CONTAGIOUS.—A person whose blood is pure may enter the post-house unharmed; while one whose blood is corrupt would inhale the contagion of the street. The violence of the infection will depend not on the state of him who impared it, but upon the state of his fluids who received it. The same is true of influenza, and other supposed contagious disease. Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills being a direct purifier of the blood and cleanser of the stomach and bowels will be found regularly effective not only in preventing but curing diseases—because they remove from the body the direct cause of a foul state of the blood before it has time to produce gangrene or any other fatal effects.
Purchase of H. B. Masser, Sunbury, or of agents published in another part of this paper.

MERCHANTS HOUSE,
No. 237, North Third, above Callowhill St., PHILADELPHIA.
JOHN DUNCAN, late from the Pennsylvania Farmer, and Samuel Pike, Jr., late of American Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, take pleasure in acquainting their friends and the public generally that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel, recently built by the Messrs. Hart, on the same site once occupied by the old established Hotel known as the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhill st.
This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants; the arrangements for heating and ventilating each room is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all furnished in a neat style, so as to insure comfort.
The receiving parlors are also furnished in a superb style, the windows are on the French style, forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which, with the furniture, are entirely new.
From years' experience in hotel business, we trust, by strict assiduity to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best our market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors and wines of the most approved brands.
P. S. There are first rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and sober boylers, and our charges will be low, in accordance with the present high times.
