Dr. Silas E. Walton, of the Borough of Berwick, has been appointed by Revenue Assessor John, as one of his Deputies.

The Doctor, of the Republican, ought to know what is best for the "government," himself included, although some people think he does not, and regard him as nothing more than an "impertinent shark!"

The Republican editor, down town, expresses some fear that the "Copper Johnson party" might nominate his friend, ROBERT F. CLARK, for Congress in this District.

There will be an entertainment given in the "Hartman Building," corner of Main & Market streets by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church, beginning on Friday evening, the 15th inst., and continuing on Saturday, Monday, and Tuesday evenings, the 16th, 18th and 19th.

The wealthy and influential from all parts are flocking to the aid of JEFFERSON DAVIS.

In our "announcement column" it will be observed, that we publish in this week's issue the names of several good Democrats and worthy gentlemen for the office of State Senator.

We say patronize the man who advertises, in preference to one who does not.

THE PROGRESS OF MEDICAL SCIENCE.—One of the most valuable alternative and tonic remedies is the iodide of lime, which is prepared by Boston chemists.

The spirit of improvement is manifesting itself, in North East Bloomsburg, in many instances.

THE SPIRIT OF IMPROVEMENT.—A Town Hall is being built—our young friend, WILLIAM GILMORE, has fitted up a first class eating-house and cigar saloon.
