Odd Fellowwhip.

We have read, with no little surprise, several articles in the Vermont Journal, which profess to expose enormities in the institution of Odd Fellows, and we confess an unwillingness to believe the charges preferred against that institution.

A Spanish Robber—His Last Terrible Act.

A letter to the London Times, dated Madrid, August 25th, says—An act of singular ferocity took place a day or two ago in the prison of Salamanca. A notorious robber and murderer, named Patino, the terror of the surrounding country for years, was lately captured and tried by Court Martial.
