Is SNOW A FERTILIZER ?- "Farmer," of Sullivan Co., N. Y., writes: "I have freuently heard it said that snow is very beneficial to land, and hence it is called the 'poor man's manure.' Altough this is a commonly received opinion, I have hitherto failed to meet with any one who could explain it upon philosophical principles, and have been led to doubt the truth of the assertion. Why is it said to be so?" ANSWER .- Snow absorbs from the atmosphere very considerable quantities of ammonia, which is especially abundant in the air near cities, as it is set free from coal and other fuel. It is a warm covering, protecting the plants covered by it especially such as the grasses and winter grains, from the unfavorable action of frost, frozen, good bed of snow lying upon it several weeks will thow it all, and even permit a groth of grain and grass to take place When it melts, the soil has the of the ammonia and any fertilizing that the snow may have caught, and snow-water besides contains much oxygen -hence the effects are like those of manure, and the reason for the popular judgment,

"Great Exposition" to be held in Paris the present year, market gardening will be a prominent horticultural feature. A portion of the grounds is appropriated to the use. under the direction of a committee of the most celebrated market gardeners near Paris. It is proposed to have a model garden to illustrate all the processes of cultivation employed in supplying Paris with its legumes, or, as a Jersey-man would say, "garden truck" extensive programmes are put forth for displays in other departments of Horticulture, but we see nothing at once so novel and so useful as this.

Do WEEDS EMIGRATE WITH A PEOPLE? Is the substance of a letter from a "doubter." They go just as far as the people take the seeds of weeds along with them. The more civilized the people, the more agricultural and other seeds they would take from their old home, and would sow many weeds with their first crop. Besides, the seeds of weeds will be taken in the wool of sheep, in packing straw and other material, and in a hundred unthought of ways. Some seeds are carried by the winds, and others by streams, but the greater number are taken to a new country by human agency.-American Ag-

FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA COMBINED WITH IODIDE OF LIME, PREPARED FOR G. W. PETTES, BOSTON.

JAMES R. NICHOLS & CO. Manufacturing Chemists. MANUFACTURERS OF THE ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK

Protoxide of Iren. Which has become so favorably known as a TONIC AND RESTORATIVE.

By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the coun The new preparation, "Surseparalla in combina-ion with ladide of Lime," presents one of the most brompt alterative agents, in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute nd pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative resolvent, or tonic effects of lodine are exert-ed most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfill perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" staken, is an increase of appetite showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its al-terative effects are manifest in its ready combina-tion with the blood and tissues. Pale, scrofulous omen and children improve rapidly under its use nd the vital functions assume a healthy condition. It is admirably adapted to a large number of chron c or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suit d to them both by the mildness and emerency of edicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of e remedy. It may be given for a long period where nstitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclinat on to take the syrup, encountered. In White Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

In the Spring of the Year, and during the Warm Weather, the accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome Lassitude, Headache, Boits, Costiveness, Loss of Appetate, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSALARILLA WITH IODIDE o proporation like it, or which approximates to it as an Alterative, or Blood Purifier. has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combina-tion. In no respect resembling anything hitherto em-The opinion of medical men concerning it the decription of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, hich can be had at the store of any and all first lass Druggists.
