From the Number Telegraph. With ear-locks soupy and long, With whiskers trizzled and red A leafer sat with a guid in blo mouth, A spitting and mattering satta Work-work-work, These hands shall naver pursue, While I can obtain a long nine to emeke, Or a plug of tobacco to thew. And he spits-spits-spits. When moon is breaking bright; Bpita-spite-spite, When Sol has climbed his beight;

Spits-spits-spits, With day's expiring gleam, And supperless falling asleep on a bench, Reeps spitting away in his dream. For in his dream be dreams,

It is by fate decreed, That he is a great tobacco worm, To extirpate the weed-And so he works away To make his conquests sure ! A free and enlightened citizen, A sauffer, a smoker, and chewer. At market, church, or mill, In business or prayer-

> The Root of all Evil. BY THOMAS HOOD.

Gold! gold! gold! gold! Bright and yellow, hard and cold, Moiten, graven, hammer'd, and rolled; Heavy to get, and light to hold; Hoarded, barter'd bought, and sold : Stolen, borrow'd squander'd, doled; Spurn'd by the young, but hugg'd by the old To the very verge of the church-yard mould; Price of many a crime untold; Gold! gold! gold! gold! Good or bad, a thousand fold.

How widely its agencies vary; To save, to ruin, to curse, to bless; As even its minted coin express : Now stamp'd with image of good Queen Bess, And now of bloody Mary.

WASH FOR HORSES .- Take two or three handfuls of walnut leaves, upon which pour two or three quarts of cold water, let it infuse one night, and the next morning pour the whole into a kettle and let it boil for fifteen or twenty minutes, In this infusion dip a common sponge, and rub the horse thoroughly. The application should be most liberally made to those parts generally assailed by the fly : for instance, the neck, between the ears, and on the flanks and belly. I have repeatedly had recourse to this remedy, and have invariably found it effectual. My work horses on the larm, are during "fly time," constantly rubbed with it .-Its application to other animals is also of benefit,

Erp Monssel's Unfbersal SHAVING CREAM

Small quantities given without Charge. At 114 Chesnut St., PHILADELPHIA. His new and splendid article, as its name de notes, is professed to be superior to any Shaving Cream in the United States or Europe. It is fatted comewhat enalogous to Guerlain's Ambroatel failed Cream and other almiler compounds. It far surpasses them all by the emblicht pasty consistency par of its lather, which so softens the beard as to render shaving pleasant and easy. It further possesses the advantage over the imported article, in being freshly propued, no skill being wenting in its manufacture. E. Roussel having had many years' experience in the celebrated Laboratory of Laugur, Pere at Fils, now Renaud & ca., of Paris.

Besides being the best, it is the cheapest article for shaving; it is clegantly put up in boxes, with aplendid steel engraved labels.

Price $3 per dozen, or 375 cents for a single box, to shave one year. It is also sold at $1 50 per lb.
