Chinese Love Song.
O, daughter of the great King-Chum
Whose eyes like Kwan diamonds glow;
And wilt thou love thy Fa-Fu-Pum,
My sweet, my lovely Ho-ang Ho!

The swans their downy plumage have
Where Lano's wandering waters flow;
But can the swans of Lano's wave
Compare with thee, my Ho-ang Ho!

Six moons have travelled thro' the skies,
And softly gleam'd on Kifing-O,
Since first thy beauty met my eyes,
Light of my soul, my Ho-ang Ho.

Oh, when I clasp thee to my breast,
Change-free, to whom the nations bow,
Shall not be half so truly blest,
As Fa-Fu-Pum and Ho-ang Ho

BALTIMORE MARKET.
Office of the BALTIMORE AMERICAN, August 14.

GRAIN—The supplies of Wheat have been fair, and the prices obtained this morning were considered a trifle better than those of last week, but at the time of writing this, the market appears a little more inactive. We quote good to prime Md. and Virginia reds at 95 cts. and ordinary to good at 90 to 95 cts.—Three or four parcels of very prime Va. reds were sold at 100 cts. A sale of two of good Md. white Wheat at 98 cts. We note a sale of North Carolina red at 96 cts. and a small cargo of new Penna. red not strictly prime, though entirely free of garlic, at 95 cts. Sales of Md. white Corn at 52 a 53 cts. Yellow is quoted at 53 cts. dull. Sales of Md. Oats at 22 a 23 cts. which is an improvement.

WHISKEY—Continues quite dull at 25 cents for blads and 26 cents for blbs. Small sales at these rates.

LIFE IS MOTION, AND DEATH IS STAGNATION.
—The Ocean remains pure so long as the winds continue to agitate and promote a circulation throughout its component parts; but in protracted calms, the mighty deep has been known to putrify from stagnation, emitting a miasma sufficiently noxious to destroy animal life. Such is the state of the humors of the human body that is deprived of exercise, and nothing can restore to a state of purity its stagnant and corrupt fluids save powerful evacuation with a medicine that shall act as an assistant of Nature, and consequently in accordance with the human constitution. And such a medicine is Beaudré's Vegetable Universal Pills: experience proves it; because their pills are known by the experience of thousands, to perfectly cleanse the blood from all its foulness, remove every morbid affection, and renovate weak and enfeebled constitutions to perfect health and vigor.

EXCHANGE HOTEL.
Centre Street, opposite the Town Hall,
POTTSVILLE, PA.

J. C. LESSIG.

RESPECTFULLY announces to the travelling community that he has taken the large and splendid establishment, the EXCHANGE HOTEL, situated at the corner of Centre and Calowhill streets, nearly opposite the Town Hall, in the borough of Pottsville, which has been thoroughly repaired and materially improved for the accommodation of visitors. The Hotel is forty ft. front on Centre st., and one hundred and thirty eight ft. on Calowhill, three stories high; it is admirably provided with Parlors, Sitting Rooms, Reading Room, and large airy Chambers—the most spacious, pleasant and convenient Dining Room in the county—a new and superior Bathing Establishment; and every convenience and comfort to render it in all respects a most desirable Hotel.

No pains or expense will be spared to furnish the Table with the best that this and the Philadelphia Markets afford; and with a determination to devote his entire personal attention to the comfort and accommodation of those who may favor him with a call; aided by active, careful and obliging servants, he hopes to give general satisfaction.

PRIVATE FAMILIES, wishing to visit this highly interesting and healthy Coal Region, will be provided with Parlors and Chambers, which he feels confident will please the most fastidious.

The Stabling attached, is large and well constructed, and superintended by experienced and attentive Obeds. Horses and Carriages may be had at any time to convey persons to any part of the county.

An Omnibus runs from this Hotel daily to and from the Depot, to meet the Cars, for the accommodation of persons travelling on the Rail Road. No charge for omnibus fare to this Hotel. Pottsville, July 8, 1843.—6m

LONGLEY'S
Great Western Indian Panacea.
Compounded entirely of Vegetable Substances:
Free from Alcohol and all other Minerals.
(For the history of this medicine, and its unrivalled and truly surprising success and popularity, see large bills.)

It is recommended as a general cathartic for family use—in dyspepsia and all bilious diseases, it is invaluable—for Asthma it is considered a specific, no case having yet occurred which it has failed to cure—for common colds, inflammatory diseases, rheumatism, affections of the liver, &c., and for females, it is a safe and excellent remedy.

CERTIFICATE.
From Dr. S. W. West of Birmingham, N. Y.
Mr. Longley—Dear Sir: I have used your Great Western Indian Panacea in my family, and have repeatedly prescribed it for patients under my care, and with an assurance that it is always a safe, and in many cases an invaluable medicine.—It operates as a laxative without nausea, or pain; and while it effectively obviates costiveness acts upon the stomach and liver as an aborative, correcting acidity, and restoring the healthy condition of those organs.

Very respectfully yours, S. WEST.

MERCHANTS' HOUSE,
No. 27, North Third, above Callowhill St., PHILADELPHIA.

JOHN LUNAN, late from the Pennsylvania Farmer, and Samuel Pike, Jr., late of American Hotel, Columbia, Ohio, take pleasure in acquainting their friends and the public generally that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel, recently built by the Messrs. H. et al., on the same site once occupied by the old Callowhill Hotel known as the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhill st.

This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants; the arrangements for heating and ventilating are such as to secure a uniform temperature. The beds are made of light and airy, all furnished in a neat style, as is to be expected.

The receiving parlors are furnished in a superior style, the windows are in the French style, forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant retreat. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which, with the furniture, are entirely new.

From years' experience in hotel business, we trust, by strict assiduity to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best and market wines of the most approved brands.

P. S. There are first-rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and sober hostlers, and our charges will be low, in accordance with the present hard times.

Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1842.

and that he is now well prepared to accommodate all who may favor him with their custom.

His Sleeping Apartments are well aired, and comfortable.

His TABLE AND BAR will always be supplied with the best the market can afford.

His STABLES, which is good, will be under the charge of good and careful hostlers.

He feels confident, by strict attention to business, and an earnest desire to render comfortable those who may patronize him, that he will not fail to give general satisfaction.
