

Spoon Fashion:
BY FREDRICK MARYLAND.

'Talking of peculiar situations, gentlemen,' said Mr. Tatem, 'I was once in rather a singular fix myself.'

'How so—how was that?' said we.

'I will tell you. Sagars and myself had gone to Cape May, that favorite resort of fashion and folly, during one of the hottest seasons ever got up on this continent. It was intensely hot! I perspire intensely when I think of it! Have you ever been at Cape Island, gentlemen?'

A general negative shake of the head followed the question.

'Then permit me, as a friend and well-wisher, to warn you against the place. A more uninviting resort is not to be found. I have good authority for stating that it is the only unfinished portion of creation. They have a legend down there which runs thus:—The hands were at work on this spot at the tail of the sixth day, but night overtaking them, they were compelled to suspend operations, and thus the island was left incomplete! To those who are familiar with the locality, this is certainly a plausible story. I have more than once heard it called the 'jumping off place.' Sunshine and sand kneed-deep are the strongest inducements to pay a second visit. To be sure, they say something about the advantages of sea-bathing—but look at the risk. If you venture beyond your nose, the 'under-tow' carries you out, death by drowning is inevitable. After which follow 'grappling irons,' and the indignity of a coroner's inquest!—The spot is distinguished, by a half dozen stunted trees, two or three apologies for hotels, and three or four cabins painted red.'

'But the story, Mr. Tatem—the story.'

'All in good time, gentlemen. I said Sagars and myself were foolish enough to go down. Some two or three thousand people were there when we arrived, and every nook and corner was 'jam-full.' After repeated solicitation, we finally succeeded in getting a small room with the privilege of sleeping two in a bed. The thermometer at 90 and two in a bed! The thought is a warm bath of itself!'

'Don't descend to particulars, but give us the story.'

'Certainly. In the room adjoining ours, slept two beautiful girls—sisters—who, for reasons best known to myself, shall be nameless. One night, about a week after our arrival, I had gone early to bed, not wishing to participate in any of the abominable 'hops' that were given at our hotel.'

'Pooh pooh! it's a ghost story,' said Nathan.

'No, gentlemen.'

'Then you were ducked with cold water,' remarked Mr. Blanchard.

'Wrong again! Although a cold bath would have been acceptable at the moment. I had been asleep for some time when I was awakened by the most musical voice imaginable, which said—

'Kate, suppose we lay spoon fashion!'

'Lay how?' inquired I.

'Gracious heavens! where am I?' ejaculated my unknown bedfellow, jumping three feet from the bed; and she (for it was a woman) would have jumped further, but want of room permitted no striking display of agility. Here was a situation for a modest man! Before I could say 'angels and ministers of grace defend us,' she had gathered up her 'dry goods' and made good her retreat from the room. I am not a coward, gentlemen—yet, I am free to confess that my nerves were slightly agitated. Who can she be? What can she have wanted here? Were questions that I could not answer. Had I been a believer in ghosts, I should probably have gone down to the grave with the conviction indelibly impressed upon my mind that I had actually been in bed with one of the long faced gentry!'

'Well, what took place then? Who was she?'

'Be patient, you shall know everything. The two young ladies before mentioned sat opposite to me at the table. I had a very faint suspicion that one of them was a party to the transaction, and in order to remove all doubt, the next morning at breakfast, I enquired:—

'Miss B. shall I help you to a little omelet?'

'If you please, sir.'

'Will you have it spoon fashion?' said I, carelessly.

The deep blush that mantled her handsome face told more plainly than words that she was my ghost of the preceding night. Having gone up without a light, she had mistaken my room for her own, and but for the 'spoon fashion' arrangement, Sagars would have probably discovered us in bed together. I am happy to add, gentlemen, that the affair had a pleasant denouement. Miss B. and myself are now engaged to be married. When the ceremony takes place you shall be present, and if you don't pronounce her the loveliest and most accomplished of her sex, then I will unhesitatingly admit that there is romance in the phrase 'spoon fashion.'

An Irishman being asked whether he did not frequently converse with a friend in Irish, replied, 'No, indeed; Jenny often speaks to me in Irish, but I always answer her in English.' Why so? 'Because you see, I don't want Jenny to know that I understand Irish!'

NOT PARTICULAR.—A chap from the country, stopping at one of the hotels, being asked by the waiter whether he would have green or black tea, replied, 'he didn't care a darn what color it was, so it had plenty of sweeten in it.'

Go to strangers for charity, to acquaintances for advice, and to relatives for nothing; and you will always have a supply.

HERR'S HOTEL, HARRISBURG, PA.

I beg leave to inform the public that I have left Philadelphia, and am now located in Harrisburg, the seat of the Executive and State Government of Pennsylvania, where I now occupy the spacious Hotel, recently kept by Mr. Matthew Wilson.

This spacious building, having been purposely planned and erected for a Hotel of the first class, is not surpassed if equaled, by any similar establishment in Pennsylvania; and having undergone a thorough renovation, the parlors, rooms and chambers are now fitted up in a style that combines elegance with comfort and convenience.

My TABLE is pledged to be supplied with the best fare the Markets can produce: the charges at the same time being as moderate as any of the best regulated establishments elsewhere. In short, no excursions shall be spared on my part, or on the part of every member of my household, to make it what it should be, in the Capital of one of the most populous and interesting States of the Union.

With these promises, accommodations and facilities, and the fact that the Hotel is most eligibly situated, I with confidence, most respectfully solicit the patronage of the Public.

DANIEL HERR,
Late of Herr's Hotel, Chestnut st., Philad.
Harrisburg, Nov. 22, 1845.

THOMSON'S Compound Syrup of Tar & Wood Naphtha.

THE unprecedented success of this medicine, in the restoration of health, to those who, in desponding, had given up all hopes, has given it an exalted reputation above all other remedies, furnishing evidence of its intrinsic value and power, as the only agent which can be relied upon for the cure of Pulmonary Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Pain in the side and Breast, Spitting of Blood, Whooping Cough, Croup, &c.

Attention is requested to the following ASTONISHING CURE, by Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naphtha!

Philadelphia, May 3d, 1844.

MR. THOMSON—Dear Sir—With grateful feelings I inform you of the astonishing effects of your medicine, which has literally raised me from a death-bed! My disease, Pulmonary Consumption, had reduced me so low that my physician pronounced my case hopeless! At this juncture I began to use your medicine, and miraculous as it may seem, it has completely restored me to health, after everything else had failed. Respectfully yours,

WASHINGTON MACK.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care; containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is offered with confidence, as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Fistula, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.

Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons:

In Northumberland County—H. B. Masser, Sunbury; Ireland & Mixel, McEwenville; D. Krauser, Milton.

In Union County—J. Gearhart, Seisingrove; A. Gutelius, Millinburg.

In Columbia County—R. W. McCay, Washington.

Reading, March 14, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power, for the benefit of their fellow man, and having had positive proof in my own family of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I most conscientiously recommend it to the afflicted. We had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcers sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians attend them, and had tried all the known remedies, including Swain's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal.

JOHN MOYER, Tailor,
Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading.

Douglasville, April 19th, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, his head and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Norristown, and also Dr. Isaac Hiestor, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, which I obtained several bottles, the use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sores healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who see him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine.

Yours truly,
AMELIA D. LEAF.

ROSE OINTMENT FOR TETTER.

WORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS.

The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application.

PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.

FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with Tetters on the Face and Head: the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1836, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swain's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. in fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wanting further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were all cured by it.

JAMES DURNELL, No. 156, Race St.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent, May 14th, 1843.

Rose Ointment, for Tetters. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1839.

THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetters in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which there has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years.

RICHARD SAVAGE, Eleventh, below Spruce Street.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race Streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent, May 14th, 1843.

MEDICAL APPROBATION

OF THE ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetters.

ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation above all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. BAUGH, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to secret Remedies.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836.

I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, insisted on my trying his preparation, of which he handed me a jar. Although in common with the members of my profession, I discountenance and disapprove of the numerous nostrums palmed upon the public by ignorant pretenders, I feel in justice bound to except the Rose Ointment from that class of medicines, and to give it my approbation as a certain cure of the eruption, although it had resisted the usual applications. DANL. BAUGH, M. D.

The Rose Ointment is prepared by E. B. Vaughan, South East corner of Third and Race Streets, Philadelphia, and sold on agency in Sunbury, by H. B. MASSER, Agent, May 14th, 1843.

WM. HEILMAN & CO., Commission & Forwarding Merchants, Foot of Willow Street Rail Road, ON THE DELAWARE, associated with them Joseph Barnett, HAVING connected with them Joseph Barnett, late of Easton, Pa., respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they have taken a large and well known store and wharf at foot of Willow Street Railroad, lately occupied by Jacob Martin, where they purpose doing a General Commission and Forwarding Business, and from the local advantages of the place being connected with all the public improvements that have their outlet in the city, they flatter themselves they will be able to do business to as great, if not greater advantage, and upon as reasonable terms as any other house, and they assure their friends that any consignments made to them shall have their strict attention, and no exertions spared to give entire satisfaction. They are also prepared to receive and forward goods to any point on the Delaware and Lehigh rivers, between Marsh Chunk, Easton and Lehigh, via Delaware Division and Lehigh Canals, also to any point on the Juniata river, or North and West Branches of the Susquehanna via Schuylkill and Union, or the Chesapeake and Tide Water Canals. For the accommodation of Boats coming or going via Schuylkill and Union Canals, a Steamboat will be kept expressly for towing boats from the Schuylkill around to the Delaware and back, which will enable merchants to have their produce delivered on the Delaware, and their goods shipped at a saving of 50 to 75 per cent. on the prices for hauling across,—with these advantages they respectfully solicit a share of patronage. W. HEILMAN & CO., William Heilman, } William W. Keyser, } Philad., May 14, 1843.—1y Joseph Barnett, } J. MAYLAND, JR. & CO. Snuff and Tobacco Manufacturers, No. 99 North West corner of Race and Third Streets, PHILADELPHIA. THE undersigned have formed a Co-partnership under the firm of J. MAYLAND, JR. & Co., as successors to the late firm of Jacob Mayland & Co., and will continue the business at the old establishment, on their own account. In addition to their own close attention and experience for many years, in the manufacture of their celebrated snuff, &c., the long experience of the senior partner of the late firm, will also be devoted to the interest of the new concern—and as no exertion and care will be spared to insure their goods, at all times of the very best quality, they solicit a continuance of the confidence of the friends and customers of the late firm. Plaster and Salt for sale, at the lowest market price. March 19, 1843. No. 19 South Wharves. MERCHANTS' HOUSE, No. 237, North Third, above Callowhill St., PHILADELPHIA. JOHN DUNCAN, late from the Pennsylvania Farmer, and Samuel Pike, jr., late of a American Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, take pleasure in acquainting their friends and the public generally that they have taken the large and commodious Hotel recently built by the Messrs. Hart, on the same site occupied by the old established Hotel known as the Bull's Head, in Third street above Callowhill st. This Hotel is finished in the very best possible manner, and of the best materials. Its location is very desirable, particularly for country merchants the arrangements for heating and ventilating each room is such as to secure any temperature. The bedrooms are all light and airy, all furnished in neat style, so as to insure comfort. The receiving parlors are also furnished in a superior style, the windows are on the French style forming an entrance to a balcony in front, which makes a pleasant recess. Particular attention has been given to the beds and bedding, which, with the furniture, are entirely new. From years' experience in hotel business, we trust, by strict attention to business, to make this house a desirable stopping place. Our table will always be supplied with the very best of our market can afford, and our bar with the best liquors as wines of the most approved brands. P. S. There are first rate stabling and carriage houses attached to the hotel, attended by careful and sober hostlers, and our charges will be low, in accordance with the present hard times. Philadelphia
