

THE CHEATING OLD COON.
TUNE—"Sitting on a Rail."
As I walked out, 'twas not quite noon,
O there I spied that "same old Coon,"
A singing of that same old tune,
About that "cheating beef,"
Says I Mr. Coon, 'how do you do?'
Says he old friend, why how are you?
I guess I see none the better of you,
I haven't got "that beef."
Says he old friend, don't be so fast,
I'll make amends for times gone past;
He said, he grinned, and looked aghast,
He look'd much like a thief.
Says I Mr. Coon—and then he smiled,
'You can't quite come it o'er this child?'
And then he looked, O Lord! how wild,
His tail hung "down a feet."
Says I Mr. Coon you've had your day;
You promise well—but never pay—
You smell too much of Harry Clay,
To gull us any more.
And now to make the matter brief,
And since we find there's no "relief"—
We'll roast your carcass, you old thief,
In place of "that ar beef."

Male Coquetry.
Male coquetry is much more inexcusable than female, as well as more pernicious. Very few men will give themselves the trouble to gain or retain any woman's affections, unless they have views on them either of an honorable or dishonorable kind. Men employed in the pursuit of business or pleasure, will not give themselves the trouble to engage a woman's affections merely from the vanity of conquest, and of triumphing over the heart of an innocent and defenceless girl.
A man of parts, sentiment, and address, if he lays aside all regard to truth and humanity, may engage the hearts of fifty women at the same time, and may likewise conduct his coquetry with as much art as to put it out of the power of any of them to specify a single expression that could be said to be directly expressive of love.
This ambiguity of behaviour, this art of keeping one in suspense, is the great surety of coquetry in both sexes. It is the more cruel in men, because they can carry it to what length they please, and continue it as long as they please, without the woman being so much at liberty to complain or expostulate; whereas men can break their chains and force women to explain whenever they become impatient of their situation.
But as a woman in this country may easily prevent the first impression of love, every motive of prudence and delicacy should make her guard her heart against them, till such time as she has received the most convincing proofs of the attachment of a man of such merit as will justify a reciprocal regard. She should studiously labor to possess such high principles of honor and generosity as will render her incapable of deceiving, and at the same time possess that acute discernment which may secure her against being deceived.

THINKING ALOUD.—The following amusing anecdote is related of the Earl of Dudley, whose talents as a scholar, and great knowledge of foreign and international law, induced King George the Fourth to select him as Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, without his having ever been a prominent man in politics, had a habit of thinking aloud, which often placed him in very unpleasant predicaments. On one occasion, being caught in a rain a gentleman offered to take him home in his carriage; and on their journey the Earl said to himself; I suppose I must ask this man to dinner with me. The gentleman sitting by the side of him, who knew the falling of his Lordship, said aloud, as if missing, "If Lord Dudley should give me an invitation to dinner, I'll see him hanged before I will accept of it." This speech restored the Earl to a consciousness of what he had uttered, and he was repossessed with the manner it had been met, that he offered the gentleman the appointment of Secretary of Embassy, which was, however, refused.

LIFE AND ITS ILLUSIONS.—We furnish a house that our friends may cry out on our extravagance or bad taste; we give dinners, that our guests may hereafter find fault with our cook or our cellar; we give parties, that three parts of the company may rail at their stupidity; we dress, that our acquaintance may revenge themselves on our silks, by finding fault with our appearance; we marry; if well, it was interest—badly, it was insanity; we die, and even that is our own fault; if we had but done so and so, or gone to Dr. such a one, the accident would not have happened. A man accepts a bill for his friend, who pays it—the obligation is held trifling. 'What's in a name!' He fails—you have to pay it, and every one cries out against your folly. Oh, Life! what enables us to surmount your obstacles—to endure your disappointments—to believe your promise—but your illusions!

LITERARY RAY.—A short time since, a gentleman who was requested to value the books of a deceased clergyman, found to his surprise, that many of the most valuable works were imperfect, having leaves torn out. Upon asking a servant who had lived with the dying some years, if he knew any thing of the circumstances, he replied, after some hesitation: "Why to be sure, sir, I did sometimes tear a leaf out, but I never went twice to the same book, so it could not be of much consequence."

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.
THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is officiated with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, P. stula, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most sceptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla. It is sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons:
In Northumberland County.—H. B. Masser, Sunbury; Ireland & Mixel, McEwensville; D. Krauser, Milton.
In Union County.—J. Geisbart, Selinsgrove; A. Gotzels, Millburg.
In Columbia County.—R. W. McCoy, Washington.
Reading, March 14, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power lies, for the benefit of their fellow man, and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I do conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcers sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them, and had tried all the known remedies, including Swain's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal.
JOHN MOYER, Tailor,
Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading.
Douglassville, April 19th, 1843.
MR. OAKLEY.—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norristown, and also Dr. Isaac Hooper, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles, the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sores healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterruptedly ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who seen him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine.
Yours truly,
AMELIA D. LEAF.

The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application.
PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.
FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with TETTER on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head ached at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swain's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep furrows, formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were all cured by it.
JAMES DURNELL, No. 156, Race St.

Rose Ointment, for Tetter. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.
PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839.
THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetter in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which there has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. RICHARD SAVAGE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street.
The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent.

MEDICAL APPROBATION OF THE ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetter.
ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation above all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Baugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to secret Remedies.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836.
I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my case, insisted on my trying his preparation, of which he handed me a jar. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discountenance and disapprove of the numerous nostrums peddled upon the public by ignorant pretenders, I feel in justice bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation, as it entirely cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications. DANL BAUGH, M. D.
The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent.

WM. HEILMAN & CO., Commission & Forwarding Merchants, Foot of Willow Street Rail Road, ON THE DELAWARE.
HAVING associated with them Joseph Barnett, late of Easton, Pa., respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they have taken that large and well known store and wharf at foot of Willow Street Railroad, lately occupied by Jacob Martin, where they purpose doing a General Commission and Forwarding Business, and from the local advantages of the place being connected with all the public improvements that have their outlet in the city, they flatter themselves they will be able to do business to as great, if not greater advantage, and upon as reasonable terms as any other house, and they assure their friends that any consignments made to them shall have their strict attention, and no exertions spared to give entire satisfaction.
They are also prepared to receive and forward goods to any point on the Delaware and Lehigh rivers, between Mauch Chunk, Easton and Philadelphia, via Delaware Division and Lehigh Canals; also to any point on the Juniata river, or North and West Branches of the Susquehanna via Schuylkill and Union, or the Chesapeake and Tide Water Canals.
For the accommodation of Boats coming or going via Schuylkill and Union Canals, a Steamboat will be kept expressly for towing boats from the Schuylkill around to the Delaware and back, which will enable merchants to have their produce delivered on the Delaware, and their goods shipped at a saving of 50 to 75 per cent. on the prices for hauling across—with these advantages they respectfully solicit a share of patronage.

MERCHANTS' HOUSE,
No. 257, North Third, above Callowhill St., PHILADELPHIA.
JOHN DUNCAN, late from the Pennsylvania Farmer, and Samuel Pike, Jr., late of American Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, take pleasure in acquainting their friends and the public generally that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel, recently built by the Messrs. Hart, on the same site once occupied by the old established Hotel known as the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhill St.
The Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants; the arrangements for heating and ventilating each room is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all furnished in a neat style, so as to insure comfort.
The receiving parlors are also furnished in a superior style, the windows are on the French style, forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which, with the furniture, are entirely new.
From years' experience in hotel business, we trust, by strict assiduity to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best our market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors and wines of the most approved brands.
P. S. There are first rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and sober hostlers, and our charges will be low, in accordance with the present hard times.
Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1842.
