

We clip the following from the Weekly Bugle, published at Council Bluffs, Iowa. Mr. Rider, the gentleman who so successfully frustrated the designs of a bold and daring thief, was formerly a resident of Wilmore, and engaged in the firm of Messrs. W. H. Gardner & Co. It will give his friends in that locality pleasure to learn that he came out first best in the encounter.—Ed. Alleghenian.

A BOLD THIEF.—On last Thursday morning, at about the hour of 3 o'clock, an unassuming villain, made a forcible entry into the Law and Real Estate office of Street & Rider, with the intention of "seeking what he might devour," but was most fortunately frustrated. It appears that at the hour afore named, Mr. Rider, who was sleeping in the back room of the office heard rather a strange and unaccountable noise, which seemed to proceed from the front room, where all valuables are kept, and in turning over in bed, the noise ceased, but soon to commence, whereupon Mr. R. immediately got up and dressed himself, and as he passed into the front room, was confronted by the thief, who made a pass at Mr. R., striking him on the head with so much force, that it felled him to the floor, when a most desperate struggle ensued; but Rider, about to get the advantage of his rascally opponent, he instantly sprang to his feet, and made a rush for the open window, through which he had previously entered, but in his hurried exit, he jarred the window sash so much that it fell down, and in doing so, closed in and nipped off the individuals coat tail, which contained the papers &c., in his pocket, which he had stolen, much to his chagrin and confusion. He made a complete examination of every thing in the office, and had laid out a watch and some other valuables, to take, but was so suddenly and unexpectedly frustrated, that he left all he designed stealing. He made his escape by good running.

OBITUARY.—It is with feelings of unfeigned sorrow we announce the death of Dr. C. J. HIRST, who departed this life at Galesburg, Ill., on Sunday, the 1st inst. He had but lately left his home in Altoona, Penna., for a wider field of labor in the growing West; yet, alas, how true we often find it, that "man proposes but God disposes." His new home had been to him little else than a bed of sickness and of suffering, terminating only in death. He leaves a most inestimable widow to mourn his early end. We cannot but sympathize with her in this great loss, and pray that the good God who promises to be a husband to the widow, will be very near to her in this her time of need. In his private and professional career, Dr. Hirst had won the esteem of all by his many deportment and earnest efforts in behalf of morality and religion; and to those who knew him we need only add the following lines, which will find an echo in every heart:

"He in his duty prompt at every call,
He watched and wept, he prayed and felt for all;
And as a bird each fond endearment tries,
To tempt her new-fledged offspring to the skies,
He tried each art, reproved each dalliance,
Allured to brighter worlds, and led the way."

"CONSOLIDATED CONCERT."—Yesterday morning, bills were freely posted in our streets, calling attention to the fact that, in the evening, Yankee Loomis and Troupe and the Cambria Brass Band would give to our citizens and "the rest of mankind," a grand "Consolidated Concert." The excitement ran high; everybody anticipated a rare intellectual and musical treat. But, alas! how vain are all worldly expectations! Towards evening the parties agreed to disagree, and the result was that the "Consolidated Concert" didn't come off. The Band, however, held forth to an audience at the Court House, whilst the veritable Yankee occupied his old quarters at Myers' Hall. We attended upon each for a time. The music of the Band was excellent. The performance of the Yankee was a success. Mons. Sharrett, of Johnstown, was added to the troupe on this occasion, and closed the concert by a song that astonished the natives, and brought down the house.

W. S. HAVEN.—Our readers are referred to the advertisement of W. S. Haven, to be found elsewhere in our Paper. He has the largest and best establishment of the kind in Pittsburgh. All who may desire blank books, stationery, fancy job printing, book binding, or any thing of the kind, would do well to send their orders to Mr. Haven. We are confident satisfaction will be given in all cases.

CAMBRIA BRASS BAND.—This excellent band of musicians made a triumphal entry through our town on yesterday morning. They were gaudily equipped, and, en passant, played a number of lively and fashionable airs.

CHARLES DICKENS' WORKS.—The well-known firm of T. B. Peterson and Brothers, 306 Chestnut street Philadelphia, have just commenced publishing a remarkably cheap edition of these unapproachable works of fiction. It is called "Peterson's Cheap Edition for the Million, of the entire writings of Charles Dickens, Esq.," and will be issued complete in twenty-eight volumes. One volume will be published regularly on each and every Saturday, until the whole number of volumes—twenty-eight—is completed. The low price fixed by the publishers for them are only 25 cents a volume, or the whole twenty-eight volumes for five dollars. A complete set will be forwarded free of postage by Mail, to any part of the United States, to any one, by the publishers, on receiving a remittance of five dollars for the first twenty-eight volumes; or a remittance of three dollars will pay for the first fourteen volumes; or a remittance of one dollar will pay for the first four volumes. The volumes will be neatly printed and each volume will contain 190 large octavo pages, printed on fine white paper, and neatly bound with paper cover. The revised uniform Edinburgh edition, from which this is reprinted, comprises twenty-eight volumes, the cost of which is seventy-five dollars; and this edition will contain every word of the Edinburgh edition. We commend the determination of this enterprising Philadelphia firm, to furnish the complete and entire works of Charles Dickens at a price so reasonable, that all persons whatever may possess a full set, and direct the especial attention of our readers to the fact, and would advise them all to make a remittance of Five Dollars at once, per first mail, to the publishers, for the entire set, who will send them complete to any one, free of postage, on receipt of that sum.

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS.—Dr. Bunn has kindly furnished us with the result of his chemical analysis of the whiskey found in the possession of the late William Williams, at the time of his death. It is a sad picture of the heartlessness of those who make and sell the poisonous drug to "get gain." The Doctor is fast winning a reputation for his skill in this favorite science. We subjoin the analysis, merely remarking that we have seen at the Doctor's Drug Store the poison referred to:

Ebensburg, Sept. 5, 1859.
Esq's WILLIAMS AND KINKEAD.
Gentlemen:—The whiskey which you left with me one week ago for chemical examination, has been disposed of as desired. The following is a true report of the result of my investigation.
No strychnine was found in said liquor, but in lieu of that poison, I found an alkaloid known to chemists as picric acid, and which is the poisonous constituent of Cocculus Indicus. The proportion found was two grains to the pint of whiskey.—In regard to the virulence of this poison, I would inform you that it is considered by the best authorities fatal to human life in quantities of from five to ten grains, according to circumstances and conditions.
Very respectfully yours,
R. S. BUNN.

CAMP MEETING.—There has been quite a pleasant Camp meeting held, during the past five or six days, on a farm belonging to Samuel Davis, situated about seven miles west of town. Quite a number of our citizens paid it a visit on Sunday last, and reported the attendance to have been large, and expressed themselves well pleased with the order and general good feeling that prevailed. There were some twenty tents erected on the ground for the accommodation of the members who remained the entire week. The usual number of ministers were present, some of whom it is said exhibited more than ordinary evidence of becoming distinguished in pulpit eloquence.

IN TOWN.—Among the many distinguished gentlemen in attendance at our Courts, during the present week, it may not be amiss to mention Hon. H. D. Foster, of Greensburg, and Hon. Samuel Calvin and Hon. John Cresswell, of Hollidaysburg. We have been credibly informed that either of these gentlemen is ready and willing at any moment to neglect his private business for the purpose of discharging the duties of Governor of the Old Keystone for the next gubernatorial term. Whether either of them will be called upon to make such sacrifice, is a problem which has not yet been solved.

FAILURE.—Yankee Loomis and family, attempted to give two exhibitions in the town of Wilmore, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week. For some cause the audience would not come, and the troupe left expressing their disgust for the high tone of morality displayed by the inhabitants of the village.

CRESSON HOUSE.—We had the pleasure of seeing Wm. S. Campbell, Esq., in town this week. He was engaged in the prosecution of some individuals who had relieved him of several very necessary articles in use at the Mountain House, at Cresson.

We understand that he closed that beautiful summer resort on Saturday last, for this season. We feel sure that, of his many visitors, it was no fault of his if they did not receive a full equivalent for their disbursements. Mr. Campbell is a model Hotel keeper.

IN TOWN.—Swank, the junior editor of the Cambria Tribune, has been in town during the week, serving his country in the onerous and responsible position of a petit juror. He looks well as usual, and seems to be as much at home on a civil or criminal case, as on a case of type. He and his partner Bowman, print one of the neatest little papers in appearance in the State. It is true, we sometimes object to their editorials; but it is equally true, no doubt, that they sometimes object to ours. Success to us all.—Amen.

R. C. LEWIS, ESQ.—We neglected in our last issue to note the arrival in our town, of our friend R. C. Lewis, Esq., who formerly resided here, but who for some years past has been engaged in the practice of the law in Illinois. He looks well, and since his advent amongst us has been taken by the hand by many old friends and acquaintances. We should be glad to see him pull up stakes in Illinois, and hang out his shingle in Ebensburg.

FOR RENT.—We desire to call particular attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Lloyd & Hill, by which they propose to rent the Pensacola Mill Property. The property they advertise possesses rare advantages for the manufacture of lumber, and any one desirous of engaging in that business would do well to take a lease of it for a term of years.

BASKET MEETING.—A Basket Meeting of the Universalists was held in a grove on the farm of Ephraim Crum, near Wilmore, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday last. The attendance is represented to have been meagre, and the speaker as having much less ability than those who usually travel to disseminate those doctrines.

DR. JOHN C. CLARK.—We take great pleasure in calling the attention of all those suffering from that "foe to all peace of mind"—the toothache—that the Dr. is in town this week ready and willing to attend to all such dental troubles. He can be found at Dr. Lewis' office.

NOTICE.—We are authorized to say to the members of the Cricket Club, that the Bats and Balls arrived this morning. We hope to see the young gentlemen composing it make their first appearance on the ground on Saturday afternoon next, as we believe that is the day they have selected.

RECOVERING.—The young man Lynch, near Wilmore, spoken of by us as having been injured by falling from the hay loft some time ago is so far recovered, as to be able to walk about.

DIED.—On Monday morning last, Mrs. MARY JANE GOODWIN, wife of Samuel Goodwin, and daughter of Richard and Eliza Thomas, in the 19th year of her age.

MARRIED.—On the 30th of August, by Rev. James I. Brownson, Geo. M'C. PONT, Esq., of New Cumberland, Virginia, to Miss SADE LEWIS, of Washington, Pa.

FOR RENT.
The subscriber will lease for a term of years "THE PENSACOLA MILL PROPERTY," with 1,600 acres of land adjoining, heavily timbered—30 acres surrounding the mill are cleared, and under a high state of cultivation. Also, Blacksmiths' shops, Trucks, &c. The Mill has one of Page's Circular Saws in it, as well as an upright saw, and three small circulars for lath, &c., and is capable of making 10,000 FEET OF LUMBER PER DAY.
The above described valuable property will be leased on favorable terms. Possession given at any time.
