Excesses.-Whilst a regiment of volunteers were marching through Camergo, a cap-'ain, (a strict disciplinarian.) observing that one it the drums did not beat, ordered a lieutenant to inquire the reason. The fellow, on being interrogated, whispered to the lieutenant, "I have two docks and a turkey in my drum, and the turkey is for the captain." This being whispered to the captain, he exclaimed, "Why dir'nt the drummer say he was lame? I do not want men to do their duty when they are not able."

A remarkable instance of Yankee enriceity is related of a well dressed man in New Haven, who lost something on the side-walk, knocked at a door and obtained a light to look after his massing property. Several persons, one after mother, as they came along, offered to assist him in his search, and asked him what he was Loking for? He evaded a reply, and conjecturing that it was something valuable, the people intered round to see it found. After an hour's warch, the man exclaimed that he had got it ! "What is it?" cried several in a breath. "It's a cent," said the man, a little schamed; "I didn'tcare anything about it, but I wanted to see were the darned thing went to !"

How to MARE A TURKEY TENDER .- The Egyptians adopt a curious method of making a turkey tender. Half on hour before the bird a killed, a gloss of brandy is poured down its throat, which produces complete intoxication, and the flesh of the tipsy turkey acquires a tenderness superior to that which is produced by even long keeping.

One of the best "tricks" that we have heard of for a long time is the following. It is worth

Legerdemain- Or how to get a whole suit of clothes into a junk bottle !- Every time you teel like taking a "horn," drop the price of a "ninner" into the bottle, and take a glass of pure cold water. Repeat this until the bottle is full. then break it and carry the contents to a good tailor; and within a month you will find yourself encased in a new suit of clothes without any trouble or expense to yourself. The same can be done with hats, boots, &c. We have known a cart load of wood and a barrel of flour to be transmorrified in a similar praprer.

Wowan's Wit.-Dr. Franklin was dining with a tery preacher, just before the revolution, who gave as a toast, "The King." The doctor, and others of his way of thinking, drank it. By and by his turn came, and he gave, "The Devil" This created some confusion, but the clergyman's lady understanding the drift, said, "Pray. gentlemen, drink the teast, Dr. Franklin has drank to our friend, let us drink to his."

An honest son of Hibernia was saked the other day how many children he had. "Faith," says he, "I have three sons, and each of them has a eister." Quere-How many daughters has be? N. Y. Sun.

"I understand," said a deacon to one of his neighbors, that you have become a hard drinker.' 'That's a slander." replied the neighbor, for no man drinks onsier.'
