

LANEHOLOY DEATH.—One of those... melancholy deaths which sometimes startle a community, occurred in our village on last Saturday evening.

PROFESSOR HUEY.—As announced in our first number, this gentleman, assisted by his class, gave a farewell concert at the Independent Church, on Monday night last.

MAJ. J. D. HAMILTON.—On Monday last, this prince of good fellows, and highly popular landlord, happening to be in our town, took occasion to illuminate our sanctuary a short time by bobbing round to see us.

A. J. RHEY, Esq.—This gentleman, who has for some months been in Washington City, discharging the duties of a responsible office under the general government, arrived here on Saturday evening last, and has since been spending the time among his relatives and friends, and the scenes of his earlier days.

EXHIBITIONS.—Yankee Loomis and troupe gave two exhibitions at Myers' Hall, on Monday and Tuesday evenings. We attended each for a short time, but could not remain long enough to judge of the whole performance.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We would respectfully inform all who desire to communicate with the public, through the columns of The Alleghanian, that we cannot publish communications of an anonymous character.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS!—We take great pleasure in informing the citizens of Ebensburg, that Blain, the barber,—Blain, the accommodating,—Blain, the caterer to the wants of the innerman,—will serve up to his numerous customers fresh oysters on Monday next.

AURORA BOREALIS.—On Sabbath night last, we had a most magnificent display of this singular and inexplicable phenomenon. It began in the evening, and lasted during the entire night.

EBENSBURG BRASS BAND.—Sometime during the past winter, a party of worthy fellows, consisting of Robert Litzing, C. T. Roberts, John Rodgers, Jr., J. N. Kinkead, David Evans, Felix Henle, John Evans, Jeremiah Fagan and G. Alexander Kinkead, all good and lawful citizens of our town, conceived the idea of supplying a want which had long been felt, by the formation of a Brass Band.
