

I would not live always.
BY REV. DR. MUEHLBERG.

I would not live always: I ask not to stay Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way.
The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here,
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.

I would not live always, thus fetter'd by sin, Temptation without, and corruption within;
Even the rapture of pardon is mingled with fears,
And the cup of thanksgiving with penitent tears.

I would not live always; no—welcome the tomb, Since Jesus has lain there, I read not its gloom; There sweet by my rest, till he bid me arise,
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

Who, who would live always away from his God, Away from you heaven, that blissful abode, Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns:

Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet, Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet:
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

A Strange Love Story.

Fredrika Bremer tells the following declaration of love story, which may serve to "whip up a dull moment pleasantly."

A young farmer level, at the same time, two young women, and, though strange enough loved both with the same affection, and they both of them warmly returned his passion.
But one of them showed for him an almost boundless devotion; and perhaps this might be the cause that at once, with more determined sentiment, he turned towards the other; but she answered him, "I will not be married amid the sighs of any unhappy one, and it is your duty to wed Kirstin. To me thou wilt ever remain dear, but now we must part."

What a field would there have been for the French romantic! What agony, ravings, explosions, and explications without end! Here had been sacrifices and poisonings, and at last three corpses. But how simply did the genius of the Dal people resolve this knotty point!
The young man obeyed the exhortations of the serious damsel, obeyed that duty; he married Kirstin; and, as they were both truly good and excellent people, they were happy together.

They had lived happily together for four years, and had three children, when the wife died. But as she lay on her death-bed she said to her husband, "I would ask one thing of thee, and that is, that thou, after my death, wilt marry Anna, who was once, and is still, dear to thee and that thou makest no other the mother of my children."

"The husband mourned sincerely the loss of his wife; but when the customary period of mourning had expired it was not difficult for him to endeavor to fulfill her last prayer. He went to the still unmarried, the still beloved Anna, and told her the wish of his wife; and his own.

"Thou art still as dear to me as formerly said she, and willingly would I be thy wife, but I fear for thy children. I fear that I could not be to them such a mother, that I could answer it to my conscience and to the dead, and that would make you dissatisfied with me."

And by that reply Anna stood fast, stood fast in spite of all arguments of love and reason that were employed to move her. Quite distracted came the young man, one day, to me and implored my counsel, and begged me to talk with the girl, and to endeavor to persuade her to become his wife.

"To seek to persuade her I cannot promise thee," I said, "for in so solemn an affair a woman should make a resolve in freedom; but speak to her for I will, and tell her what I think, and advise in the matter."

I sent for the young woman, talked with her of her future duties, and succeeded in pacifying her all too sensitive conscience. Soon afterwards I had the pleasure of uniting the two lovers. A few years afterwards I came on a journey into the district where they resided.
It was a dark autumn evening, and cold and dull without; but when I entered their room, the fire blazed cheerily, and in its light on the floor played four children, full of pleasure. husband and wife arose to meet the enterer, but when they recognized me again they became deeply moved and began to weep.

"Ask her, ask her," said the husband, and pointed to the wife, "whether she be not satisfied with me!" But I did not ask her—I saw warm and happy tears already speaking.

Portrait of the Assistant Editor.—It chanced, during the late Summer, that a country Editor fell ill of a fever. The fact was announced to his readers, along with the notice, to the effect, that during his indisposition the editorial management would be confined to an assistant. Well, it turned out that the assistant contrived to please the readers of the journal better than the chief himself, and they demanded his name. The convenient editor informed them it would be impossible for him to divulge the name of his aid-de-camp, but that he would, in the next number of the "Squatter's Thunderbolt and Settler's Family Guide," present his patrons with a correct portrait of the assistant. Expectation balanced itself on tiptoe for a week, and when the anxiously looked-for guide appeared at last, lo! and behold! at the head of the editorial column appeared a full length engraving of a portly pair of scissors.
Underneath were printed, in staring capitals—
"Correct Portrait of the Assistant Editor—from life."

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

A Compound Balsamic Preparation from Wild Cherry Bark and Tar, The best remedy known to the world for the cure of coughs, colds, asthma, croup, bleeding of the lungs, whooping cough, bronchitis, influenza, shortness of breath, pain and weakness in the breast or side, liver complaint, and the first stages of CONSUMPTION.

We will not assert that this BALSAM will cure Consumption in its worst form but it has cured many after all other means of relief had been tried in vain.—And why not? It seems that the WILD CHERRY was destined by Nature to be our PA-NACEA for the ravaging diseases of this e. l. l. l.
Let not the despairing invalid waste his money and lose TIME, to him as all important, in experimenting with the trashy nostrums of the day, but use at once a medicine that will cure, if a cure be possible—a medicine that science approves, and many years of experience have demonstrated that it always relieves.

"There is no such thing as a fall" in the history of this wonderful BALSAM. Evidence the most convincing—evidence that no one can doubt, fully establishes this fact. For the sake of brevity we select the following from thousands.
Issue Price, Esq., Editor of the P. & M. Eagle, one of the most influential journals in the State of New York, writes under the authority of his own name, that a young lady, a relative of his, of very delicate constitution, was attacked in Feb. 1842 with severe cold, which immediately produced spitting of blood, cough, fever, and other dangerous symptoms. Through medical treatment and rest she partially recovered during summer, but on the return of winter she was attacked more violently than at first, she became scarcely able to walk and was troubled with cough, chills and fever every day, and appeared to be going rapidly with consumption; at this time, when there was no sign of improvement, Mr. Platt procured a bottle of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, which she took, and it seemingly restored her. She recovered, and before it was half taken she was restored to perfect health, which she has enjoyed to the present time, without the slightest symptom of her former illness.
Mr. Platt says: "I can not under my own observation and I cannot be mistaken as to the facts."

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM A POST MASTER DATED

PHILADELPHIA, Washington Co., Maine, Apr. 29, 1844.
MR. ISAAC BUTTS.—Dear Sir: At the request of many of my friends in this place and vicinity who are afflicted with consumption and liver complaints, I take the liberty of asking you to appoint some one in this county as agent to sell WIS-TAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and to send him a few dozen as there is none of it for sale within 200 miles from this. I have no doubt that it would sell with a ready sale if it were where it could be procured without too much expense and delay.
My wife was attacked about six months since with what the physicians called the first stage of consumption—a complaint very prevalent in this section of country. Having seen the Balsam advertised in August.

200 MILES FROM HERE.

I took the pains to send there for a bottle of it, which she took, and which helped her so much that I sent for two bottles more, which she has also taken, and she now says she has not felt so well for six years as she does at this time. All those who have inquired of me and associated what effect the Balsam had, are anxious to have some for sale in this vicinity, which is the cause of my writing you.
Please inform me by return of mail whether you conclude to send some, and if so, to whom, in order that I may be known where it can be had.
I am with respect yours, etc.

P. G. FARNSWORTH, P. M.

The whole country is fast learning that a medicine—no physician's preparation of any kind whatsoever—can equal DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

A TRULY WONDERFUL CURE.

WATERVILLE, Orono Co., N. Y., Sept. 15, 1843.
Dear Sir:—I owe it to the afflicted to inform you that in January last I was attacked by a very violent cold, caused by working in the water, which settled on my lungs. It was accompanied by a very severe pain in my breast and sides, and also a dreadful cough. I had in attendance all the best medical aid in our village; but after exhausting all their skill to no avail, they pronounced my disease a consumption, and I was told that I should not live more than a few weeks. After much persuasion I got the consent of my physician to use the BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY prepared by Dr. Wistar. I purchased the Agent in our place one bottle, before using half of which I began to gain strength, and it was very evident my cough was much better and my symptoms in every way improving. I have now used three bottles, and am restored to perfect health. This result of not owing to the use of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and I take this method of giving you the information, partly to pay you the debt of gratitude I owe you, and partly that others similarly afflicted may know where to apply for relief.

Very truly yours, JAMES SAGE.

Mr. P. M. Farnsworth, District, under date of Waterville, Sept. 24th, 1843, writes: The statement given you by Mr. James Sage is well known to be true by the whole community.
I can only say it was a most remarkable cure. The sale of the Balsam is very good, and its success in curing truly flattering. Yours respectfully, D. B. PALMER.

THE MOST REMARKABLE CURE EVER RECORDED.

HARDENBURG, N. J., April 20, 1843.
On or about the 12th day of Decr. 1841, I was taken with a violent pain in the side near the liver, which continued for about five days, and was followed by the breaking of an ulcer, or abscess, inwardly, which relieved the pain a little, but caused me to throw up a great quantity of offensive matter and also much blood. Being greatly alarmed at this, I applied to a physician, but he said he thought he could do but little for me except give me some Mercurial Pills, which I refused to take, feeling satisfied that they could do me no good; and my other remedies were then procured by my wife and friends, but none did me any good—and the discharge of blood and corruption still continued every day, and at last became so offensive that I could scarcely breathe. I was also seized with a violent cough, which at times caused me to raise much more blood than I had done before—and my disease continued in this way, still growing worse, until February, when all hope of my recovery was given up, and my friends all thought I would die of a GALLING CONSUMPTION. At this moment, when my life was apparently drawing near its close, I heard of DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and got a bottle which I received immediately; and by the use of only three bottles of this medicine, all my pains were removed—my cough and spitting of blood and corruption entirely stopped, and in a few weeks my health was so far restored as to enable me to work at my trade, (which is a carpenter's), and up to this time I have enjoyed good health.
THOMAS COZENS.

PERSONALLY came before me, the subscriber, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for the said county, Thomas Cozens, and being duly affirmed according to law, with the above statement in all things true.
J. C. GIBNEY, J. P.
Such is the unprecedented success of this BAL-SAM.
"NATURE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION," a prescription congenial to our wants, as it is prepared from chemical extracts from substances which the author of nature has placed in our own land for wise purposes, that many who know nothing of the mode of its preparation are endeavoring to obtain secondary benefits by selling an article similar in name, in appearance, or in representing their own trash as superior to this BALSAM, or by preparing a mixture and a demerol's asserting that it is superior to a foreign country, which is not the case. All these deceptive arts go to show that WISTAR'S BALSAM is known to the world to be "THE GREAT REMEDY" and that to sell any mixture must be like this in name, or purport to be like it in substance.
Believe not the cunningly wrought fabrica-tions—and take only the original and genuine WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the most confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care, containing nothing deleterious but being composed of the most mild yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrophulous or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fistula, Chronic Cough, Asthma, &c. The innumerable certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.

NO OTHER CAN BE LIKE IT.

Cantrell's Ague Mixture, or Tonic Medicament.

For the cure of all Bilious affections, if taken according to directions.
It is a never failing remedy which no family ought to be without, especially in low malarial countries.
As this medicine is put up under the proprie-tor's immediate inspection on the most scientific principles, being Purely Vegetable, and having proved its efficacy on thousands, for upwards of 12 years, and to his knowledge when taken strictly according to directions, there has not been one failure, under such circumstances I recommend it to the public, adding a certificate in support of my assertion.
I, John Burns, do certify that I was in the ship Fabrica Plant of Philadelphia, Capt. Reed, on June, 1827, bound to Liverpool, took the fever and ague and laid in Liverpool some time under the doctor's hands, went from there to Baltimore, lay in the Infirmary for four or five weeks—from thence to Philadelphia, was six months under Dr.
Coats, from thence to New York—went to the Hospital, remained there about four weeks without any relief, and then returned to Philadelphia, where I remained a few days, and then returned to Philadelphia, where I went to Dr. Stone, told him I was afflicted, and got a bottle of his mixture and used it according to directions. It made a perfect cure, and I have not had the least return since.
I do with confidence recommend it to the public.
JOHN BURNS.

Medicated Syrup of Sarsaparilla.

Philadelphia, April 10th, 1844.
Mr. JOHN A. CANTRELL,
Dear Sir,—Having been afflicted for upward of two years with ulceration of the throat, destroying the whole of his soft palate, then through the upper part of my mouth into my nose, from which several pieces of bone came out, which partially destroyed my speech, through a kind Providence and your Medicated Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I am now restored to perfect health, and my sight, which was so much impaired, is as strong as when I was afflicted. I thought it a duty I owed to you and those similarly afflicted to do, to make it public.
Yours, R. Speer fully,

ROSE OINTMENT FOR TETTER.

RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS.
The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application.
PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.
FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with Tetter on the Face and Head; the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many directions, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking internal remedies, including a number of bottles of Swain's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used.
I was also under the care of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used it a fortnight was entirely cured. It has not been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm), who were all cured by it.

since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed
by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe
in a certificate the severity of the disease and my
suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller
account to any person wanting further satisfaction,
who will call on me. At the time I commenced
using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm), who were all cured by it.

ROSE Ointment, for Tetter.

A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839.

I wish to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetter in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many specifics without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which effectually stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which has not returned, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. RICHARD SAVAGE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street.

MEDICAL APPOINTMENT

OF THE ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetter.

ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation of the Rose Ointment is fully established, the pre-parators take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr.
Baugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to accept of it.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1837.
I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, insisted on my trying his preparation, of which he had made me a jar. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discountenance and disapprove of the numerous nostrums palmed upon the public by ignorant pretenses, I feel in justice bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation, as it effectually cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications. DANIEL BAUGH, M. D.

DEATH BLOW.

THE public will please observe that no Brandreth Pills are genuine, unless the box has three locks upon it, (the top, the side and the bottom) each containing a fac-simile signature of my handwriting, thus—B. BRANDRETH, M. D.—These labels are engraved on steel, beautifully designed, and bear an expense of over $2,000.—Therefore it will be seen that the only thing necessary to prepare the medicine in its purity, is to observe these labels.

Remember the top, the side, and the bottom.
The following respective persons are duly authorized, and hold
