

A "Werry" Sad Lamentation.

We cut the following from the Knickerbocker. It is good for a laugh at any rate. The last stanza we think especially rich:

"It is not that she bade me go,
And said I'd better stop my calling,
It is not that she answered, "No,"
As loud as could be—short of bawling;
It was not that she slammed the door,
And set her nasty lap-dog on me;
Oh, no: a greater, keener grief
Weighs down my heart and preys upon me.
I cannot bear to see her go
And promenade with other fellows;
I cannot bear to see her walk
On rainy days 'neath their umbrellas;
To see such things a-going on,
Excites my virtuous indignation;
It makes me swear, as one might say,
In vulgar phrase, "like all creation."
To see her seated in a chair,
With half a dozen fops about her;
And hear that fool AUGUSTUS swear
He "can't exist a day without her!"
'Tis this which makes my withered hopes
Fall thick and fast like leaves in Autumn,
And causes my poor heart to beat
Like a young bear's when dogs have caught him.

What if her father is the Squire,
And I'm a briefless-lawyer-devil?
She need not cut me in the street—
It would not hurt her to be civil.
But ah! my heart-strings are a lute
On which her hand unfeeling lingers;
Well be it so: the tune is sad,
But then 'tis played by Beauty's fingers.
Enough! enough! I've lost the maid:
My mind is bordering on distraction;
Yes, yes—I'll leave this classic shade,
And seek a wider field of action:
For in the distant Texan land,
In war's proud ranks I'll seek for glory,
And then perhaps in later years
My name will sound in verse and story.
And if, oh cruel MARIANNE!
You hear them tell about "a stranger
Who wore the 'lone star', on his crest
And never cared a cent for danger,"
Perhaps you'll proudly look around,
And with a sigh of sympathy
Exclaim to all your wondering friends,
"That brave young man once courted me."

A Novel Love Chase.

The Portland papers, tell of a remarkable instance of the truth of the apothegm, that "the course of true love never did run smooth." It seems that a stranger arrived at Portland, Me., a little while ago, and in the course of itinerancy in the prosecution of his business, fell in with a pretty experienced girl and after a few interviews promised her marriage, and they were to start for Boston in the afternoon train, to have the knot tied. In the meantime, the mother-in-law of the girl got an inkling of what was going on, and she also appeared at the depot, to restrain her roving daughter from throwing herself in the arms of a comparative stranger.

"The second act opens at the depot, with the train about to start. The mother had entered the cars, and confronting her daughter and her lover, by turns entreats the one to return home with her, and upbraids the other for stealing away an old woman's daughter." The daughter would not heed her entreaties and tears. The lover was cold and indifferent to her threats. The passengers' feelings were manifestly on the side of the mother—but her appeals could not draw her daughter out of the cars. Meanwhile time flew, and the moment of departure came. The mother was still beseeching—the daughter pouting—the lover frowning—when dame fortune for once helped the matron and disappointment the maid. The conductor inquired if the girl had a ticket?—She had not—and as the rule required passengers to be so provided, she was advised to step to the office and obtain one. She stepped out—and the scene being now quite exciting some of the passengers happened to be very much in the way of the lover, and he could not get out so easily. Finding his egress thro' the door strangely prevented, he rushed to the window and with a three dollar bill between his fingers, endeavored to convey it to her. She was evidently leaving home, in this man's company, without money. But he could not reach her.—Here was a situation! The girl without, with no means to purchase her ticket; the fellow within, unable to get out—and every body laughing at him.

It is an old proverb, time and tide wait for no man—neither does the mail train—nor for women either. At this moment the starting time arrived, the bell tolled, the engineer let on the steam—the fireman grinned—the spectators laughed—and off went the train with the itinerant, but without his victim. Then it was that the force of the girl's love broke forth. When she saw the gap every moment widening between them, she could endure the thought no longer—but set off with frantic speed in full chase after the cars. Some shouted, some opened wide their eyes, some unfeelingly cried "put on more steam, my dear," a few pitied the poor girl. She soon found that her speed, even when impelled by love, was not equal to the mail train.

ARTICLES NOT AT THE FAIR.—New inventions.

A machine for paying every body's debts, also squares accounts, and strikes the balance in an instant. Looks like a horse pistol.
A patent for making tight boots foot easy. The modus operandi of this very desirable receipt, is giving them to somebody with smaller feet.—Noah's Times.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the most confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetters, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fistula, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. The numerous cures in the possession of the subscribers and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.

Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons:
In Northumberland County.—H. B. MASSER, Sunbury; Ireland & Moxel, McEwensville; D. Kraus, Milton.
In Union County.—J. Gearhart, Selingsgrove; A. Gutlin, Millburg.
In Columbia County.—R. W. McCay, Washington.
Reading, March 14, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY:—I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power, for the benefit of their fellow-men, and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I am at conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcerous sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them and had tried all the known remedies, including Swaim's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make a trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed unintermittently ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal.

JOHN MOYER, Tailor,
Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading.

DOUGLASSVILLE, April 19th, 1843.
MR. OAKLEY:—My son, Edmund Leaf, had the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norristown, and also Dr. Isaac Hyster, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, which I obtained several bottles, the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sores healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed unintermittently ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who see him doing his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have a like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine.

Yours truly,
AMELIA D. LEAF.

Counterfeiters' DEATH BLOW.
The public will please observe that no Brandreth Pills are genuine, unless the box has three labels upon it, (the top, the side and the bottom) each containing a fac-simile signature of my handwriting, thus—B. ROSE OINTMENT, FOR TETTER.

RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS.
The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application.

PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.
I WAS twenty years I was severely afflicted with TETTER on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst; the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swaim's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were all cured by it.

JAMES DURNELL, No. 156, Race St. The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, May 14th, 1843.

Rose Ointment, for Tetter. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839.
THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetter in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications, without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which there has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. RICHARD SAVAGE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, May 14th, 1843.

MEDICAL APPROBATION OF THE ROSE OINTMENT, FOR TETTER.

ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation above all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Baugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to secret Remedies.
PHILADELPHIA, Sep. 19, 1836.
I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, insisted on my trying his preparation, of which he handed me a jar. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discountenance and disapprove of the numerous nostrums palmed upon the public by ignorant pretenders, I feel in justice bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation, as it entirely cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications. DANIEL BAUGH, M. D.
The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, May 14th, 1843.

MERCHANTS' HOUSE.

No. 237, North Third, above Callowhill St., PHILADELPHIA.
JOHN DUNNAN, late from the Pennsylvania Farmer, and Samuel Pike, Jr. late of American Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, take pleasure in acquainting their friends and the public generally that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel, recently built by the Messrs. Hart, on the same site once occupied by the old established Hotel known as the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhill st.
This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants; the arrangements for heating and ventilating each room is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all furnished in a neat style, so as to insure comfort. The receiving parlors are also furnished in a superb style, the windows are on the French style, forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which, with the furniture, are entirely new. From years' experience in hotel business, we trust, by strict assiduity to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best our market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors and wines of the most approved brands. P. S. There is first rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and sober hostlers, and our charges will be low, in accordance with the present hard times.
