

THE VOTING DAY. Air-"The Washing Day." No clouds our cause now overcast, Our hopes have risen high. For we have found a man at last, Who'll blow the coons sky-high, With James K. Polk of Tennessee, Young Hickory, as they say, We'll beat the Federal nominee, Upon the voting day. So 'tis march, march, drum, drum, Shout, shout, away, For all the folk will go for Polk, Upon the Voting Day. We now shall make a glorious fight, As the feds will soon diskiver, With Truth and Justice, Law and Right, We'll row them up Sait River,

One fact the whiggies can't mistake, One truth they can't gainsay, That Polk, the stake, is sure to take, Upon the Voting Day. So'tis march, march, drum, drum, March, march away ; For all the folk will go for Polk, Upon the Voting Day. Old Harry Clay, the people say, Is sure to be defeated, They never can forget the way Old Hickory was cheated. All men can tell, where'er they dwell, In palace or in cottage, That Harry then, his vote did sell, Like Esau, for his "pottage." But march, march, drum, drum, March, march away, We'll wipe the stain, away again, Upon the Voting Day. Two tones now issue from his mouth, Upon the tariff question, Free Trade's his watchword at the South. And at the North Protection. He's different things to different men,

With soldiers prates of battles, With speculators wields his pen, Tochildren talks of rattles. But march, march, drum, drum, March, march away, This is no go as we shall show, Upon the Voting Day

With nabobs he will drink champagne. With working men hard eider, And pat your filly on the mane, In hopes he may bestride her. He'll praise a beggar's ragged coat. Find beauty in a hovel, And seek to buy the poor man's vote, By lending him a shovel ! Oh, fie, fie, shame, shame, You know it, Harry Clay, That this is only going to last Until the Voting Day. Young Hickory then our watchword be,

On mountain and in valley, Till every friend of Liberty Around his name shall rally. The Whigs may swing, or feast, or fast, Tillnext November moon, 'Twill only end in this at last, We'll skin that same old Coon. So 'tis march, march, drum, drum, March, march away, For all the folk, will go for Polk, Upon the Voting Day.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Deputs tive Syrup of Sanaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally. that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in set-ting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; whenever the medicine has once been intraduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care ; containing nothing deliterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few botries, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body .- For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or cruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fistula, Chronic Cough Asthans, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.

Reading, March 14, 1843. MR. OARLEY :--- I believe it the uty of every one to do whatever in their power lies, for the binefit of their fellow man, and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I m st conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbuhad the mi-fortune to lose two of our children, by ry, by the breaking, out of ulcerous sores that covered the face, head and reck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them and had tried all the known remedies, including Swaim's Panacca, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so officiative, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her ble. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Deparative Symp of Sanaparillo, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a chaim: the ofcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which the has enjoyed unintersuptedly | atoly cured the disease, which there has been no ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily behere it has not its equal. JOHN MOYER, Tailor,

Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading.

Douglassville, April 19th, 1843.

Ma. OARLEY :- My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrotels in the most dreadful and distressing manper for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tri d all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Nord-town, and also Dr. Isnac Hiester, of Reading, to use your Deputative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles. the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sore healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed unintercuptedly ever sizes, to the ast nishment of many persons who seen him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a Yours truly medicine.

ROSE OINTMENT, WM. HEILMAN & CO., FOR TETTER. RINGWORMS, FIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER

CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS. The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary oures ever effected by any application. PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.

FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with TETTEN on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the cruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst-the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many at plications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as will as taking inward remedies. neloding a number of bottles of Sucaim's Panacea. Extract of Saranpurilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vanghan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the crustion began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely ding, Briks County, and to be had of the following eured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed Sanbury ; Letand & Maxel, McEwensville ; D! by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction. who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons among them my mother, who had the disease badon her arm,) who were all cured by it.

Rose Ointment, for Tetter. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.

PRILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839. VHIS is to certify that I was severely afflicited with Tetter in the hands and feet for upwards. of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applientions without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immedireturn of, slthough I had never been tid of it at any time for forty years. MEDICAL APPROBATION

Of the ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetter. A LTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation over all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Baugh, having found in this semedy that telief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to utford, has not besitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are prosed to secret Remedies.

I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, instated on my trying his preparation, of which he hanin common with the mem Althe

A Disappointment.

A young Yankee who had formed an attachment for the daughter of a rich old farmer, and after agreeing with his "bonnie lassie," went to the old tellow to ask consent, and during the ceremony, which was an awkwark one for Jonation, he whittled away at a stick. The old man watched the movements of the knife, at the same time continued to talk of the prospects of his future son-in-law, as he supposed, until the stick was dwindled down to nought. He then spoke as follows :-- You have a fine property; you have steady habits, good enough looking, but you can't have my daughter ! Had you made something, no matter what, of the stick you have whittled away, you could have had her. As it is, you cannot. Your property will go as the stick did, little by little, until all | is gone, and your family reduced to want. I have read your character; you have my answer." Jonsthan conveyed the unhappy news. to his anxious fair one, who, after hearing the story, burst out "a crying," stying, "Why you tarnal fool, you, why didn't you say you'd made | Orange Bank* a litter on't if nothing more ! Git out ! I'll marry the first feller that points his eye at me-I will, ro-boo-o-o."

One of those empty-pated, self-conceited, would-be-witty sort of puppies, that are always attempting to appear smart by pointing out the ignorance of others, was travelling one day in the highlands, and falling in with a shepherd by the road-side, he thought he might crack a joke upon auld Donald.

"Pray, Mr. Shepherd," said the fellow, "how far have I to go now 1"

"Just twa mile farrer," replied Donald. "Indeed ! how do you know that, man ?"

"Because, they are putting up a gallows to hang two knaves there, an' I'm mista'n it yo're na ane o' them."

A young physician asking permission of a lady to kiss her, she replied. "No, sir ; I never like to have a doctor's bill thrust in my face.

MERCHANTS HOUSE,

No. 237, North Third, above Cutlowhill St., PHILADELPHIA. OHN DUNCAN, late from the Pennsylva-nia Farmer, and Samuel Pike. jr., late of American Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, take pleasure in acquainting their friends and the public generally that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel, tecently built by the Messes. Hart, on the same site once occupied by the old established Hotel known as the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhill st.

This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants; the arrangements for heating and ventilating each room is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all furnished in a next siyle, so as to insure comfort,

The receiving parlors are also fun ished in a superb style, the windows are on the French style, arming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which, with the furniture, are entirely new.

From years' experience in hatel business, we rust, by strict assiduity to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best our market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors and wines of the most approved brands.

P. S. There are first rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and sober hostlers, and our charges will be low, in accordance with the present hard times. Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1842.
