We would direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of J. H. Stecker's farm in another column of this paper. This is a desirable property, and will be sold upon reasonable terms. It is situated in Hemlock township, one of the richest townships in the county.

The boating season is about over. The water will be left out of the canal on or about the 17th inst. The boatmen have clear much money.

ABRAHAM PEALER, who was convicted of larceny in our Court last week and sentenced to serve a term of one year and eleven months in the Eastern State Penitentiary, was escorted to that solitary and dreary looking abode, on Tuesday last, by SAMUEL SNYDER, Sheriff of this county.

Hon. John McReynolds and Hon. Stephen Baldy, both late Associate Judges ounty, have retired from their official duties with the highest honors and leave within the hearts of the people grateful remembrances of them as just and faithful officers in the honorable and responsible duties

The newly elected Associate Judges, IRAM DERR, of Jackson, and Peter K. HERBEIN, of Locust, entered upon their duties last week at the commencement of our December Term of Court. These gentlemen are well qualified for the positions to which the people have chosen them, and will | ISAACS, M. D. Oculist and Aurist (formerly of Leyfill their offices with becoming dignity.

DAVID LOWENBURG advertises in another column his splendid stock of clothing for the holidays. He has a very superior assortment, and persons desirous of securing their winter clothing should give him a call. He makes up his clothes and does not deal in ple remedy, after having suffered several years, with a slop-shop articles. He employs a half dozen persons, who are of the first-class in their line, in making up clothing to order and for the sales room. Give him a call.

We are credibly informed that a son of ADAM BABB, of Pine Township, Columbia County, not long since, shot three deer, in the woods, near the residence of his father, all within a very short time. The boy is quite a young marksman, -just fairly in his "teens," Deer are said to be plenty this fall; although, as yet, but few have reached this market. On Saturday last we saw one, a large buck, which had been shot on the North Mountain.

Voluntary communications, containing interesting or important news, briefly stated, are solicited from all parts of the State, as well as from the County, and when used, will be, in some way or other, paid for. ROBBERY. -On Wednesday evening last, JOHN HICKS, who carries on a Pottery at this place, while on his road home, a short distance this side of Centralia, on the Mountain, was attacked and robbed, of over Fifty Dollars in eash, by four ruffians. Mr. Hicks was in his wagon, returning from down country" where he had sold out his oad of wares. The villains halted his team. lrew pistols upon him, demanded his money, and he not making to them a satisfactory move towards producing it, whereupon two of the robbers sprang into the wagon and commenced riffling his pockets. They took from him the above amount in cash, and notes, against different individuals. amounting to some two hundred dollars. In their hurry and roughness they tore one pocket entirely out of his pantaloons, and oct stopping to unbutton his coat and vest, they jerked them open, thus tearing off the buttons and giving the clothes all the appearof having passed through rough hands. This happened in the early part of the evening, when all was quiet and the road very ttle traveled. After the villains had "went Mr. H., he politely asked them to et him have enough money to pay his landord's bill over night, but they gruffly refused this modest request. Mr. H. took them to be foreigners, judging from their voices. If this state of thing continues steps should a taken to ferret out the rascals and bring

DEMUCEALANDS AR. A Printed Sight. - We notice on the street a legless soldier playing a hand organ for a living. While Congress on its first meeting had its attention altogether engaged with measures to support idle negroes, these legless "nation's defenders," are obliged to move from town to town, grinding a hand organ, and occasionally receiving a pittance from the passers by, which keeps them from starving. Such is Radical sym-
