

A Post Master General in Disgrace.
BY SOL. SMITH.

On my way to the North, in 1835, in company with several gentlemen from New Orleans, I happened that the stage in which we were passengers, stopped for supper at a small village, situated between the towns of Columbus and Zanesville, on the Columbus road, in the State of Ohio.

There was a grand gathering of militia Captains, Lieutenants, Ensigns, Sergeants, and Corporals, with a considerable sprinkling of privates, all of whom had been exhibiting their patriotism during the day, by marching up and down the town shouldering arms, carrying flags, and charging bayonets, preparatory to intended hostile operations against the neighboring State of Michigan, the authorities of which and those of the Ohio, were at open war—almost—about landward.

For the purpose of amusement, it had been agreed that the stage-driver should be informed, confidentially, that I was ALEX. KENDALL, Post Master General of the United States, traveling in disguise, and assuming the very common name of Smith, in order to discover abuses in the transporting department. With many mysterious hints, and under strict charges of secrecy, John was made acquainted with the awful fact, that he was actually driving the important individual above named. The reins all most fell from his hands! "What, Mr. Kindle! Alex. Kendall!" exclaimed the astonished driver—"it can't be possible!" "It is possible," answered the gentleman who was imparting the information, and who was enjoying an outside seat; "and it is his wish to be entirely private, in order to avoid the attentions that would otherwise be lavished upon him." The driver promised the most inviolable secrecy, and proceeded to carry down his horses.

We had not been long in the hotel where our supper was being prepared, before it was plainly perceptible that something was going on; curious glances were thrown into the bar room where we were sitting—militia officers flirted about or collected in groups—the landlord and his family began to snoop upon in brief, it was evident our secret had been confidentially imparted to half the village.

The first demonstration that was made, consisted of an invitation to my friends and myself to accept the use of a private parlor. This being at once agreed to, the landlord ventured to suggest, if not disagreeable to me, my fellow-citizens of the village would like to pay their respects to me, and take me by the hand.

"No objections in the world," said I, "let the worthy citizens come in." Then followed a scene of the richest kind of fun—but Dickens has described a similar adventure, and I pass on.

Supper announced. I was placed at the head of the table—the richest viands and preserved fruits were set in profusion before us. We tasted! and during the operation numerous female heads—or, rather, heads of females—were continually popping in at the windows and open doors, while the piazza was filled with boys of all sizes, who amused themselves by firing off Chinese crackers, sending up young rockets, and shouting "Hurrah for Jackson!"—and his cabinet!

Supper was over, we retired to the bar, and demanded our bill of expenses. The landlord smilingly answered, that he was too happy to entertain us without compensation—he felt honored by my sitting at his board, and my friends were equally welcome. After much arguing, I consented to receive his hospitality gratuitously, since he insisted on it, but my friends, I would not consent that they should feast at his expense—oh, no!—They must be allowed to pay for their splendid supper. Well, if I insisted, he would take pay from them—and he did.

"Could I say two or three words to you in private?" asked my landlord, in a low voice, as he walked by my side to the coach, which was waiting.

"By all means," I replied; and he led me a little to one side, into a dark part of the piazza. After two or three hints, I to clear his throat, the landlord commenced:

"Whatever others may think of you, sir, I consider you an honest man."

"Sir, I feel very much obliged by the favorable estimate you have formed of me."

"Yes, sir, let the opposition say what they please, I believe you to be a conscientious individual—I do."

"Well, sir, considering this is the first time we have ever met, I must say your liberality is extraordinary; but I thank you for your good opinion."

HERR'S HOTEL, HARRISBURG, PA.

I BEG leave to inform the public that I have left Philadelphia, and am now located in Harrisburg, the seat of the Executive and State Government of Pennsylvania, where I now occupy the spacious Hotel, recently kept by Mr. Matthew Wilson.

This spacious building, having been purposely planned and erected for a Hotel of the first class, is not surpassed if equalled, by any similar establishment in Pennsylvania; and having undergone a thorough renovation, the parlors, rooms and chambers are now fitted up in a style that combines elegance with comfort and convenience.

My TABLE is pledged to be supplied with the best fare the Markets can produce; the charges at the same time being as moderate as any of the best regulated establishments elsewhere. In short, no exertion shall be spared on my part, or on the part of every member of my household, to make it what it should be, in the Capital of one of the most populous and interesting States of the Union.

With these promises, accommodations and facilities, and the fact that the Hotel is most eligibly situated, I with confidence, most respectfully solicit the patronage of the Public.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicated any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetters, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Piles, Chronic Cough, Asthma, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.

Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th Street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons:

- In Northumberland County.—H. B. Masser, Sunbury; Ireland & Mize, McEwensville; D. Krauer, Milton.
- In Union County.—J. Gearhart, Selingsgrove; A. Gutelin, Millburg.
- In Columbia County.—R. W. McCay, Washington.

Reading, March 14, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—I believe, that the utility of every one to do whatever in their power, for the benefit of their fellow men, and having had positive proof in my own family of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I most conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcerous sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them, and had tried all the known remedies, including Swain's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, but face and neck was completely covered, the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal.

JOHN MOYER, Tailor, Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading. Douglassville, April 19th, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norristown, and also Dr. Isaac Hoister, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles. The use of which did indeed entirely out of his system, without avail. Another of my children was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who see him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine. Yours truly, AMELIA D. LEAF.

ROSE OINTMENT FOR TETTER.

RISORROW, CHIEF OF THE FACE, AND OTHER UNDESIRABLE ERUPTIONS.

"The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any Ointment."

PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.

FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with Tetters on the Face and Head: the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swellings was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swain's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis). In a few applications the violent itching ceased; the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were all cured by it.

JAMES DURNELL, No. 156, Race St. The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent. May 14th, 1843.

Rose Ointment, for Tetters. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839.

THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetters in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which there has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years. RICHARD SAUVAE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent. May 14th, 1843.

MEDICAL APPROBATION OF THE ROSE OINTMENT, FOR TETTER.

ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation over all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. BAUGH, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to such Remedies.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836.

I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, insisted on my trying his preparation, of which he handed me a jar. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discountenance and disapprove of the numerous nostrums palmed upon the public by ignorant pretenders, I feel in justice bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation, as it entirely cured the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications. DANIEL BAUGH, M. D.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent. May 14th, 1843.
