Oriental Republic-a country comprising about 90,000 sq. miles, and as many inhabitants. And for this several thousand lives and millions of money have stready been lost .- N. Y. Tribune.

The Bennington, Vt. Banner gives the following as Prophet Miller's description of the coming of the Son of man :

"A small bright spot will first appear in the east, which will gradually expand as it approaches the earth. By and bye, a small cloud will appear before the luminous ball and between it and the earth. On this cloud will be seen the Son of Man, standing erect, his figure plainly visible to the spectators on the earth. At the sound of a trumpet for some other signal.) have gradually illuminated the whole heavens, the righteous dead shall rise from their resting place-and the risen and the living saints shall rise together be caught up and meet the Saviour in the sir, when they will instantly be changed and clothed with immortality. The Saviour will then present them to the Father, whose presence is denoted by this luminous mass, perfect, without spot or wrinkle. The Futher will then give the Saints, by the marriage covenant, as a the New Jerusalem, and, together with the Saviour. will descend to the earth, which during their abscence has been purified by fire, and the wicked burned up, where the Saints will dwell with Christ forever."

COLD SPORT .- The Millerites at Providence had decided that the great end of all things was to come about last Wednesday, and preparations were made to meet it. Over one hundred passed the night in the burying ground, on the west side, some of whom, if report speaks true, were dressed in their ascension robes. They went there to witness the resurrection of their friends, with whom they expected to rise into the clouds !
