HON HIESTER CLYMER. OF BERKS COUNTY.

The County Convention

The Democratic County Convention will meet in this place on Monday, August 27th, sovereign so far as the affairs of the Democratic party in this county are concerned. -To it has been solemnly delegated the power to do what in its wisdom it may deem best for the success of the party, save in so far as it may be directly instructed by the people. It is at this time more than ever the duty of the Convention to act with the greatest possible prudence, and with entire fairness and In order that this duty may be fully performed, and that the people shall be clearly and fairly represented, the very best men of the party should be chosen as delegatesmen whose faith, in the Jeffersonian Demochonesty is unimpeachable.

Let every delegate clearly and distinctly understand the instructions of his constituents, both in respect to party principles, and to the support of particular candidates, and let those instructions be faithfully adhered not their instructions be violated. Let no weak and vacillating men besent to the Convention. Be certain of these things and satisfaction afterwards. Our sincere hope and main efforts are to prevent injustice at the Convention, or grumblings or bickerings afterwards. If our Democratic friends throughout the county will aid us in making those points secure, we think there will be no r tardiness on the part of politi-Democrats there should be no such hesitation or luke-warmness. Democrats at this time cannot afford to be bickering and disranks of the enemy let us unitedly fight for struggle for disunion a success. regard them as unwise and uncalled for.

Congress Adjourned.

On last Saturday the Rump Congress adjourned, for which let us rejoice. It would be a credit to our country and a blessing to the Rump legislators if the daily reports and oppressive and incendiary legislation which has kept the country in feverish excitement and anxiety during the unnecessarily protracted term, could be effaced or blotted out. But the crime has been committed and the rogues and murderers detected and secured, and now only await trial and conviction .-Like guilty wretches they could not separate without attempting to make some arrangethey might evade the judgment of the people, or prevent justice from being done. But we know from the way the leading Radicals expressed themselves on the eve of departure from the Capital, that there is something in the political world which denotes a change; there is something in the political atmosphere which sends a thrill of horror through the hearts of the Rumpers; they know that there is a current of popular opinion about to sweep over the land that will give vigor ambition of the disunion demagogues than the poised arrow of the Torbans. Their cause will now be submitted to the august Rumpers already feel that they are in imminent peril, notwithstanding their attempts to secure and protect themselves by official CURIOUS BUT TRUE. - Suppose that Democrat had, four years ago, at any public place in this town, declared that the Southern States should never be permitted to come into the Union. What would have been the result? Why, all the loyal loafers in the place would have immediately set up a howl similar to the following : "He's a traitor," tion and laws of the United States. "He's a copperhead," "Arrest him," "Kill him," "Bring a rope," &c., &c. This assertion can and is made now-a-days by such men as old Thad. Indiana contain a great many negroes, while New England has a very few. The proposed change, therefore, requiring the omission of all negroes except such as may be voters, should be decidedly popular with the Yankees, as the representation and power of the West would be sensibly diminished by the change, while their own would be relatively increased. "When General Geary was nominated a series of resolutions were passed by the convention which named him as a candidate of the "Union" party, and these resolutions contained matter very different from the declaration of principles made at Chicago when Lincoln and Hamlin were nominated; and at Baltimore when Lincoln and Johnson were nominated. They also contained assertions concerning the course which President Johnson has pursued, which are false in point of fact and grossly offensive in language. There cannot be a doubt that those esolutions were intended to widen the breach between the friends of the Federal Government and the revolutionists who are striving to subvert the Constitution.

After the nomination was made we called upon General Geary to repudiate the offensive resolution but thus far he has not done so. There is yet time, but we can see no good reason for delay, nor any fair one for refusing to state his views candidly to the people. The principles which now divide the conservative portion of the Union party from the radical element are of such importance that they cannot be ignored at a time when the very life of the Republic is at stake. The silence of General Geary warrants the impression that he intends to stand upon those resolutions, and it is certain that they are not the platform of the Union party. It is folly for any one to flatter himself with the belief that the radical element their adhesion to it without subjecting it to alone can carry an election in Pennsylvania, even if the conservative Union men should simply refrain from voting. If any friend of General Geary will take the pains to calculate the percentage of votes which the party now dominant in the State can afford to lose, without incurring the certainty of These facts are not lost sight of in the soldiers of this State to South.
