

A Touching Scene.

A French paper says, Lucille Romee, a pretty little girl, with blue eyes and fair hair, poor, but neatly clothed, was brought before the Court of Correction, under a charge of vagrancy.

"Does any one claim you," said the magistrate. "Ah! my good sir," she replied, "I have no longer any friends: my father and mother are dead. I have only my brother James, but he is as young as I am. Oh, dear! what could he do for me?"

"The Court must send you to the House of Correction."

"Here I am, sister. Here I am: do not fear, cried a childish voice, from the other end of the Court. And at the same instant, a little boy, with a sprightly countenance, started forth from the midst of the crowd, and stood before the magistrate.

"Who are you?" said he. "James Romee, the brother of this poor little girl."

"Your age?" "Thirteen."

"And what do you want?" "I come to claim Lucille."

"But have you, then, the means of providing for her?"

"Yesterday I had not, but now I have. Don't be afraid, Lucille."

Lucille: "Oh! how very good you are, James!"

Magistrate, to James: "But let us see, my boy, the Court is disposed to do all it can for your sister. However, you must give us some explanation."

James: "About a fortnight ago my poor mother died of a bad cough, for it was very cold at home. We were in great trouble.—Then I said to myself, I will become an artisan, when I know a good trade I will support my sister. I went apprentice to a brush maker. Every day I used to carry her half my dinner, and at night I took her secretly to my room, and she slept in my bed while I slept on the floor, wrapped up in my blouse. But it appeared the little thing had not enough to eat for one day she unfortunately begged on the boulevard. When I heard she was taken up, I said to myself, come, my boy, things cannot last so, you must find something better. I very much wished to become an artisan, but at last I decided to look for a place; and I found a very good one, where I am lodged, and clothed, and have twenty francs a month. I have also found a good woman, who for these twenty francs, will take care of Lucille and teach her needle work. I claim my sister."

Lucille, clasping her hands: "Oh, how good you are, James!"

"Magistrate, to James: "My boy, your conduct is very honorable. The Court encourage you to persevere in this course and you will prosper."

"The Court decided to render up Lucille to James, and she was going from the bar to join her brother, when the magistrate, smiling, said: "You cannot be set at liberty till to-morrow."

James: "Never mind, Lucille, I will come and fetch you early to-morrow." To the magistrate: "I may kiss her rosy cheek, may I not, sir?"

He then threw himself into the arms of his little sister, and both wept warm tears of affection.

ADVICE TO GIRLS.—Do you want a good husband? Who that possesses common sense will be seen with a female who takes pride in saying that she never does house work, and cannot bear the sight of mechanics? So long as you turn up your nose at the honest industrious and take particular pains to tell your friends that you are not obliged to work and know nothing about the kitchen, you will be shunned by the best portion of young men who will esteem it a privilege to have you pass by them without uttering a word. Your company may be courted by whom? The well fed and dressed pumper and feathered fop and by them alone.—Cease then girls to make fools of yourselves. Work more, gab less. Read and study during your leisure hours, and labor to improve your nature.

Truths, too fine spun, are subtle fooleries. Unkindness has no remedy at law. The legacy of fools is a lecture to the wise. The example of good men is visible philosophy.

The greatest learning is to be seen in the greatest plainness.

OAKLEY'S DEPURATIVE SYRUP.

THE valuable properties of Oakley's Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, as a purifier of the blood, is so well known to the public generally, that it is unnecessary to occupy much space in setting forth the advantages to be derived from its use; wherever the medicine has once been introduced, it takes precedence over all others; every one that has taken it, have derived so signal beneficial results from it, that it is recommended by them with the utmost confidence. Physicians of the highest standing in the profession, prescribe it to patients under their care, containing nothing deleterious, but being composed of the most mild, yet efficacious vegetable materials, it is attended with confidence as the cheapest and most efficient purifier of the blood now known. The use of a few bottles, especially in the spring months, will be attended with a most decided improvement in the general strength of the system, eradicating any seeds of disease that may have been generated, besides giving health and vigor to the body.—For the cure of Scrofula or Kings Evil, Rheumatism, Tetter, Pimples or eruptions of the Skin, White Swelling, Pustula, Chronic Cough Asthma, &c. The numerous certificates in the possession of the subscriber and his agents, from physicians and others, are sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its superiority over all preparations of Sarsaparilla.

Sold wholesale and retail, by the proprietor, GEORGE W. OAKLEY, North 5th street, Reading, Berks County, and to be had of the following persons:

In Northumberland County.—H. B. Masser, Sunbury; Ireland & Moxel, McEwensville; D. Krauser, Milton.

In Union County.—J. Gearhart, Solingrove; A. Gutches, Milfordburg.

In Columbia County.—R. W. McCoy, Washington.

Reading, March 10, 1845.

MR. OAKLEY.—I believe it the duty of every one to do whatever in their power, for the benefit of their fellow man, and having had positive proof in my own family, of the wonderful properties of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, I am at once and conscientiously recommended it to the afflicted. I had the misfortune to lose two of our children, by the breaking out of ulcerous sores that covered the face, head and neck, although we had some of the most scientific physicians to attend them, and had tried all the known remedies, including Swain's Panacea, without avail. Another of my children was attacked in the same manner, her face and neck was completely covered; the discharge was so offensive, and the disease at such a height, that we despaired of her life. Seeing the wonderful effects of your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, we were induced to make trial of it, as the last resort; it acted like a charm; the ulcers commenced healing immediately, a few bottles entirely restored her to her health, which she has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since. As a purifier of the blood, I verily believe it has not its equal.

JOHN MOYER, Tabor, Walnut street, near Fourth, Reading.

Douglasville, April 19th, 1843.

MR. OAKLEY.—My son Edmund Leaf, had the scrofula in the most dreadful and distressing manner for three years, during which time he was deprived of the use of his limbs, he had and neck were covered with ulcers. We tried all the different remedies, but to no effect, until recommended by Dr. Johnson of Northtown, and also Dr. Isaac Hooper, of Reading, to use your Depurative Syrup of Sarsaparilla, of which I obtained several bottles. The use of which drove the disease entirely out of his system, the sore healed up, and the child was restored to perfect health, which he has enjoyed uninterrupted ever since, to the astonishment of many persons who seen him during his affliction. I have thought it my duty, and send you this certificate that others who have like affliction in the family may know where to obtain so valuable a medicine. Yours truly,

ROSE OINTMENT FOR TETTER.

RINGWORMS, PIMPLES ON THE FACE, AND OTHER CUTANEOUS ERUPTIONS. The following certificate describes one of the most extraordinary cures ever effected by any application.

PHILADELPHIA, February 10, 1838.

FOR twenty years I was severely afflicted with Tetter on the Face and Head: the disease commenced when I was seventeen years old, and continued until the Fall of 1835, varying in violence, but without ever disappearing. During most of the time, great part of my face was covered with the eruption, frequently attended with violent itching; my head swelled at times until it felt as if it would burst—the swelling was so great, that I could scarcely get my hat on. During the long period that I was afflicted with the disease, I used a great many applications, (among them several celebrated preparations) as well as taking inward remedies, including a number of bottles of Swain's Panacea, Extract of Sarsaparilla, &c. In fact, it would be impossible to enumerate all the medicines I used. I was also under the care of two of the most distinguished physicians of this city, but without receiving much benefit, and I despaired of ever being cured. In the Fall of 1836, the disease at the time being very violent, I commenced using the Rose Ointment, (prepared by Vaughan & Davis.) In a few applications the violent itching ceased, the swelling abated, the eruption began to disappear, and before I had used a jar the disease was entirely cured. It has now been nearly a year and a half since, and there is not a vestige of the disease remaining, except the scars from the deep pits formed by the disease. It is impossible for me to describe in a certificate the severity of the disease and my suffering, but I will be pleased to give a fuller account to any person wishing further satisfaction, who will call on me. At the time I commenced using the Rose Ointment I would have given hundreds of dollars to be rid of the disease. Since using it, I have recommended it to several persons, (among them my mother, who had the disease badly on her arm,) who were all cured by it.

Recd Ointment for Tetter. A PROOF OF ITS EFFICACY.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27th, 1843.

THIS is to certify that I was severely afflicted with Tetter in the hands and feet for upwards of forty years; the disease was attended generally with violent itching and swelling. I applied to a number of physicians, and used a great many applications without effecting a cure. About a year since, I applied the Rose Ointment, which entirely stopped the itching, and a few applications immediately cured the disease, which there has been no return of, although I had never been rid of it at any time for forty years.

MEDICAL APPROBATION OF THE ROSE OINTMENT, for Tetter.

ALTHOUGH the superiority of the preparation over all others is fully established, the proprietors take pleasure in laying before the public the following certificate from a respectable physician, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Baugh, having found in this remedy that relief for a tedious and disagreeable affection which the means within the range of his profession failed to afford, has not hesitated to give it his approbation, although the prejudices and interests of that profession are opposed to secret Remedies.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19, 1836.

I was recently troubled with a tedious herpetic eruption, which covered nearly one side of my face, and extended over the ear. Mr. Vaughan, proprietor of the Rose Ointment, observing my face, insisted on my trying his preparation, of which he handed me a jar. Although in common with
