AND OF JUAN PERMANER.

in Gelson, of the barque Whiten, who uted a voyage during the last summer to stnis and Oregon, has written several letfor the Christian Advocate, containing metof interest. Cant G. on his passige out, ten in South lat. $230, long, West 7915, rites thus:

We are now in the South Pacific Ocean, and as the sun was setting in as clear a sky as he ever left in the Western borizon, a little to the left of where he was retiring to his ocean bed might be seen, in the far distant Southwestern view, a pyramid of rocks, then distant from us seventy good sea miles.

This was the last gaze we were taking of the island of Juan Fernandez, the residence of that monarch described by Cowper, who 'ruled over all he surveyed ;' I mean the great Alexander Selkirk, placed by Defoe in the person of Robinson Crusoe, with his man Friday, or another island in the South Atlantic, called Ferdinand de Noronbo. We are now rapidly leaving this place of story and of song, and I purpose giving you a brief sketch of a visit made by our missionaries to that place so famed in history.

About daylight of that day we first discovered the land, then about forty miles distant. The weather was pleasant and fine, and the wind was quite light, so that at 11 o'clock I judged the land about 25 miles off. However, baving a new boat, the passengers beset me to allow them an opportunity of setting foot upon the island. The boat was soon got over the side, and five of our male passengers, with the mate and two men, sprang into her, no doubt supposing that in a couple of hours they would stand upon land sgain, having been then 89 days on Ha hipboard. But landsmen make poor calculatore | Be at sea, as the sequel will show.

So anxious were they to reach St. Juan that provisions were not thought of, although I had taken the precaution to fiil a bucket with water, and have it placed in the boat. Of they E started at half past 11 o'clock in the morning. without dining, and they rowed hard to get to land. Soon after the boat shoved off we took a B light breeze, and at sunset the good barque O Whiton was off Cumberland Harbor. At this time might be seen, close under the land, and | p not yet into the harbor, our ship's boat, "tailing hard to get to land;' although the wind was not contrary they had not reached the haven they sought.

And to wind up our story, Providence having favored us with a breeze, after they had maile a short visit on shore they reached the vessel in . safety about nine o'clock at night, as we were then close in with the land, and they had not a long distance to pull to reach us. Poor fellows. they were almost exhausted, not having yet eaten anything, and the palms of their hands were in one blister. (for every man had to work.) so that up to this time I bardly think they could write a legible account of their voyege I think they have learned, however, that pyramids of two thousand feet high sometimes appear nearer at see than they really are; and I have no hope of giving von another account of their excursion in a boat. Upon the island they found thirteen couls in all, in a state of deplorable poverty, without a particle of household furn ture of any description, not even a chair, table or bed. Two of these wrotched preatures were females. These miserable Spaniards, made so by their own improvidence, were thus living upon an island that would reward labor as bountifully as any part of the world, and through their own slothfulness, suffering in the midst of the means of plenty, it only a proper effort was put forth to obtain the necessaries and comforts of life.

R LE ROY'S Pills are a new medicine which has just appeared, and is fast taking he places of all others of the same class. These ille are compared of many ingredients, but the we principal ones are Saraspatilla and Wild Charry, so united that they act together; the one, brough its admitture with other substances, puifying and purgine, while the other is etrepathe ing the system. Thus those pills are at the same time tonic and opening ; a desideratum long and esgerly sought for by medical men, but never before discovered. In other words they do the work of two medicines, and do is much better than any two we know of; for they remove nothing from the system but the impurities; so that while they purge they mrongthen; and hence they cause no debilitation, and are followed by no re-action. Dr. Le Ray's pills have a wonderful influence on the blood ; they not only purify without weakening it, but they remove all toxists particles from the chyle before it is converted into flaid, and thus make imoure blood an utter impossibility. As there is no Mitation to these is no pauses or sickness atending the operations of this most excellent of melicines, which never strains or toriures the digeslive functions, but cau es them to work in a perfectly natural manuer; and hence persons taking them do not feenme pale and emeriated, but the contrary; for while it is the property of the Sara-parella, anited as it is with other ingredients, to emove all that is foreign and impure, it is equally he property of the Wild Cherry to retain all that s natural and sound; and hence a tobust stare of health is the certain varual of their united operaions. The land is very rich, and yields plentifully, so that more than two hundred bushels of potatoes can be gathered from a single acre, and other things in proportion ; yet these people had only a patch fifteen feet square.

Peaches are in plentiful abundance all over the island, and strawberries also in their sesson. Quinces also grow in large quantities. These luxuries were introduced by Lord Aneon, and now abound there very plentifully. The wild goats, in countless droves, roam over the mountains, and are easily taken. Here also are to be found mules and horses in large numbers .---The missionaries saw all these playing among the hills, and some of them in use by the Spaniards. But the thirteen are not all Spaniards. Three of them are Americans who had run away from whale ships; and these three performed all the work, while the lazy Spaniarde reaped the benefit.

Fish may be procured in large quantities withe httle trouble. One bost obtained, in a short space of time, enough to last our large family as many days as they would keep. They are excellent and of various kinds, similar to our cod and rock-base. Lobsters are also very numerous, and easily taken. The goats are better than our yeal, and are caught from the backs of horses by a rope called a 'laseo,' thrown around their necks. They are also shot. We obtained three, and found them most excellent.

The island is about thirteen miles long, and 4 wide, and is in the latitude of 33 degree 45 minutes South, and 78 degrees, 58 West from Greenwich. On approaching its shores it appears like a stupendous barren pile of rocks, lifting up their brads over two thousand feet from the ocean, eplintered and thrown apart by the earthquakes of these regions. Shocks of earthquakes are continually occurring along the coast of Chili and Pers. and are as compon as thunder is with us. These shocks reach the islands all along the coast, and are often attended with great loss of life as well as of property. I not
