fortune chiefly at the expense of every principle, as well as the best feelings of humanity. In the courts of justice, he pleaded the statute of limitations, against righteous debts—and on one occasion, saved $40,000 by his plea—though then worth six millions of dollars. On another occasion, he endeavored to swindle a widow and her children out of a farm in the neck, for which an honest jury sweat him with heavy damages; for, like all tyrants, he seized on the land, and left the widow to the uncertain remedies of the mercenary law; but the genius of a Binney recovered her property, and scourged the invader to the quick. His private indiscretions, would tire patience to enumerate them; and disgust sober minds by their profligate details."

BALTIMORE MARKET.

Office of the BALTIMORE AMERICAN, Sep. 5. FLOUR.—There is very little demand for Howard street Flour, and the store price has further declined.—Sales of good standard brands have been made to-day to a moderate extent at $4 50, and some holders are offering to sell at the same price now. There is no settled receipt price. We hear of no sales of City Mills Flour. Some holders are willing to sell at $4 75, but others ask $4 87 1/2. The market is almost bare of Susquehanna Flour.—Small sales at $4 75. GRAIN.—The supply of Wheat at market to day is large, but there are no prime lots offering. We nominally quote good to prime Md. reds at 80 a 90 cents.—Sales of inferior to good lots at 50 a 75 cents. Prices exhibit rather a downward tendency. No Pennsylvania Wheat at market for several days. Sales of Md. Corn at 50 cts. for white, and 50 a 51 cts. for yellow.—A sale of Pennsylvania yellow at 52 cts. We quote Md. Rye at 50 cts. Sales of Md. Oats at 21 a 23 cts. WHISKEY.—The market continues dull. Sales of hds., at 20 cts. and of bls., at 21 1/2 a 22 cts.

A FEW WORDS IN FAVOR OF DR. BRANDRETH'S VEGETABLE UNIVERSAL PILLS.—This valuable medicine is as well known in the United States, and particularly in this city, (Philadelphia) as a sovereign remedy in the cure and prevention of disease, that we scarcely know what to say, that will be received in its favor. One thing is certain, they possess this eminent advantage over most other purgatives, that while they operate gently they produce neither costiveness, debility, nor too great excitement; whenever there is a predisposition to a disease, arising from marsh effluvia, or too copious use of ardent spirits, or a vitiated state of the bile, they are sure to relieve. We highly recommend them to travellers, by sea and land, as they may be made use of with the utmost safety, without change of diet or exercise. They will be found peculiarly beneficial in the protection from disorders incidental to hot climates; they deterge and cleanse visceral humors, open obstructions, promote the secretion of good bile, operating as a cathartic and powerful diuretic and diaphoretic.—Daily Chronicle.

TO THE CITIZENS OF NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY:—Having been placed before the public by the Democratic party as a candidate for Assembly, I consider it my duty to the friends who nominated me, to say, that any allegation that I am in favor of attaching any part of Northumberland county to Columbia county, is incorrect. No person of either county has spoken to me with a view to that object, in anticipation of my nomination or election. I am opposed to such a change myself, and if elected, would not sanction any measure of the kind. If I am honored by the citizens with an election, I shall endeavor to represent the wishes and interests of the county fairly, and with fidelity. Very respectfully, your fellow citizen, JACOB GEARHART. Rush Township, Aug. 27, 1842.

Important Warning. To those who neglect a Cold. It is evident, and decided by the most experienced physicians, that Consumption is mostly encouraged by a neglect of a Cold at the first attack. How many persons are there that put off from time to time procuring a suitable medicine, until the disease begins to assume a serious character, when in all probability they are past the power of medical aid. May these lines prove a warning to those afflicted with the first symptoms of Consumption, that they may immediately use Dr. DENCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY, which is expressly for diseases of the Respiratory System. It is certain to remove a Cough in a few days, at the same time relieving the pain in the side and breast, and arresting the progress of that fatal disease—Consumption! The Expectant Remedy has a decided advantage over all other preparations. It is entirely free from Opium, and all other violent Narcotics. It regulates the system, and gives strength to the weak and nervous. For sale at No. 19 North Eighth street, Philadelphia, and in Sunbury, at the store of HENRY YOXTHEIMER, Agent. Sept. 10th, 1842.

A CARD.

Dr. JOHN PEAL & D. T. TRITES, RESPECTFULLY announce to the citizens of Sunbury, and its vicinity, that they have this day entered into partnership in the Practice of Medicine, in all its various departments, and hope by this arrangement, punctual attention to business, and moderate charges, to receive a liberal share of public patronage. Dr. J. PEAL, tenders his grateful acknowledgments for the very liberal patronage heretofore received, and feeling confident that the new arrangement, (the firm of Peal & Trites,) will be conducive to the comfort and welfare of the public, he most respectfully solicits a continuance of their confidence. Sunbury, May 7th, 1842.—6m.

MERCHANTS' HOUSE.

THE subscribers take pleasure in acquainting their friends and the public in general, that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel, recently built by the Messrs. Hart, on the same site occupied by the old established Hotel known as the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhill st. This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants; the arrangements for heating and ventilating each room is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all furnished in a neat style, so as to insure comfort. The receiving parlors are also furnished in a superb style, the windows are in the French style, forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which, with the furniture, are entirely new. From years' experience in hotel business, we trust, by strict assiduity to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best our market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors and wines of the most approved brands. P. S. There are first rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and sober ostlers, and our charges will be low, in accordance with the present hard times. SHULTZ & BERR. Philadelphia, April 16, 1842.
