

Anecdote of Bernadotte.

At the breaking out of the revolution, in 1789, Bernadotte had recently been appointed sergeant by his captain. This captain, a native of the same province as himself, and who wished him well, had often reproved him for his fondness for the revolutionary ideas which were gradually gaining ground, assuring him that they could not lead to any good, and declaring that he was "une mauvaise tete," and in spite of his superior education and acquirements, he would come to nothing. When the troubles actually commenced, and order and discipline were banished from the army, several regiments deposed their officers, or refused to obey them, and elected others out of their midst.—The regiment to which Bernadotte belonged followed this example, arrested its colonel and its officers, and unanimously chose Sergeant Bernadotte for its commander. Having accepted this new dignity he assembled the regiment and thanked his comrades for their confidence, of which, he said, he felt and would prove himself worthy. "Above all," he thus concluded his speech, "I must impress it upon you, that without discipline, no military body can subsist, and if I am to command you and to operate effectively for your welfare, you must promise me absolute, implicit obedience." "That we will!" cried the men in one voice. "It follows, of course, then," resumed the sergeant-colonel, "that whoever does not instantly obey my orders shall be punished according to the laws of war. Do you swear this?" "We swear it," responded the soldiers. Bernadotte immediately took a company, the one to which he belonged, and on which he could reckon implicitly, put himself at its head, led it to the prison, and brought out the officers, with whom he proceeded to the front of the still assembled regiment. "Soldiers," said he, taking the hand of the colonel, "you have, of your own accord, conferred on me the command over you, and sworn obedience to me. I now command you to recognize again your former colonel and officers. Let us not disgrace a good cause by rebellion and disorder. My command is at end; I resign it to our former chief." The latter, however, had seen too much, and was too well informed of what was going on in Paris, and throughout all France, to accept the proffered command again. He declined it, and with most of the officers, quitted the regiment, of which Bernadotte then assumed the command. In process of time, when he came as Marshal of France and Prince of Rome-Corvo to Anspach, he there met with his former captain, who had emigrated and made that place his residence. He received him with great cordiality, offered him his services, invited him to his table, and introduced him to his officers as his old chief, by whom he had been made subaltern. "Voyez," said he to him smiling, "que malgre ma mauvaise tete, et vos predictions, je n'ai pas trop mal fait mon chemin."—Collins's Magazine.

Cure for the Tetters. Obtain at a druggist's an ounce of sulphuret of potash. Be careful to ask for this article precisely. Put the sulphuret into a large glass jar, and pour on it a quart of cold water. Stop it tightly, and leave it to dissolve. It may be more convenient afterwards to transfer it to smaller bottles. Care must be taken to keep it closely corked. To use it, pour a little into a cup, and dipping in a soft sponge, bathe the eruption with it five or six times a day. Persist, and, in most cases, it will soon effect a cure. There is indeed no better remedy. Should the tetters re-appear in cold weather, immediately apply this solution, and it will again be found efficacious. A bath of sulphuret of potash, made as above, and frequently repeated, has cured the tetters in a child after it had spread all over the body.

WESTERN FLUORENCE.—The following extract from a speech of a Western lawyer, we find in the Wheeling Gazette. It is a capital burlesque: "The law expressly declares, gentlemen, in the beautiful language of Shakespeare, that where no doubts exist of the guilt of the prisoner, it is your duty to lean on the side of instinct and fetch him in innocent. If you keep this fact in view in the case of my client, gentlemen, you will have the honor of making a friend of him and all his relations, and you can afford to look upon this occasion, and reflect with pleasure that you did as you would have been done by; but if, on the other hand, you disregard this principle of law, and set at naught my elegant remarks, and fetch him in guilty, the silent twitches of conscience will follow you all over every fair cornfield, I reckon, and my injured and down-trodden client will be apt to light on you one of these dark nights, as my cat lights on a sasser full of new milk."

ANNEXATION.—The Baltimore Republican relates the following, which actually took place in that city, a few days since: "Well, miss—," said a Democrat to a Whig lady, "I suppose you have read both of Mr. Clay's letters on the annexation of Texas?" "Yes, I have."

"As I heard you profess yourself delighted with his first letter, what do you now say,—are you in favor of annexation?" "Personally I have no objections."

MODEST YOUNG GENTLEMAN.—A gentleman advertises in a New York paper for board in a quiet genteel family, where there are two or three beautiful and accomplished young ladies, and where his society "will be deemed a sufficient compensation for board, lodging, washing and other et ceteras."

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

The valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is well known to the public generally. That it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it has taken precedence over all others; every one that has used it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrophulous or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetters, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Psoriasis, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. The numerous testimonials from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla. Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons: In Northumberland County.—H. B. MASSER, Sunbury; Ireland & Mixel, McEwensville; D. Krauser, Milton. In Union County.—J. Gearhart, Selingsgrove; A. Gutulis, Millburg. In Columbia County.—R. W. McCay, Washington. Reading, March 14, 1843.

Mr. OAKLEY—I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power, for the benefit of their fellow men, and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I most conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcers on their faces, which broke out and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them, and had tried all the known remedies, including Swain's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers continued healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal. JOHN MOYER, Tailor, Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading.

Dr. OAKLEY—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrophulous, most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs; his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norristown, and also Dr. Isaac Heister, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles, the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sore healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who saw him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate, that others who have the affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine. Yours truly, AMELIA D. LEAF. ROSE OINTMENT, FOR TETTER.

RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS. The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application. PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838. FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with TETTER on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking several remedies, including a number of bottles of Swain's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has not returned nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arms,) who were all cured by it. JAMES DUNNELL, No. 136, Race St. The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. VAUGHAN, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent. May 14th, 1843. Rose Ointment, for Tetters. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY. PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839. THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetters in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. RICHARD SAVAGE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street. The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. VAUGHAN, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent. May 14th, 1843. MEDICAL APPROBATION. OF THE ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetters. ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation above all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Brough, having found in this remedy that relief for a serious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to secret Remedies. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836. I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, instead of my trying his preparation, of which he had heard me say. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discountenance and disapprove of the numerous nostrums palmed upon the public to amuse or to trick, I feel no reserve bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation, as it entirely cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications. DANIEL BAUGH, M. D. The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. VAUGHAN, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent. May 14th, 1843.
