Democratic Review.

Greatly Reduced Price-From $5 to $3 per Annum .- Single copy 25 cents.

PROSPECTS OF THE MEST, OR 17TH VOLUME. THE PRICE of the DEMOCRATIC RETIEN I has heretofore been too high-not for the size, cost and character, but for the means of tens of thousands of readers who would be glad to receive it and among whom it is highly desirable that it should circulate. For the purpose, therefore, of wide tog the range of its usefulness, and of multiplying the numbers of those to whom it may be accessable it has been determined, simultaneously with the great reduction in the expense of the postage, to reduce its subscription price also, fr m FIVE to only THREE do lors; and when several unite in subscription, to as low as $2 50, or even $2 30 per annum This very large reduction in the receipts (accompanied with but a comparatively small diminution of its expense) involves, of course, an entire sicrifice of profit upon it, unless compensated by a vast multiplication of subscribers.- There will be at the outset only a small reduction in its number of pa ges; soon to be restored to its old number, without increase of price, when the anticipated success of the experiment shall justify it,

THE PORTBATTS OF DISTINGUISHED DENG. CRATS will be continued-engraved in better and more costly style than heretofare.

The Postage will bereafter, for any distance, be only fire and a half cents; it has heretofore been, for 100 miles, eighteen cents,

We look for an extension of circulation to be reckaned by tens of thousands, as the result and e mechanion of this great reduction of orier. - Every friend of the work, and of the Democratic principles and cause, is confidently appealed to to exert himself with an active interest to procure it subscribers; both to extend its usefulness, and to carry i successfully through the crisis of this great reduc-
