

son of the North, and sets him to drawing lines of comparison between them and the fair ones he has left behind him. Here again they suffer. The low necked short dress, with large glaring pink figures, and a single narrow flounce, relieved by a few inches of the white under-dress, cut into points, is not wanting in beauty, and sets off a fine figure to the utmost advantage. And it has another recommendation: it displays the finest turned ankle, and the prettiest foot in the world. But with all this, no one even of moderate taste, can pretend to say that the Senorita would be less enchanting if fashionably dressed. Nay, I have thought some of them might shine as stars in our Northern ball rooms. This is saying more for them than most of my companions would dream of, on account of the almost suspicious darkness of their complexions. There is a great dearth of military news, at present, on account of the great distance of any hostile body of Mexicans. Volunteers are daily arriving in bodies of from four hundred to one thousand; and are usually kept several weeks in camp at Brazos St. Jago, before they are allowed to go up the Rio Grande. Of the object of this procedure I am entirely ignorant; but of the consequences I have had ocular demonstration. Very many, on account of the wretched quality of the water, are taken sick, soon after their arrival, and lay for weeks, without a single comfort, upon a parched desert, not exceeded in heat by the great Sahara. So hot is it that I have seen a perfect mirage upon it for half a day at a time, making the tents appear as if standing in the middle of a large sheet of water. Many a poor fellow has seen the elephant without leaving Brazos Island.

The spy company of Texas Rangers (Walker's) has been disbanded, their term of enlistment having expired. They are still here and keep the city in a constant state of alarm. Almost every night some one, Mexican or American, is murdered; and though General Taylor has placed a double guard of U. S. troops in the Plaza, to act in connection with the Mexican authorities, these outrages still continue. One desperate fellow, by the name of Mills, was a few days since arrested upon the charge of having shot a Mexican citizen, and confined in the city prison. This has got the Texan blood up to the highest pitch; and it is feared there will be a general out-break among his old companions in arms, should they attempt to do him justice. The principal witness against him was found, a few mornings ago, with his throat cut from ear to ear. So things are here; and it is well known that a Texan area is little for the life of a "grozer," as for that of a deer. An officer who was in the battles of the 8th and 9th told me that once during the action, while there was a dead silence at Resaca de la Palma, he heard the sharp, long whiplike report of a rifle, and a few minutes after saw a Texan Ranger ride out of the chapeau, close to his company. As they did not wish to attract the attention of the enemy, he told the fellow he ought not to be firing about there and asked him at what he had been shooting. "Oh!" said he, with the most perfect unchance, "I only shot a grozer." The Texan soldiers are nicknamed "grozers" by the Texans, and now go almost exclusively by that name among all the American forces.

As I have already exhausted your patience, we shall not now be troubled with the narration of my own personal adventures. That shall be reserved till I see you. Truly Yours, R. B. M.

MALES AND FEMALES BATHING AT NEWPORT.—A correspondent of the Boston Transcript writes thus from Newport on the subject of bathing: I had my prejudices against the custom of the sexes bathing together, but on seeing the bath at Newport, my antipathy against the fashion was much removed. The sight is picturesque, certainly. Fancy an encampment of soldiers, or rather, Gipsies, divested of the bathing pot, and you have the scene previous to immersion. You cannot tell the gentlemen on the ladies; and in fact, it is difficult to distinguish the members of your own family, as the gents wear red flannel tunics, duck pants, and straw hats; the ladies tunic and pantaloons of the same color, with white collars and cuffs, and straw hats also. There are as many as 150 bathing houses. You enter on one side, and go on to the beach from the other, equipped to act the part of the sea nymphs, and you see that seems an appropriate character. It is really very exciting to behold the scene.

FEVER AND AGUE, AND ALL FEVERS CURED BY BRANDRETH'S PILLS.—All fevers are occasioned by the disordered motion of the blood, produced the humoral acrosity by hardening the valves of vessels. The blood circulates with greatly increased speed, and is still increased by the friction of the globules, or particles which compose the mass fluids. Then it is that the excessive heat and its is experienced throughout the whole system, accompanied with great thirst, pain in the head, kidneys, and in fact a complete prostration of all the faculties of the mind as well as body. On the first attack of fever, or any disease, immediately take a large dose of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, and continue to keep up a careful effect upon the bowels until the fever or ague has entirely ceased. Six or eight will in all cases be sufficient as a dose, and one dose of a kind it is not improbable, may prevent months sickness, perhaps death.

Dr. Benjamin Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, are indeed a universally approved medicine, which by its peculiar action, cleanses the blood of impurities, removes every Pain and Weakness, finally Restores the Constitution to perfect Health and Vigor.

Address to the Public.
THE unprecedented success attending the use of Dr. G. B. Ben's Smith's (Sugar Coated) Improved Vegetable Pills, and the acknowledged superiority which they possess over the common Anti-Bilious, Cathartic, and various other Pills in general use, have given them a decided preference with all who have used them; and they are universally esteemed the most safe and pleasant purgatives ever offered to the public.
CAUTION.—As a miserable imitation has been made, by the name of "Sugar Coated Pills," it is necessary to be sure that Dr. G. B. BEN'S SIGNATURE is on every box. Price 25 cents.

"TRUTH IS MIGHTY AND WILL PREVAIL."
A. B. MARSHALL,
No. 188 Chestnut Street, between Seventh and Eighth Streets, PHILADELPHIA.
IS now prepared to offer, Wholesale and Retail, a large assortment of Fancy and Staple DRY GOODS,
suited to the Country as well as City Trade. He continues the system of "no abatement in prices," which he has pursued for the past ten years, and desires to call the special attention of the public to it as the only true system of retail business, and which is decidedly to the interest of the purchaser to promote. It is quite time the fraudulent practice of asking a high price, and abating to make the purchasers believe they are the "favored few," was done away with, as nine times out of ten they are made to pay a higher price (how ever great the reduction) than the like style and quality can be purchased at the "One Price Store."
A. B. M. is in regular receipt of the newest and cheapest seasonable goods, and when any article depreciates in value the price is at once marked down so low that it cannot be underbid. By this system the purchaser can at all times buy with confidence and satisfaction, and without waste of time in useless bargaining. He has at this time a complete assortment of

DANVILLE, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA.
THE Danville Steam Woollen Factory, formerly owned and occupied by Dr. PETERKIN, has recently been purchased by the subscribers, who respectfully announce to their friends and the public generally, that they are now prepared to do all kinds of work in their line of business, at the shortest notice, according to order, and in the best comparative manner. Having gone to considerable expense in repairing their machinery and apparatus, and being very particular in securing the service of experienced mechanics, they feel confident that they are capable of executing all kinds of work in a style superior to any other establishment in the country, at the old customary prices.
CLOTHS, SATINETTES, FLANNELS AND BLANKETS constant on hand, and for sale at reduced prices, for Cash or Barter.
CARDING AND FULLING will be done in the best manner, at the usual prices. All kinds of country produce taken in payment for work, at Danville market prices.
For the accommodation of those who live at a distance, Wooll and Cloth will be taken in at once, when finished, returned to the following places, Plain written directions must accompany each parcel:
