PROSPECTS OF THE NEXT, OR 17TH VOLUME. THE PRICE of the DESCRATIC REVIEW has heretofore been too high-not for the size, cost and character, but for the means of tens of thousands of readers who would be glad to receive it, and among whom it is highly desirable that it should circulate. For the purpose, therefore, of wile ing the range of its usefulness, and of multiplying the numbers of these to whom it may be accessable it has been determined, simultaneously with the great reduction in the expense of the post age, to reduce its subscripti in price also, fr m FIVE to only THREE do lies; and when several unite in subscription, to as low as $2 50, or even $2 30 per annum.

This very large reduction in the receipts (accompanied with but a comparatively small diminution of its expense) involves, of course, an entire sacrifice of profit upon it, unless compensated by a vast multiplication of subscribers .- The re will be at the outset only a small reduction in its number of pa ges; soon to be restored to its old number, without increase of price, when the anticipated success of

We look for an extension of circulation to be teckoned by tens of thousands, as the result and e m ensation of this great reduction of price .- Every friend of the work, and of the Democratic princiall a and cause, is confidently appealed to to exert homself with an active interest to procure it subscri hers; both to excend its usefulness, and to carry it successfully through the crisis of this great reduction of its prices.

Those who have pa d in advance for the coming year, will receive it, at a reduced rate, for a year and a half.
