

BLOOMSBURG.

Wednesday, Dec. 19, 1866.

We will thank our readers for all local occurrences in their immediate localities. If they so desire to write a communication for the public eye, let them send us a brief statement of everything of interest in their respective communities. A list of marriages, deaths, accidents, fires, removals, business failures, &c. We will put them in form. The more facts of this kind we can get the better it will suit us and our readers. Who will do it?

To ADVERTISERS.—Persons wishing advertisements inserted, must hand them in early on Tuesday morning to insure their insertion for that week.

If you want to buy cheap furs and dry-goods, go to the NEW YORK STORE.

Hon. C. R. BUCKALEW will please accept our thanks for copies of the Daily Globe.

Read the original poetry on our first page, entitled "Lyrics of the Susquehanna," also the piece from the pen of "Ego."

An exchange thinks the election of only two outcasts in Massachusetts exhibits a niggardly disposition. Exactly. It was a matter of both stint and stink.

Henry Giger has sold out his store to Dr. H. C. Hower, Dentist of this place. The Dr. will do well. Mr. G. contemplates locating in the West.

John K. Girtan is not behind any of our Grocers in making preparations for the holidays. He has an excellent supply of Groceries. Give him a call.

Snow.—The second snow of the season fell on Sunday last, to the depth of six or eight inches. Those of our citizens who tried the sleighing on Monday, pronounce it "nothing extra." There is not a sufficient quantity of the white article, besides the foundation is too rough for so thin a coat of snow to make excellent sleighing.

We would announce to the patrons of the DEMOCRAT AND STAR, and the public generally, that C. C. Marr, Grocer of this place, has on hand a large and grand assortment of candies and toys in endless variety, for the Holidays, which, he says, he will sell a little cheaper than can be purchased at other stores.

THE RUPERT HOTEL.—Mr. GEORGE H. BROWN, has purchased the Rupert Hotel, located at Rupert Station, two miles South of Bloomsburg, for the consideration of $50,000. Possession upon the first of next March. Mr. & Mrs. Brown, had large experience in catering for the public and are eminently qualified to "Keep a Hotel."

Since last week gold caused a great fall in Dry Goods and Groceries. MARR purchased largely when gold had reached the bottom. His new advertisement, which you will find in another column, shows that he is selling goods, for cash, at very low figures.—Fail not to read it.

JOHN G. JACOBY, Esq., has purchased the Bowman Farm—excepting the Mills—in Blairsville, Columbia County, and taken possession. Price, $5,000.00 cash. Mr. Jacoby is a good Democrat, an excellent citizen, and has a very valuable farm.

After this week we intend sending out bills to all of our patrons who are owing us on subscription, advertising and job-work. All who are in arrears for the present year's subscription are requested to settle up by the first of February next.

We acknowledge the receipt of the Real Estate Record, published in Philadelphia for gratuitous circulation. It is to be a first-class advertising medium. This is an interesting paper, contains the description of some of the best farms in Pennsylvania and other States. Those wishing a copy for the year have only to send 12 cents, to pay the postage, to TOWNSEND & Co., No. 237, South Sixth Street, Philadelphia.

The original Peak Family, the renowned and famous Swiss Bell Ringers, will give an exhibition of their wonderful performance with the bells, in Snyder's Hall on Thursday evening, the 20th inst. They will also execute pieces of choice music on the Piano and Harp. This Company is not surpassed in the United States. Go and see them. They draw crowded houses, of the best quality, wherever they perform.

CHRISTMAS.—As Christmas approaches our stores begin to present a most gorgeous appearance. At no previous time has the display equalled the present. There will be no necessity this year of sending to New York and Philadelphia for suitable Holiday presents. We may give a list of our advertisers next week, indicating to our readers where various articles may be found.

During the past week there has been both a heavy and rapid decline in all city markets in the prices of cotton goods, wool, grain, pork and provisions. It has not reached here yet; but knowing ones say the decline must come and the speculators be ramped. There is no reason why the decline should not reach this place and that at an early day.

DON'T BOYS!—Don't look at the girls. Can't you see they don't like it? In fact, won't endure it. It's absolutely insulting. Do you suppose they put on feathers, flounces, water-falls, ribbons and rings, for you to look at? Not much! It's only to please ma and pa. They can't bear to be looked at—which you might know by their blushes, if you had any gumption. Don't do it.

As the Holidays are close at hand, and many people desirous of purchasing toys, candies and knick-knacks, of every description, to suit the fancy of the little ones, it is no more than proper and right, as journalists, that we should inform them where they can buy these articles at reduced prices for cash. That place is at the Confectionery Establishment of B. H. STORNER, and this place. He has a large variety of fancy and plain candies, besides an endless assortment of toys. See advertisement in to-day's paper.

Gold was quoted at 137 1/2 in Philadelphia on Monday last.

Mr. A. Hartman, has just received a lot of Ladies' Goods, Cassimers &c., &c. All cheap for cash or trade.

SALE! AUCTION! AUCTION! At H. W. Cressy & Co.'s Store, in Light Street, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday Evenings, of this and next week. He will offer all kinds of goods commonly found in his store. Here will be a fine chance for bargains. Goods will be sold cheap for cash.—Be sure and attend the sales.

DANIEL A. BECKLEY, bookseller and stationer, at this place, has just received at his store a large assortment of fancy candies, notions, toy-books, pictures, albums, and in short, a little of everything commonly found in stores of the kind, for the holidays, all of which he will sell cheap for cash. Store on the southwest corner of Market Street. Give him a call.

FIRE.—On Monday evening last, the Wheel-house, adjacent to the Ironville Furnace Buildings, was burned down. It made quite a large fire, and it was with difficulty that the other buildings were saved. The supposition is, that the fire originated by some oil taking fire which was near the stove.

REVIVAL.—A great religious revival has prevailed in our town and vicinity for the last few weeks. The revival is spreading and bids fair to absorb the main elements of our society. Some of the most interesting young people in our town have been awakened, and are now assisting at these revivals. A community without religion is barbarian. God grant success to this great movement. It will do more good for Bloomsburg than all its manufactories.

A very successful meeting has been going on in the village of Buckhorn, for about a month, ending on Thursday evening last, and resulting in the conversion of about ninety souls. We are glad to hear of good being done in any place, and hope that the people of the above named village that have professed a hope in Christ, may fully depart from iniquity, and be zealous and faithful followers of the cause they have espoused. We would advise all young converts, as a friend, to avoid or shun temptation as they would the evil one, as it is only the same enemy in another form. This meeting was conducted by the Rev. Mr. KING and his colleagues, ministers of the M. E. Church.

MANHOOD: How Lost, How Restored.

Just Published, a new edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S Celebrated Essay on the Sexual Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Debility, Nervousness, and all the Disorders of the Genital Organs, and the Means of their Cure. Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, fully and clearly explains the nature and consequences of self-abuse, and how it may be radically cured without the dangerous use of medicines, or the application of surgery, and points out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which any person, no matter how long he may have been afflicted, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This lecture should be read by the hands of every youth and every man in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Address the publishers, J. C. KLINE & CO., 127 Bowery, New York, Post Office No. 4, 2568. Dec. 19, 1866.
