Democratic Review. Greatly Reduced Price—From 85 to 83 per Annum.—Single copy 25 cents.

PROSPECTS OF THE NEXT, OR 17th VOLUME. THE PRICE OF THE DEMOCRATIC REVIEW has heretofore been too high—not for the size, cost and character, but for the means of tens of thousands of readers who would be glad to receive it, and among whom it is highly desirable that it should circulate. For the purpose, therefore, of multiplying the number of those to whom it may be accessible it has been determined, simultaneously with the great reduction in the expense of the postage, to reduce its subscription price also, from FIVE to only THREE dollars; and when several copies in subscription, to as low as $2.50, or even $2.30 per annum.

This very large reduction in the receipts (accompanied with but a comparatively small diminution of its expense) involves, of course, an entire sacrifice of profit upon it, unless compensated by a vast multiplication of subscribers.—This will be the result only a small reduction in its number of pages; soon to be restored to its old number, without increasing of its cost, when the anticipated success of the experiment shall justify it.

THE PORTRAITS OF DISTINGUISHED DEMOCRATS will be continued—engraved in better and more costly style than heretofore.

THE POSTAGE will heretofore, for any distance, be only five and a half cents; it has heretofore been, for 100 miles, eighteen cents.

We look for an extension of circulation to be reckoned by tens of thousands, as the result and emanation of this great reduction of price.—Every friend of the work, and of the Democratic principle and cause, is confidently appealed to to exert himself with an active interest to procure subscribers; both to extend its usefulness, and to carry it successfully through the crisis of this great reduction of its prices.

Those who have paid in advance for the coming year, will receive it, at a reduced rate, for a year and a half.

TERMS HENCEFORWARD. (INVARIABLELY IN ADVANCE.) Single copy $3 00 | Eight copies, $20 00 Four copies 11 00 | Thirteen copies, 30 00

It will be seen that when thirteen copies are ordered at once, the price is brought down to about $2.30 each. For six months, half these rates.

These rates afford high inducements to agents and others to interest themselves to procure subscribers.

The cash system and payment in advance must be uncompromisingly adhered to. The past relaxation of it has caused an accumulation of not far from $40,000 of debts due to the work. Heretofore this must be slowly reformed, nor must either the most eminent political friends, or the most intimate personal ones, be displeased on experiencing its application, in the stoppage of their numbers, if they neglect this rule, the vital necessity of which, at the present reduced rates, must be obvious to all.

No communication will be taken from the Post office and fee of postage.

All communications, both on editorial and publishing business, must be addressed hereforward to the undersigned. Those relating to the settlement of the past debt due the work will be still addressed to Mr. H. G. LANSLEY, 8 Astor House, the post arrangements with whom, as publisher have reached their termination.

J. I. O'SULLIVAN, July, 1845, 146 Nassau street, N. York.

LAST LIKENESS OF GEN. JACKSON. The admirer's Daguerreotype of Gen. Jackson, taken by Anthony, Edwards & Co., a few weeks before his death, has been purchased for the use of the Democratic Review. It is in the hands of the artist, and will be engraved in the most beautiful and interesting work, declared by Mr. Van Buren and others to give a more perfect idea of the great and good old man than any other likeness; and ought to be possessed by every man who loves and reveres his memory.—Those who subscribe early will receive it as one of the regular series of Portraits.
