

Heart Rending Disaster.

LOSS OF THE STEAMBOAT SHEPHERD AND ONE HUNDRED LIVES.—The St. Louis Democrat of the 5th inst. says that the city was thrown into commotion the day previous by the announcement that the steamboat Shepherd, from Pittsburg, had sunk in sight of that city, about midnight the night previous, and that from 70 to 100 lives were lost by the awful catastrophe!

The Shepherd was from the Ohio river, was commanded by Capt. Powell or Powers, (we could not understand which,) who had recently purchased and thoroughly repaired her. She left Pittsburg some six or eight days ago, with a crew of from ten to fifteen persons, and at the time of the accident had upwards of 250 passengers on board, a very large number, when we consider the lateness of the season. The boat encountered no usual obstacle, until last evening, about half past 11 o'clock, when she struck a snag at Cahokia Bend, about three miles below the city, and sank immediately, and before a general alarm could be given. The mate had but a moment before reported five fathoms water, and yet he had not walked the length of the vessel when the water reached his shoulders. He saved himself by jumping overboard and gaining the hurricane deck when the boat sank. The time, the suddenness of the accident, the unprepared state of the passengers, the appalling character of the danger, the intense coldness of the night, (the coldest of the season,) all operated to cause an agonizing scene. Men, women and children, almost naked and partially submerged in the water, were calling for their relatives, or passing to and fro in chaotic confusion, endeavoring to obtain the means of self preservation; while others threw themselves into the river, and were drowned.

Many incidents connected with this sad affair are very distressing. A young lady, who was suffering from pleurisy, was drawn through one of the state-room doors up to the hurricane deck when the boat came to rest; but she was so debilitated by pain and fright as to be unable to stand; she was accordingly laid upon one of the wagons with which the boat was freighted; and upon the vessel making another lurch, she was precipitated into the water! Four children also perished from exposure, while being conveyed from the wreck to the shore. The captain, when last recognized, was climbing one of the irons which support the chimneys. He is supposed to be drowned; also, the carpenter, who was acting engineer. The greatest loss of life was sustained when the cabin separated from the hull. One of the passengers floated upon a portion of the wreck as far as Vide Poche, when he was relieved from its uncomfortable situation.

As soon as news of the accident reached the city, the ferry boat Ice-lander was despatched to the place, and took from the wreck upwards of 100 passengers.

Since the above was in type, we are informed that many bodies have been found, supposed to have been frozen to death after reaching the shore. A number of the passengers were brought to the city to enable them to procure clothing, having lost every thing by this most dreadful calamity.

More Prize Fighting.—The disgraceful act of prize fighting was perpetrated in the neighborhood of Pittsburg on Friday last. George Spencer, a foreigner, and Ralph Jackson, both residents of that city, having some misunderstanding, agreed to settle the affair by fighting it out. Having made all the necessary arrangements they repaired to the place accompanied by their seconds. The stakes were one hundred dollars a side. A Mr. Jones, reputed to be an old English prize fighter, was Spencer's second, and John Atkins the second of Jackson. They fought nine rounds, each of which was closed by Spencer either falling or being knocked down by Jackson. After the fight had progressed thus far, it was put a stop to by the arrival of Sheriff Trovillo. Spencer was considerably injured about the face, and Jackson received one or two blows on his head.

COINAGE AT THE MINT.—The following statement of moneys coined at the Branch Mint in New Orleans, during the year 1843, is copied from the Courier. It shows a rapidly growing increase in the operations of that institution:—

Table with 2 columns: Gold, Silver, Total. Values: $9,177,000; 1,701,000; $1,068,000.

LIFE IN NEW YORK.—The correspondent of the National Intelligencer writes, under date of the 6th instant:—

There is a considerable outbreak lately in the way of equipages in New York. Several four horse vehicles have made their appearance, driven by the young men who own them. I have noticed also a new curriole in beautiful taste, (driven with a steel bar over the horses' backs,) and a tilbury with two servants in livery, one on the seat with his master, and another on horseback, following as an outrider. We are to have a masked ball this evening, and a steple-chase is to come off on the 20th, (Viscount BERTHARD one of the riders, and each competitor entering a thousand-dollar stake for the winner.) I shall be at the ball, not the steple-chase—for a horse must have iron legs to run over a frozen ploughed field, and a man must have a less use for his life than I, who would risk a fall upon surface like broken stones. The Viscount has won several steple-chases in England, and has had some rough riding after the Arabs in Algiers—so I would bet on him unless there happened to be a fox-hunting Irishman among the competitors. There are six riders, I understand, and one of them with six thousand dollars of course, and probable six horses will be ruined and one or two necks broken. Fortunately, there is a superfluity of horses and young men.

Certain Characters.

At present there's a numerous class— I wish that I could reach 'em With what they could not resist— In feeling lessons teach 'em On Sabbath days they hang around The entrance to our churches; 'T would do them good if some would try, What virtue there in birch is.

They nod, or smile, or make remarks, When'er a female passes— And sometimes have the impudence To quiz them through their glasses, And thus they stand about the door, Till every one has passed in; If e'er you notice such you'll find They always are the last in.

They reach the pews and take their seats With quite a genteel twirling— Then raise their hand to see if still Their hair is smooth or curling. Oh, how distressing it must be, And make them feel so humbled, When they have oiled and curled the hair To have it rudely tumbled.

And when the minister expounds The scriptures true and holy, Their eyes are on some fair one near, And these absorb them wholly. When Church is out they gather near The door in little clusters, Like a certain class at theatres, Denominated bustlers.

They sometimes talk and laugh, I'm sure 'tis quite becoming! And in the face of worthy men It cannot be assuming! The ladies out, they then retire To some devoted corner, Where by their freaks and stale remarks They gain distinguished honor.

BALTIMORE MARKET.

Office of the BALTIMORE AMERICAN, Jan. 16. FLOUR.—The stock of Howard Street Flour offering for sale continues very light, and holders have generally advanced the asking sale from store to $1.50 for good mixed brands. We have not heard of any sales at that price, but an offer of $1.41 was refused today for 250 barrels. Settlements were made for receipts by cars today at $1.25.

The stock of City Mills Flour is much reduced. A sale was made today at $1.50, but some holders are not willing to sell at that price.

GRAIN.—Wheat is scarce and wanted. The few parcels coming in by wagons, sells at 90 a 95 cents for best reds, and at 100 a 105 cts. for white. Sales of Corn today at 43 cts. for yellow, and at 37 a 40 cts. for white, which is an advance. We quote Oats at 24 a 26 cts.

A sale of Pennsylvania Cloverseed was made today $6.25, part of it prime seed, and part containing ripple. Prime seed is held at $6.50.

WHISKEY.—Blends are scarce. We note sales at 19 1/2 cts. and of blks. at 20 a 20 1/2 cts.—now held at 21 cts. There is a little inquiry for the article, and these sales show an improvement.

In order to restore the sick to health, their blood must be purified—and all medicines which do not possess the power of stimulating the blood to purify itself, by discharging its impurities into the bowels, are, to say the least, useless. Dr. Brandreth's Vegetable Pills possess this power in an eminent degree—and being mild and gentle in their operation, may always be taken with safety, with the certainty of good results. Office, No. 8 North Eighth street, Philadelphia.

The genuine Pills with no Druggist are found. Although many counterfeiters with them abound.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Eczema, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.

Sole wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons:

In Northumberland County.—H. B. Masser, Sunbury; Ireland & Moxel, McEvensville; D. Krauer, Milton.

In Union County.—J. Gearhart, Selingsgrove; A. Gutlin, Millburg.

In Columbia County.—R. W. McCay, Washington.

Reading, March 14, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power lies, for the benefit of their fellow men, and having last past year procured in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I am at conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcers on their faces and necks, which were attended with the most scientific physicians to attend them, and had tried all the known remedies, including Swain's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal.

JOHN MOYER, Tailor, Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading.

Douglasville, April 19th, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY.—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norrisstown, and also Dr. Isaac Hoister, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles, the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sore healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who saw him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine.

Yours truly, AMELIA D. LEAF.
