

ERIE EXTENSION CANAL.—This Canal (says the Erie Gazette) is now in full tide of successful operation. Heavy amounts of groceries, glass and glassware, and other Pittsburg manufactured articles, have been carried from Pittsburg to Erie, to be there transhipped to various points on the lakes. From the auspicious commencement, we should judge that a brisk trade will be carried on this season. It further says—

"An enterprising iron master from the Chenango Valley informs us that there are now in progress of erection fourteen new furnaces in Mercer County alone, the whole of which number are upon or near the Extension Canal, which affords them the means of cheaply handling their raw material. This gentleman assures us that one thousand miners are now wanted to mine iron ore and coal in the Valley of Chenango, as it is impossible, he says, without the addition of that number, to stock the works and keep them in operation. Men that have some experience, in mining are greatly to be preferred, yet all others can be sure of employment, and in a region proverbial for its healthfulness. Verily, this Extension Canal, which has for a long time been the source of hope and the butt of ridicule, is revolutionizing the counties through which it passes."

A LAWYER SENTENCED in the U. S. District Court, sitting at Baltimore on Saturday. In this Court, the sentence was pronounced on E. P. King, a lawyer convicted of attempting to defraud the U. S. Treasury Department, at Washington. Judge Heath reviewed the transaction, setting forth to the prisoner the enormity of his offence, and concluded by sentencing him to the Penitentiary for five years.

A LADY ONE HUNDRED AND SIX YEARS OLD TRAVELLING.—The Rochester American notices the arrival of the boat Neptune, with one hundred and twelve passengers, among whom was a lady 106 years, 8 months and twenty days old, accompanied by her son 80 years of age. The stripping was on his way with his mother from Michigan, where she has resided for several years, to New York, to spend the remainder of her days with her friends. She was in possession of all her faculties, and walked as erect as a person of forty.

DESPERATE.—The nerves of the human body—those necessary agents which immediately connect man with external nature—are singularly prone to have their functions disordered by an oppressed condition of the stomach; the minute termination of that portion of the nerves expanded upon the organs of digestion conveying the morbid impression to the Brain. And although the Head can, undoubtedly, like other organs, be the seat of primary disorder, yet, in the great majority of cases, the uneasy sensations there experienced are symptomatic of disordered Stomach; and further, there is abundant evidence to prove that cruditates in the Stomach and Bowels can, in every grade of human existence give rise to spasmodic action in every organ of the body; and whether we survey it in the agonising form of Tic Dolorieux—the alarming convulsions of the Epileptic seizure—or in that irritable condition of the nerves of the heart occasioning palpitation—they can all frequently be traced to the source above mentioned, and be cured by mild evacuant and tonic remedies. To relieve a state of so much suffering and distress (in which body and mind also participate) BRADY'S PILLS are confidently recommended; as, by combining aromatic, tonic and cleansing properties, they remove all oppressive accumulations, strengthen the Stomach, induce a healthy appetite, and impart tranquillity to the nervous system.
