

SWALLOWING THE EVIDENCE.—Sailors are proverbially grumblers, and even when well treated are very apt to find fault. Their provisions good or bad, and sometimes they are bad enough in all conscience, furnish an everlasting subject of complaint; they are never so good as they were the first voyage. We lately met with an anecdote of Judge Peters, of Philadelphia, having a bearing on this subject, which is too good to be lost.

Complaint was made to the Judge in behalf of the crew of a vessel who had made a voyage to some port in Russia that they had been furnished with bad provisions. While the counsel for the seamen was arguing the cause, one of them stepped forward, and drawing from his pocket a piece of bread, the color of brown soap, presented to his honor as a specimen of their fare. To persons accustomed to fine wheat loaves it appeared disgusting indeed, and the bystanders, one and all, cried shame to fill men's stomachs with such unwholesome aliment.

The Judge applied the bread to his nose, and finding nothing in it offensive to his olfactory nerves, was tempted to taste it; he nibbled a little piece, it tasted well, and he took a large bite. The counsel proceeded at much length, though the dinner hour was fast approaching, and, as he rounded the periods, the Judge nibbled around the black biscuit until none remained. At this moment the sailor stepped up, and with a countenance in which was depicted real distress, said "why you have eaten my best witness. Yes, (said the lawyer) I have been remarking that the Judge has been swallowing the evidence as well as the law. 'Never mind,' (replied his honor, as if awakened from a dream) I am the better able to digest your cause." So saying, he rose, and ordering the libel to be dismissed, went home to his dinner.

NEWSPAPERS.—Among the various portions of the human family, newspapers are to be found in the following ratios:—

In Asia one to every	14 000 000
In Africa, one to every	5 000 000
In Europe, one to every	106 000
In America, one to every	40 000
In United States, one to every	10 000

JUDGE CRANEN has well described the Grand Jury to be a tribunal "taken from the midst of the people on the spur of the occasion—acting without previous concert; not continuing long enough to form an esprit du corps; too short-lived to become corrupt; too irresponsible to become dependent; and too deeply interested in the preservation of liberty to sanction its violation in the persons of its fellow citizens." A description just and true, and eminently opportune.

WORTH KNOWING.—A mixture of lard and wood-salt in equal quantities, is stated by the editor of the Cincinnati Advertiser to be "the sovereignest thing in the world," for burns and scalds.

To cure intemperance, Miraban gives the following recipe.—Take one gill of as good water as ever leaked from the sky, add one spoonful of loaf sugar, one sprinkling of nutmeg, one bit of mint, one gill of the best French brandy. Then clap in red-hot poker, and then—throw it anywhere but down your throat. This remedy never fails.

FOR THE AMERICAN.

MR. EDITOR:—Myself and neighbors are decidedly in favor of again nominating EDWARD Y. BRIGHT, as the Democratic candidate for the Assembly. Mr. Bright made a very good member—he was active and industrious—always at his post, and did his duty faithfully. He was chairman of a very important Committee, and one that required a great deal of attention and labor. His appointment to this station shows that he had the respect and confidence of his fellow members, and they say that he never sent a more industrious and attentive member.

Mr. Bright took an active and leading part in retrenching the expenses of the Legislature, and in introducing principles of economy into every branch of the Government. He was on the Committee of Accounts, through whose exertions the reform which distinguished the last Legislature was brought about. He went about saving the people's money in earnest. A few days after the opening of the session, he offered the resolution which became a law, giving the Public Printing and Binding to the lowest bidder. This measure alone will save about TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS annually.

It was suspected that great frauds had been committed by the printers under former laws. The Committee on Accounts set about the investigation of these accounts with a determination to ferret out the frauds. Mr. Bright was one of the most industrious and persevering members of that Committee. The result was that overcharges of the printers, to the amount of thirteen thousand dollars, were discovered and suits directed to be brought to recover that sum back into the Treasury.

The contingent expenses of the last Legislature were not one fifth of the expenses of the preceding. Some $15 or $20,000 were saved to the Commonwealth in this matter alone, by the care and economy of the Committee of Accounts.

Mr. Bright then has done his duty faithfully and honestly. He has carried out the wishes of the people, and ought to be re-elected unanimously. Honor to whom honor is due. Let the faithful public servant be rewarded, and the best interests of the people will be faithfully represented.

SHAMOKIN.

FOR THE AMERICAN.

MR. EDITOR:—It being in accordance with the usages of the Democratic party, for the people, previous to the formation of the County Ticket, to bring before the public the names of such individuals as they may deem most worthy to discharge the duties belonging to the offices within their gift, we would recommend to the consideration of the Democratic Electors of Northumberland county, Maj. WILLIAM L. DEWART as a candidate for the Legislature. Should the people see proper to elect Maj. Dewart as their Representative, we feel confident that they will find in him a public servant of distinguished abilities, an intelligent, firm, and unwavering Democrat of the Jeffersonian school, and, consequently, the laboring man's friend.

CLAY, FREILINGHUYSEN AND MARKLE.

Grand Rally of the Friends of their Country, at the Forks of the Susquehanna, on the 10th of September.

BROTHER Whigs of Pennsylvania! our political opponents, instigated by a desire to recover their lost ground, and to throw the dark mantle of Locofocoism again over the thirteenth district, held a Convention drummed up and marshaled by the office holders in the Commonwealth, at Northumberland, on the 26th ult. We are resolved to beat them on their own ground—to show the folks that the Coons can outnumber them in their own burrows. Therefore we do most heartily invite your cooperation and presence. We summon you not in the name of "Old Hickory, Oregon, Texas," or any other fellious appeal, insulting to your understandings as American freemen, but in the name of your cherished principles, and in the name of him who relies on no other for his popularity and his fame; and of him, who, when duly called, will find where the battle raged thickest, on the side of his country. In behalf of these we invite you to the path.

Raise or Shine, let every Pennsylvanian that can come be there. Let every man who feels an interest in the welfare and prosperity of the Republic encourage us with his aid. And more than this, let the ladies come. Turn out, daughters of Pennsylvania, and with your beautiful presence cheer the hearts of the friends of your country.

Once more, fellow citizens. The 13th Congressional district is to be the battle ground of the State. Upon it are to be brought to bear all the power and influence of the corrupt and desperate leaders of a losing party. Here are to be turned loose the whole hordes of Kickapoo and Winchagoes, to flood the land with misrepresentations and slanders. They must regain this district, or the death agony of their party is to be sounded in Penns. Shall they regain it, brothers? Or shall we, by one mighty demonstration of our strength and our firm resolve, show them that we are unconquerable?

Come then, ye undaunted yeoman of the land! Pour out your hosts to the terror of Locofocoism! Welcome! thrice welcome to old Northumberland! John B. Boyd, Amos E. Kapp, S. J. Johnson, Joseph W. Askirk, C. B. Smith, E. P. Shannon, Thomas H. Watts, D. M. Brantigan, Abraham Troxell, John A. Lloyd, Adam Ludwig, James Scott, David Taggart.

Committee of Arrangements.

N. B. The most distinguished men of the Nation, will be invited to address the Convention. Their names will be announced as soon as their attendance can be ascertained.

Credit System

COSTS TOO MUCH!!

IT is now an acknowledged fact that the CASH SYSTEM is the only true one, both for the Buyer and Seller.

Just received our second stock of New Goods this season. We opened a new store on the Cash principle last April, and the great reduction of prices it enabled us to make, the saving and satisfaction the customer finds in its adoption has rendered our store universally popular with all who have given us a call. Our stock of goods consists of all the variety of Dry Goods, Groceries, Queensware, Hardware, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Bannets, &c., &c., usually kept in a Country Store.

All of which we buy in New York and Philadelphia for the Cash Only, and generally from men who sell for Cash Only. We buy our goods cheap and sell them cheap; and we can do it, because we neither pay the debts of others, nor ask our customers to pay for other people's goods.—"Every man pay his own debts," is our motto.

We wish to extend the benefits of this system, and therefore invite all who may hear of our store to give us a call, see for themselves, and act as wisdom dictates.

Don't miss the place. There are others who pretend to sell cheap, for cash. Our store is North of the Canal, in the brick building opposite to Mr. A. Montgomery's stone house, corner of Mill street and Bloomsburg road. Walk out, try us, and you will be well paid for it. RUSSEL & GRIER.
