SUNBURY AND ERIE RAILROAD.
 PHILADA., March 23d, 1847
 B. BARNER Esq.—Dear Sir—The Central Rail-road concern, notwithstanding the refusal of the Legislature to legalize the City subscription have determined to organize their Company, and have nominated Samuel V. Merrick, as their President. This nomination is probably the wisest act that has yet been exhibited to the public, but when he looks at the difficulties to be encountered, the money to be raised and expended, and then at the opposition to be met at the terminus he will probably exhibit the wisdom for which he is credited, by declining the honor. To an enlightened community who are actuated by a liberal spirit of enterprise, the service, although laborious, would result both profitably and honorably—but when he becomes the leader of a party ignorant of the facts, and inspired only by impulse and a spirit of rivalry, it will not be difficult to foretell the consequence that follow. It however, has become weary of the glory he has achieved by the hammer, he will rush at the darling object before him, and like his supporters depend upon some interposition of Heaven, to crown the success of the enterprise. So far, consequences and the natural tendency of human events have not been looked at, nor is it necessary to contemplate any contingency when an impregnable force is ready at the outset.
 But people will reason, and people will look at the facts—when the instalments are to be paid, and that too to be dragged from the pockets of the mechanics and laborer, will it not be asked from whence shall we derive the dividends upon our expenditure? At Pittsburg there is nothing to be had. The fact that the Baltimore and Ohio and the Richmond and Guyandotte roads will intercept and monopolize all the trade of the river above Cincinnati, is so clear to the people of Pittsburg, that they propose to abandon every thing for a western direction. They see that the Ohio Canal from Portsmouth to Cleveland—the Cincinnati, Xenia, Columbus and Cleveland Rail-road—the Cincinnati and Toledo Canal, with the Wabash and Erie Canal, have already drained the river of its commerce and are carrying it to the cities on the Lakes, and that there it finds a better mart; a cheaper, and a more direct route to the market, than can possibly be had at Pittsburg. They see also, that at Erie, Philadelphia can intercept the whole of this trade, and bring it to her doors for half the money that will be required to go to Pittsburg, and hence their disposition to connect with Baltimore, and leave Philadelphia, to go where she likes.
 In the Pittsburg Gazette, of March 19th, in a long article on the subject of the Baltimore connection, the Editor says, and he reiterates the general opinion of the citizens, that 'we ought not to lose sight of the fact, that New York, divided by Boston, will put forth every exertion to extend Rail road communications from Buffalo and Dunkirk, around the shore of lake Erie, to the interior of Ohio, and we shall find, if we delay western communication too long that all the improvements and trade of Ohio and the great west have taken that direction instead of coming this way. This part being so plain that he who runs may read, and as the works through Ohio are already constructed, and the direction is given to the trade, will not Mr. Merrick and his friends look into the matter, and save their subscribers the trouble of directing them where the trade can be found.
 To go to Pittsburg, will therefore, end in disgrace, and the project of going through Ohio in search of the Trade would be worse than Japhet in search of his father. The people of Ohio and on the lakes, having made their improvements, their Railroads and Canals, and like us, having them yet to be paid for, will they give them a way? or, will they give rights of way, to destroy either the one or the other?
 Before we rush heedlessly into the expenditure would it not be well to place these facts before the people—to enquire of Ohio, not of the people before whose door the work shall pass, but of the people of the State, whether, as Mr. Roebing says, "we shall intercept them at right angles and monopolize and appropriate the whole of their trade?"
 To a prudent and cautious people, ever acting upon principles of wisdom and justice, the answer would be clear, and the determination that would result from such an influence, would be to go where we can reach the trade—where we could interfere with no private interests, no rights of way, no rivalry, but an honest and legitimate enthusiasm, to do what would benefit our State, enrich our city, and make us as nature intended we should be—the great centre of the Union.
SUNBURY AND ERIE.
PLEASANT BEE FELLOWS—A person writing from Camp Watson, near Tampico, says:
 "I am collecting a number of scorpions, centipedes and tarantulas, (some of the latter are nearly as large as young colts,) which I intend sending to you as curiosities the first opportunity. How would you like to find, on going to bed, a couple of good sized scorpions snugly stowed between your blankets? I assure you it is no unusual occurrence."
APATETIC APPEAL—They have a way of doing up things in the 'Farmatic' order at the office of the New Orleans Picayune, altogether unique. This is the way they dun there:—
 Meet oh! meet me, I implore you,
 Meet, meet, meet me, I implore you,
 Meet me there, at any hour;
 Meet me there, at any hour;
 Meet me there, at any hour;
 Meet, and—pay that little bill!
 Says Jack to Tom, let's go and ship
 On board, the Mexicans to whip.
 Says Tom, but first I want to know,
 'Tis it to Vera Cruz we go;
 They say the Castle's very strong,
 The fight will be both hard and long.
 Says Jack, that is, for glory's sake,
 The very cause I want to take

Dr. Roussel's Universal SHAVING CREAM.
 Small quantities given without Charge. At 114 Chestnut St., PHILADELPHIA.
 THIS new and splendid article, a name deserving notice, is preferred to any other shaving Cream in the United States or Europe. It is unsurpassed for beauty, purity and fragrance, and somewhat analogous to Guerin's Ambrosial Cream and other similar compounds. It surpasses them all by the eminent purity consistency of its lather, which softens the beard as to render shaving pleasant and easy. It further possesses the advantage over the imported article, in being freshly prepared, no skill being wanting in its manufacture. Dr. Roussel having had many years' experience in the celebrated Laboratory of Laugier, Paris & Filz, now Renaud & Co., of Paris.
 Besides being the best, it is the cheapest article for shaving; it is elegantly put up in boxes, with splendid steel engraved labels.
 Price $3 per dozen, or 37 1/2 cents for a single box, to shave one year. It is also sold at $1 50 per lb. or 12 1/2 cents per oz., so that gentlemen can have their boxes filled at EUGENE ROUSSEL'S, Wholesale and Retail Perfumery and Mineral Water Establishment, 114 Chestnut Street, Dec. 19, 1846.—PHILADELPHIA.
