LINES ADAPTED TO THE RECENT DEATH OF LITTLE ELIZABETH ELNORA ASH, OF BENTON TOWNSAIP, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA., AGED 2 YEARS, 6 MONTHS, AND 18 DAYS. Little Nora slumbers sweetly, In her narrow, lonely bed; Pelting storms and howling tempest Cannot reach her little head. Sweet affection drops a tear O'er the spot where Nora lies; Angels whisper, "look up yonder," Pointing upward to the skies.

On our mem'ries deeply graven, Stands her little image fair ; Sparkling eyes, and shining temples, Rosy cheeks and golden hair. Ruby lips, so full of smiling, Neck and arms of spotless white ; Little feet, so full of running, Little Nora was so bright. Put away her little playthings, Yonder sits her little cup, On the table lies her whistle, Oft she pressed it to her lips. On the window lies her bible Lo! the chair on which she sat; On the nail in yonder corner, Hangs alone her little hat. Oh! remove those sad memorials, Lay them carefully away; Christ, be thou our consolation. In the dark and gloomy day, O, forgive the thoughts within us, And, Oh, keep her spirit here; In blissful regions Nora dwells, Forgive thou us this mournful tear. Little Nora slumbers sweetly, In her lonely, narrow bed :

Pelting storms and howling tempest, Cannot reach her little head.
