

CHEER UP.
 Cheer up, for grief is the night,
 But morning with its rosy light
 Disperses the clouds of sorrow;
 If shadowy doubts obscure the day,
 Remember they will flee away;
 The sky will smile to-morrow.

What though the past be thickly strewn
 With faded flowers,—thy path o'ergrown
 With thorns of woe and sadness?
 Yet sigh not always—murmur not,
 There's promise in thy future lot,
 That speaks of hope and gladness.

True, life is but a vale of tears,
 And hope is often linked with fears,
 Yet why be ever weeping?
 There's many a bright spot on the earth,
 And many a joy of noble birth,
 And many a bath in keeping.

A cloud upon thy brow will throw
 New shadows on thy brother's woe,
 And make life's journey weary;
 A smile in holy calmness given,
 Will light thy brother's path to heaven,
 And cheer the pilgrim weary.

Cheer up, then, for our guide-star here
 Will soon disclose a holier sphere,
 When care assaults us never;
 Man hath a hope beyond the tomb,
 In Heaven's congenial air to bloom;
 That hope shall live forever.

THE VAN NESS CASE.—The new tune given to the Van Ness case imports more than ordinary interest to the proceedings. In order to a full understanding of the case in all its phases, the correspondent of the New York Advertiser gives the following succinct history:—

John P. Van Ness came to this city in the year 1801 as a member of Congress from the State of New York. He was at that time a dashing and elegant young man, some five or six and twenty years of age. In the year 1803 he married the daughter of old David Burns, who was a large landed proprietor when what is now a city was divided between cornfields and swamps. Miss Burns was an only child, a very beautiful and interesting woman, and after the death of her father became possessed of all his property. Under the careful and thrifty management of Gen. Van Ness, this property, in little less than half a century, amounted in value to near half a million of dollars. General Van Ness had by this marriage only one daughter, a lovely and accomplished girl, who died soon after her marriage. In a few years afterwards, Mrs. Van Ness followed her daughter to the tomb, having been borne down with grief ever since the loss of her child, thus leaving Gen. Van Ness sole proprietor of this immense real estate.

The only heirs of David Burns now living, that I remember, are two persons, a brother and sister, cousins of the late Mrs. Van Ness. The former has been an inmate of the poor house for several years past, and the latter, a widow, is residing here in great destitution and poverty. In the early part of the present year Gen. Van Ness died intestate—at least no will has been found. Cornelius C. Van Ness, brother of Gen. J. P. V., known to the public, very favorably, as Governor of Vermont, as Minister to Spain, and as Collector of your city, proceeded to take out letters of administration upon the estate. Mrs. Connor, the person assuming to be Mrs. Van Ness, sought to revoke the letters obtained by Gen. Van Ness. The Orphans' Court turned the matter over to the Circuit Court, which is now investigating the fact of the alleged marriage.

SELLING CRACKERS.—While in West Platteburg, we were told a circumstance which occurred some where in New York too good to be lost. A quick-witted toper went into a bar-room and called for something to drink.

"We don't sell liquor," said the law-abiding landlord—"we will give you a glass, and then if you want to buy a cracker, we'll sell it to you for three cents."

"Very well," said the Yankee customer, "hand down your decanter."

The 'good creature' was handed down, and our hero took a stiff horn, when turning around to depart, the unsuspecting landlord handed him the dish of crackers, with the remark, "you'll buy a cracker!"

"Well, no, I guess not; you sell 'em too dear; I can get 'em on 'em, five or six for a cent, anywhere else."

WHAT IS A PROFESSOR?—The learned Prof. E. went into the country last summer to visit an old friend. The next morning after the arrival of the professor, the two friends went out for a ride in the woods. They had not proceeded far before they came to a set of bars, and the gentleman seeing a stout boy standing near, asked him to take them down, when the following dialogue took place:

"What shall I take them down for?"

"We wish to ride through, and this gentleman is a professor; so you must make haste."

"A professor! What is a professor?"

"A professor is a man that—that—can do anything."

"Well, if he can do any thing, he can take them down the bars for you."

UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE.—Sam Slick says these are languages that's universal—the language of love and the language of money. The girls understand the one and the men understand the other, the world over.

EXTRAORDINARY DISCOVERY!

DEAFNESS CAN BE CURED!

COOPER'S ACUSTIC OIL.—A prompt and lasting remedy for Deafness, also for pains and discharge of matter from the Ear.

Hundreds of cures in cases deemed utterly hopeless have firmly established its superiority over every former Medical Discovery.

This valuable Acoustic Medicine is a compound of four different Oils, one of which, the active and principal ingredient, is obtained from the bark of a certain species of Walnut, a new and successful agent in the cure of Deafness.

Persons who had been deaf for 10, 15 and even 20 years, have been permanently cured by using this Oil. In fact, so numerous and so emphatic have been the testimonials in its favor, that the inventor claims for it the distinction of an infallible Remedy, in all cases, when the Ear is perfect in its formation.

For further particulars, and evidence of its great value, see printed sheets, in the hands of Agents. For sale in Sanbury, by J. W. FRILING. September 19th, 1846—1y
