

From the London People's Journal. Clean and I.

BY CHARLES MACRAY. Clean hath a million acres— Never a one have I. Clean dwelleth in palaces— In a cottage I. Clean hath a dozen fortunes— Not a penny I. But the poorer of the twin is Clean, and not I. Clean, time, possesseth acres, Eat the landscape I. Half the charms to me it yieldeth, Money cannot buy. Clean harbors sloth and dullness— Freshening vigor I. He in velvet, in fustian, Richer man am I. Clean is a slave to grandeur, Free as thought am I. Clean fears a score of doctors— Need of none have I. Wealth, surrounded, care-environed, Clean fears to die. Death may come, he'll find me ready— Happier man am I. Clean sees no charm in Nature— In a daisy I. Clean hears no anthems ringing In the sea and sky. Nature sings to me forever— Earnest listener I. State for state, with all attendants, Who would change?— Not I. Keep cool. BY G. W. LIGHT. Are your matters all awry? Keep cool; If consider well the reason: If you are but right yourself, Things will come right in their season. Keep cool. Though your case be desperate, Keep cool; Desperate evils may be cured— They cannot withstand a man! What have true men not endured? Keep cool. Has a villain cheated you? Keep cool; He's the loser—don't despair; Now your eye-teeth have been cut, Keep your temper: grin and bear. Keep cool. Has a maiden proved unkind? Keep cool; If you'd have your heart's desire, Teach young Cupid's golden bow You can stand its keenest fire. Keep cool. Can you reform the world? Keep cool; Only one thing you can do— Give a brave heart to the work; Heaven wants no more from you. Keep cool. Does the prince of serpents hiss? Keep cool; Show your stiffest upper lip; When he sees that you are firm, You will find that off he'll slip. Keep cool. Let your ills be what they may, Keep cool; Seize this truth with heart and hand: He that ruleth well himself, Can the universe withstand. Keep cool.

Don Stone.—Mr. S. kept a calf tied in his yard, but the top occasionally got untied and the calf was left loose. One day a neighbor called in and said, "Squire, I presume your calf has made an escape from the yard." Mr. Stone replied, he presumed not, and inquired on what he founded his opinion. He replied, "I know your dog well, though I do not your calf. I overtook your dog near Mill Creek, with the rope in his mouth, leading a calf towards the city, (about a mile west of Mr. Stone's house). Mr. Stone went into the yard, found the calf gone, mounted his horse and took the road for the mouth of Mill Creek. When he had gone about half the distance, he met his trusty dog, logging on with the rope in his mouth, leading the calf. He gave him a word of encouragement, and turned his horse and went home, leaving the dog to finish his undertaking. He had not been home but a short time, when the faithful dog brought the calf to the gate and he was let in.—Cist's Adv.

Stone and Finner.—Wait of Ketchum, is the very appropriate name of a firm in New York, which makes patent medicines on a large scale. Call of Sattie have a tailoring establishment in Meadville. I presume they give short credits. Neal of Pray is a business firm at Portland, Me. It is superfluous to add that they belong to Orthodox churches.

Luke Sharpe is in the retail business in Cincinnati. As might be expected from the name, he is always wide awake whenever money is to be made.—Cist's Advertiser.

A sleepy Dragon, who sometimes engaged in popular games, bearing the minister use the words "shuff off this mortal coil," started up, rubbed his eyes, and exclaimed: "Hold on!—it's my deal!"

SOMETHING NEW!

THE subscribers have the exclusive right of vending J. M. THATCHER'S Hot Blast Hot Air Cooking STOVE, in the counties of Northumberland, Columbia and Schuylkill; and from the encouragement met with already, they expect to do a large business. This stove is constructed on an entirely new principle, and on the only principle that can make both a good wood and coal stove. The inventor has overcome all the difficulties that so frequently belong to other stoves. He has by his arrangement, constructed a revolving Oven in front, where in broiling, roasting, frying or baking may be done, and all the smell that arises therefrom, must pass into the combustible chamber, and is not at all thrown out into the room. Besides this, there is an oven only two inches less than the whole size of the stove, wherein baking or roasting may be done as well as it can be in the common brick oven. This oven is always fit for use when the stove is heated, as the whole draught of hot air passes around it constantly. Public attention is particularly called to this stove. It can be seen at our Store and Tin Establishment in North Danville, at the sign of the Good Luck Tin shop, and at the Foundry of Roby, Birch & Clement in Sunbury, where its particular qualities will be fully shown and explained to any person wishing to examine it. The subscribers continue to have on hand all kinds of parlor stoves, such as radiators, candeliers, fenders and plain, suitable for all who may favor us with a call; also common sheet and Russia Iron, which can be made in any desirable shape; together with a general assortment of tin and japanned ware, wholesale and retail. Country merchants are invited to call and examine our stock, as our work cannot be surpassed, and prices moderate. N. B. We can safely recommend the above mentioned stove to persons who wish to embark in a good business. The parties will sell either country or state rights, to suit purchasers, and on reasonable terms. He or his agent's may be found in Danville, Pa. J. & J. ARTER.

The undersigned, having seen in operation the hot blast hot air cooking stove, invented and patented by J. M. Thatcher, certify that we believe, from the manner of its construction and operation, that it is the best one ever offered to the public. The arrangement is so complete and the construction so judicious, that there is a saving of one half the fuel and time, in doing any given amount of service, over other celebrated stoves. In short we recommend it in preference to all others, for the simple reason that it embraces every branch of economy. Samuel Garrett, John W. Garrett, David Chaffield, W. F. Kitchin, John M. Gray, E. Thompson, Smith Thompson, J. D. Hahn, John Oakes, Benjamin Bear, E. F. Cooper, Geo. M. Richard, Daniel Hoffman, Henry H. Rissel, F. H. Carter, Daniel Dreisbach, Joseph Vankirk, Brooks Epley. THE ROUSSEL'S UNIVERSAL SHAVING CREAM.

Small quantities given without charge. At 114 Chestnut St., PHILADELPHIA. THIS new and splendid article, as its name denotes, is prepared to be superior to any Shaving Cream in the United States or Europe. It is unsurpassed for beauty, purity and fragrance, though somewhat analogous to Guerlain's Ambrosial Cream and other similar compounds. It far surpasses them all by the emollient pasty consistency of its lather, which softens the beard as to render shaving pleasant and easy. It further possesses the advantage over the imported article, in being freshly prepared, no skill being wanting in its manufacture. E. Roussel having had many years' experience in the celebrated Laboratory of Laugier, Paris, at Filz, now Renaud & Co., of Paris. Besides being the best, it is the cheapest article for shaving; it is elegantly put up in boxes, with splendid steel engraved labels. Price $3 per dozen, or 37 1/2 cents for a single box, to shave one year. It is sold at $1 50 per lb. or 12 1/2 cents per oz., so that gentlemen can have their beards shaved at EUGENE ROUSSEL'S, Wholesale and Retail Perfumery and Mineral Water Establishment, 114 Chestnut Street, Dec. 19, 1846.— PHILADELPHIA.
